19TH YEAR. NO. 193. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 1902. TWO CENTS.

GOLF CLUB FORMED SOON TO BE READY FOR ACTIVE PRACTICE

Grounds Embracing 30 Acres Near Thompson Park Have Been Leased and Are Being Prepared For the Links.

With the formation of a golf club, which was done at a meeting held recently in the office of Charles Macrum, actuary of the East Liverpool Potteries company, every line of sport known to the sporting and fun loving elements of the United States is represented in this city. Ping pong until now has been the fad, especially so among society circles, but it as well as foot ball, base ball, tennis and everything of the sort will be relegated to a minor place until the latest sport, old to thousands, but quite new to most people of the Crockery city, has worn out.

Much time and labor has been consumed in the formation of the club. Although the officers, Charles E. Macrum, president; Edwin M. Knowles, vice president, and Harry T. Hall, secretary and treasurer, have been at the head of the work, numerous others, among whom is Secretary M. C. Wright, of the Y. M. C. A., have done quite a good deal toward helping the project along.

Numerous committees have been appointed to look after the many important features incident to the permanent organization and all are putting forth their best efforts to make the sport one to be enjoyed by all who participate and also those who will witness the performance. The membership is limited and the list has been filled. Quite a number who have handed in applications for membership will be given a chance at the earliest opportunity.

The grounds selected and leased by the organization cover nearly 30 acres, located near Thompson park and in a truly picturesque locality, admirably adopted to the purpose for which they are to be used. Workmen have been contracted with to clear the grounds and have them in shape for the games within two weeks.

The members of the team already accepted are anticipating great amusement in the sport this fall, but do not count much on becoming experts before next spring. They, however, have hopes that they will become proficient to such an extent that they will not feel backward in playing with foreign teams before bad weather sets in. Each member has ordered his playing equipment, and none but the best will be used. It is expected that everything will arrive not later than the latter part of the week.

A charter has been applied for by the organization, and the name has been partially decided upon, but the officers are not as yet fully determined upon that point and withhold the names under consideration for the present.

GEN. GIBSON MEMORIAL

To Commemorate the Memory of a Gallant Officer Universally Beloved by Ohio Soldiers—The Local Post Will Help.

Commander Daniel McLane of the local G. A. R. post No. 44, received a letter this morning from Chairman Gibbs, of the Gibson Memorial Association, which has headquarters at Tiffin, asking that the members of Post 44 make cash contributions and use all the influence within their power toward raising sufficient money to erect a monument in honor of the late Gen. William H. Gibson. A part of the letter follows:

"Our post believes the time has now come and has undertaken the work and will prosecute it to completion. From all over the state there has come the word from comrades and admirers of the great soldier-orator, that they would be glad to give some assistance. We were delighted to know that the State encampment at Lancaster, not only gave approval, but the enthusiastic commendation of patriots to this noble cause. Gibson belonged, in a sacred consecration, to the interests of the old soldier, and nothing could be more appropriate than that an enduring tribute should be erected to his memory by his loyal comrades. No tribute could come to his name that would mean so much."

General Gibson was known personally by nearly every Grand Army man in the State of Ohio and not a few were intimate friends living in all parts of the United States. The members of the local post loved and adored the great major general. As an orator and stump speaker he had few equals. Commander McLane states that the matter will be brought before the post at the next regular meeting and that he thinks all will, in one accord, vote for assistance in the most worthy cause.

President William McKinley, who was a bosom friend of the late general, wrote of him as follows: "General Gibson believed the most important things in life were piety and patriotism. In his creed they were linked in indissoluble union. His piety was broad enough to include every creed, and his patriotism wide enough to cover the whole country. He once said to me that he put the flag beneath the cross. That, he said, was high enough for it. His name will be remembered as long as patriotism is revered."

GOVERNOR'S BILL TO BE PUBLISHED

CHANCE OF PASSING IT

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, August 16.—Yielding to requests which have poured in from all parts of the state, Governor Nash has decided to give out to the public an abstract of the provisions of the proposed municipal code bill which has been drawn under his direction. The press of the state will be furnished copies of it not later than Monday.

In taking this step the governor is also actuated by a wish to give the citizens an opportunity of analyzing and studying the measure before i goes to the general assembly. He thinks that he has been the target of unjust criticism because of his secrecy as to what the code contains, and pleads that it was due to the fact that it was in such an unfinished state that he would not sanction giving out information about it.

The state bar committee has compited its revision of the code and has left the city. The features which the committee did not approve are set forth in its report to the governor, who may or may not accept them, according to his pleasure.

Disquieting reports come from from the gathering at Representative Querin's clambake at Sandusky. They indicate that the majority of those present are opposed to the clause giving to the governor of Ohio the power to appoint police boards, declaring this would be in violation of the principle of home rule. The members from the rural districts also showed hostility to the placing of the line of demarkation between cities and villages at 10,000, and it will not be surprising if they take a firm stand for a lower figure for the dividing line.

When Senators Longworth and Connell arrived at the clambake they were at once surrounded by members who were anxious to learn something authoritative about the administration code and who had hoped that they might have it in their possession. They were disappointed at learning that that much-coveted instrument was still nestling secure, undefiled by public gaze, in the hands of the governor. They vouchsafed the information, though, that copies of it would be sent to the members, Republicans and Democrats, the latter part of next week.

Lieutenant Governor Gordan, who was present at the gathering, is reported as saying that he had no idea

POTTS GOES TO CANTON: WIFE CREATES A SCENE

Thomas Potts, the fiendish brute convicted and sentenced for the awful crime of attacking and frightening girls, was taken to the workhouse at Canton this morning by Officer Dunn.

Quite a scene took place at the depot and on the route leading from the jail, due to the wife of the prisoner. She went into a fit of raving; threatened to take her life; pleaded that her dear husband be released; wailed loud and long and topped it all off by the frequent kissing of the degraded wretch who is not worthy of the kiss of a dog.

While in her frenzied state had she known what the spectators were saying she undoubtedly would have turned upon them. Many were heard to say such beasts should not be allowed to live, and that the law could give him only $20 and costs was pointed out as a grave defect in the statutes calling for legislative remedy.

Mrs. Potts continued her ranting until the train pulled out, she following at the rear door of the train to the lower end of the platform and standing there until the last coach was lost to view.

The majority of the spectators showed their fury and contempt for Potts. Few showed pity for the prisoner. Several of his shantyboat friends were there and told him to not worry; that he would be released in a month and that it would not hurt him. The crowd became indignant at such a display and hooted at his so-called friends.

LABOR UNIONS TO ENTER POLITICS

THOS. J. DUFFY THE MAN

Most Favored And Can Have the Nomination If He Wants It—Republicans Not a Bit Concerned And Confident of Electing Kennedy.

That there will be a labor candidate in the field for Congress from the Eighteenth district this fall there is now no doubt. And what is more, the indications are he will be from East Liverpool.

The Democrats of the district for once at least have been far-sighted enough to see where they can profit in a measure by this sentiment on the part of the unionists, and from the present outlook that party will name the man.

More activity has been noted in the ranks of the Democracy recently than for several years, and it now develops that there is a very good reason for this. A prominent local member of the party said today:

"There is nothing to prevent the Democratic party from electing a congressman in this district, and we are going to make a hard fight for it. There will be no opposition from either Columbiana or Mahoning to the name which the East Liverpool delegation will present and he will be a labor man, too. The Democratic party has elected a congressman in '72, '82, 92 and we will positively name the man in 1902.

"The name is not a new one by any means. The work has been done quietly to the present, but now that we are sure of our ground there is no longer reason for secrecy. T. J. Duffy, National Secretary of the N. B. of O. P., is our man and he will win.

"Mr. Duffy is one of the brightest young men in the Eighteenth district, and the very fact that he is not a Republican will help his candidacy instead of injuring it. The East Liverpool man will go into the convention with the solid support of both Columbiana and Mahoning."

The time for holding the district convention has not been fixed, but it is said the announcement will be made within a few days.

Among a great many Democrats in this city there is a doubt as to whether Mr. Duffy will give his consent to become a candidate. He has never been in politics, and indeed it has only recently been generally known that he is a Democrat. He is very careful in talking on the subject, and has to the present succeeded in avoiding a political declaration as to his intentions in the matter. He said:

"The statement published in the News Review was as much news to me as anyone, and I am sure I have said nothing that would justify such an assertion. If the matter was presented to a prospective candidate in the light that he would stand a good chance to win he would be foolish to refuse to take it under advisement."

Nearly every trades union in the city has received a circular signed by the officers of the Alliance Trades and Labor Council announcing a meeting of the representatives of all labor organizations in the Eighteenth district.

The meeting will take place at Alliance next Saturday night, and it is expected that representative labor men from every city and town in the district will be in attendance. The purpose of the meeting, as announced by the Alliance people, is to select a labor candidate to be placed in the field for congress in the Eighteenth district.

Local labor men are of the opinion that the plan will not be favorably considered here. Those interviewed say the trades council would be the proper place to take such matters, and that if the members of that body see fit to send representatives to the meeting, all well and good; otherwise there is little likelihood of the scheme securing favorable consideration here.

Leading Republicans have been approached with a view of ascertaining what effect the proposed move would have upon the party. The universal opinion prevails that no amount of agitation along labor or any other lines will influence the usual Republican maority in the district. A prominent Republican said:

"No alarm is felt among Republicans. Those who have taken the trouble to post themselves are aware that the whole scheme was concocted at Alliance, where there is a handful of half-hearted Republicans who were disappointed at the result of the Salem convention. When the workers of the district realize they are being used for a purpose, and that purpose to further the ends of a few disgruntled ones, they will drop it like a hot potato. Mr. Kennedy, of Mahoning, will be elected by the usual majority."

THEY HAVE A CLEW

East Palestine, August 16.—(Special)—The police authorities of this town are quietly working on the post-office robbery case. They state that they have a clew which will eventually lead to the arrest of the thieves. Yesterday afternoon two men were seen driving in a buggy on the road leading from here to Niles. They were suspicious looking persons and the local authorities were notified. In a sort time the men were apprehended, but it was found that they were innocent farmers and not safe-crackers. What the clew is that the officers have is not known. They absolutely refuse to make any statement other than they are on the right track.

Decisive Game Today.

The decisive game in the contest between the Toronto and New Cumberland base ball teams will be played today, when the third of a series of five games will be decided. New Cumberland won two games and great interest is shown in today's game. If New Cumberland wins that team will have won three straight games and a purse of $200.

Elks' Carnivals Forbidden.

Street fairs or carnivals held under the auspices of Elks lodges were absolutely prohibited by the grand lodge of the order at the Salt Lake City convention. The new law will not go into effect until January 1, as many lodges in different parts of the country have already made plans for the holding of such fairs before that date.

LOCATING A LINE ACROSS THE COUNTY TO PENNSYLVANIA

Survey in Progress For a Supposed Wabash Railroad From Minerva to Lisbon and Thence to New Castle.

Lisbon, August 16. — (Special) — A corps of 12 engineers came to Lisbon several months ago and started on a preliminary survey of a railroad under the direction of J. A. Hanlon, of Coshocton. They kept their operations secret, but pushed ahead with the work.

It now develops that they are in the employ of the Wabash and are laying out a line from the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad at Minerva to New Castle, Pa., where the new line will tap the large freight business of the Mahoning and Beaver valleys. The new line follows down Beaver creek to Lisbon and then utilizes the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western line to New Galilee, a distance of 25 miles. This line was bought by Myron P. Herrick, of Cleveland, some time ago, in the interest of the Wabash.

The location from New Galilee to New Castle is completed and the surveyors are now at work locating the line from Lisbon to Minerva.

A GREATER PARADE THAN EVER BEFORE

ARRANGEMENTS GOING ON

Messrs. Leroy Orr, A. E. Bertelle, Harry Bascomb, John Boulton, George Hailes and Criss McConnell the committee of Trades and Labor Council appointed to make arrangements for Labor Day exercises held a meeting last evening and reported that everything was progressing nicely.

They have received 3000 pins which they will distribute on the morning of Labor day among those who will participate in the parade. The design of the pins is peculiarly attractive and they will be worn with pride. For several years ribbon styles have been provided for the paraders and the committee thought it best to make a change.

The secretary reported that he had received notice of acceptance from all the locals of the city which were invited to form in the line of the parade and from the present indications the parade will out-class in every particular any that has ever before been witnessed in the city.

Criss McConnell has been chosen chief marshal and has been given instructions to appoint 11 aids, selected from the several locals.

NEGLIGENCE CHARGED

Lisbon, August 16. — (Special) — Hiram J. Haldeman, a railroad postal clerk living at Salem, has entered suit against the Ft. Wayne railway for $1,990 damages. He states in the petition that on February 18, 1902, he was distributing mail in a car which standing on a sidetrack at Pittsburg, when the car was violently moved. He was thrown to the floor and severely bruised.

He claims that the railway company was negligent in running a train against the mail car which was regularly used by clerks for distributing mail.

PACKERS' LOCAL

Held a Meeting of More Than Ordinary Interest Last Evening.

The regular meeting of the packers' local last night was of more than ordinary interest, but the nature of the business transacted is not given out. A transfer was received from Sebring, and Howard Leslie was received into full membership.

A communication was received from Alliance Ttrade Council, asking that three delegates be selected from No. 25 to meet in Alliance next Saturday night for the purpose of choosing a labor candidate for congress in this district. No action was taken upon the matter.

The regular meeting of the packers' local last night was of more than ordinary interest, but the nature of the business transacted is not given out. A transfer was received from Sebring, and Howard Leslie was received into full membership.

A communication was received from Alliance Ttrade Council, asking that three delegates be selected from No. 25 to meet in Alliance next Saturday night for the purpose of choosing a labor candidate for congress in this district. No action was taken upon the matter.

POTTERY UNDERVALUATIONS.

Again reports are published charging gross undervaluations in connection with imported earthenware, including all lines of tableware known as china, etc. We have several times called attention to this line of undervaluations, says the American Economist. The pottery industry is the child of a protective tariff, especially in view of the fact that every dish represents almost exclusively hand labor. The two great centers of the pottery industry in this country are Trenton, N. J., and East Liverpool, O., where nearly one hundred factories are located. The rate of duty on pottery is 55 and 60 per cent ad valorem, which is ample protection to American labor and producers providing our tariff laws are enforced. The simple fact is that our customs service, in this line, is so completely dominated by foreign interests and foreigners that honest importers and domestic producers cannot compete with those who enjoy special favors. Investigations of undervaluations are under the direction of the supervising general agent of the treasury department, W. S. Chance, who hails from Ohio, and under the personal direction of Special Agent Williams at Paris, also from Ohio. The manufacturing potters should look into the matter of administration. They will find Secretary Shaw ready to correct any weak points in the service.

SHORTER WORK DAY.

There is a growing tendency among the pottery workers in the Liverpool district for the enforcement of the shorter work day. It is true a great majority of those employed in the various pottery trades work by the piece, and therefore are able to regulate the length of their day's work as best suits them, but it is a fact that has been commented upon more than once lately that these workers are gradually lessening their hours of labor until now scarcely an employe of a pottery is working in excess of the reasonable number of hours. There was a time in the history of potting in East Liverpool that the piece work employes was accustomed to turn out for work at a very early hour in the morning and continue until dark. Very few if any are observing such hours. Not a few have been asked as to the cause of the change in their habits, and invariably the reply is that they find almost of not quite as much can be accomplished in a shorter period. Their explanation is the same as that given by many other classes of workers. A man can do about so much in a day, and do it rapidly and well. If he goes beyond this his work is not so effective and he is rendered incapable of as much and as good work for the next day.

CREW TOO LARGE.

Serious trouble was averted this week at the Globe pottery of the East Liverpool Potteries company by the prompt action of the Brotherhood officials and, those of the Kilndrawers' union. The crew of kilndrawers wanted more men to draw a bisque kiln than is allowed by the uniform scale. When the foreman refused to grant the request they refused to continue at the work. The firm notified the Brotherhood officials who in time placed the matter in the hands of an officer of No. 17. He repaired to the scene of the dispute, and ordered the men to resume. They did so, and the question will likely receive an airing at the meeting of the kilndrawers' tonight.

OTHER ALTERATIONS.

While the old end of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles plant is being rebuilt new other improvements are being made which will aid in modernizing the plant. The bottoms are being torn out ofthe bisque kilns, and will be peplaced by new ones. The ovens will then be as good as when they were new.

SEBRING LABOR DAY.

Local No. 44, N. B. O. P., of Sebring, has appointed the following as a Labor Day committee on arrangements for the meeting at Alliance, to be held September 1: Walter S. Crewson, H. J. McMaster, A. J. White, C. J. Blumenstiel, Robert Surles, Katie Sullivan, Bertha Summers and Pearl Cosgrove were appointed as a committee for the ladies. The local has purchased a fine new banner, valued at $50, and will use it for the first time on this occasion. Between three hundred and four hundred of the "girls and boys" from Sebring workshops expect to take part in the parade.

A WANDERER.

Archie Putman, who left this city to take a job in the jigger shop at the Barberton pottery only a few weeks ago, has arrived in the city and says he is home for good. Though he was absent but a short time Archie has had several situations since he gave up a good job here. He was in Barberton long enough to become convinced that he was not the man for the place. Putman then went to Sebring, meeting with about the same experience. He is now looking for a permanent location here and says East Liverpool is good enough after all.

A NEW KILN.

The new glost kiln which has been in course of erection at the Cartwright pottery is now finished, and the kilnhands will begin placing it on Monday. This is one of the many improvements that have been made at the plant during the summer.

KNOWN HERE.

Joseph E. Allen who is held at Pittsburg for the murder of of a woman by the name of King, was at one time an employe of the K., T. & K. pottery, having drawn kiln and worked as pin boy at the new end. He left suddenly about a year and a half ago.

POTTERY NOTES.

Wm. Hardy, dipper at Laughlin No. 3, is home from an extended trip to eastern seaside resorts.

National Secretary T. J. Duffy was busy yesterday sending out pamphlets containing the proceedings of the Trenton convention.

James Cannon, kiln fireman at the Riverside pottery at Wheeling, who has been visiting his brother, Thomas Cannon, of this city, since that pottery shut down, was called home Thursday.

At the last meeting of local union No. 44, N. B. of O. P., at Sebring, it was decided to form a sick benefit and burial association with the order and a committee was appointed to make arrangements therefor.

PETER POWER SUIT HEARING.

Way Plaintiffs For Actions Were Provided Inquired Into.

New York, Aug. 16.—The hearing before Special Examiner Richard A. Mabie, in the suit of Peter Power against the Northern Pacific railroad directors to prevent them from turning over the stock of the company to the Northern Securities company, was continued yesterday.

Little attention was paid to the Power suit, however, the most of the day being devoted to inquiry into the means whereby plaintiffs were provided in the similar actions against the Great Northern railroad, one of the constituent companies in the merger, which actions were based on the holdings of Mrs. Elsworth Ives Chapman and Milton F. Bouden.

AGAINST HAHN'S CONTENTION.

Stricken From Amended Petition, at Opposition's Behest.

Mansfield, O., Aug. 16.—Common Pleas Judge Campbell yesterday afternoon, at the hearing of the William Hahn habeas corpus case, sustained Assistant Attorney General Todd's motion to strike out from the plaintiff's amended petition the part which alleges that "said pretended requisition is not made in good faith, but to collect a debt by court process."

Six depositions were introduced by Hahn's attorneys tending to show that there had been collusion between the district attorney's office and the office of the Manhattan Fire Insurance company's receiver, but the judge sustained the prosecution's objection to the admission of these.

Judge Brucker was put on the stand to testify regarding an alleged attempt made some months ago, when the New York people were here taking depositions at his office, to force Mr. Hahn to settle by threatening him with an indictment, but Judge Campbell sustained Todd's objections to a number of the questions asked.

The hearing was continued until today.

COMPLAINTS OF THRONGS IN PUBLIC PLACES.

The Conditions on Saturday Evening Call Loudly for a Reform.

One of these days the police authorities will awaken to the need of instructing the officers to keep the crossings at the principal street corners clear of the crowds of men, women and children who persist in blocking the sidewalks nowadays. The nuisance is particularly objectionable in and about the Diamond and Sixth street on Saturday evenings.

It is no unusual thing to see on the corner a crowd that forces the patrolman out into the street, yet it apparently has never occurred to the policeman that he should direct the lingering ones to either "move on" or step back to the side of the pavement. If the officers would issue an order, the offenders might be educated in the course of a few months, and then the poor pedestrian would be able to pursue his way without an inclination to indulge in profanity at his inability to pass without going into the middle of the street, at the risk of being run down by a car. Possibly Chief Thompson has overlooked the extent of the nuisance which is growing worse continually.

There were three fakirs at the corner of Broadway and Sixth street last Saturday evening and passersby were compelled to walk around these crowds in order to proceed to their homes. At the corner of East Market street and the diamond the Salvation Army held forth. It is impossible to push one's way through the crowds that surround this little band and stand on the east sidewalk adjoining the Blackmore block.

SENATOR M'MILLAN'S FUNERAL

Detroit, Aug. 16.—Extreme simplicity marked the funeral services yesterday afternoon over Senator James McMillan, who died last Sunday at his summer home in Manchester, Mass. The services began at 2:30 o'clock at the family residence, 515 Jefferson avenue. Both branches of congress, the state legislature and all departments of the state and city governments were represented. Governor A. T. Bliss was present with several of his staff. The senatorial delegation included some of the most intimate friends of the dead senator. It was made up as follows: Senators Hanna, Ohio; Foraker, Ohio; Kean, New Jersey; McComas, Maryland; Allison, Iowa; Lodge, Massachusetts; Burrows, Michigan; Fairbanks, Indiana; Cockrill, Missouri, and Gallinger, New Hampshire. The District of Columbia was represented by District Commissioners McFarland and Biddle.

At 2:30 o'clock the strains of Handel's "Largo" came from the musicians and a hush fell over the friends as the service began. The Rev. Alfred H. Barr read the first few verses of the fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians. Then the musicians played "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," to the music of "The Refuge." The Rev. Mr. Barr made a short prayer and the benediction ended the service. The interment was private, at Elmwood cemetery. The body was placed in the McMillan mausoleum.

EAST END

NOTICE WAS SERVED

'Squire Carman Attended to the Matter And the Harshas Will Move.

It is probable the case of Mrs. Randall against the Harsha family will not be contested in the court of Justice Carman this afternoon. The defendants have concluded to reconsider their determination to retain possession of the Randall property and this morning vacated the premises.

An amusing incident in the case occurred yesterday when Mrs. Harsha called at the office of the justice and poured into his ears a sorrowful story calculated to appeal to his sympathies. She maintained that neither she nor her husband had ever been given notice that the owners of the house were denied possession. The 'squire thought they had, and presuming, of course, that the notice must come from Mrs. Randall, the Harsha woman was positive no notice had ever been served. When the justice concluded she had proceeded far enough with the argument, he queitly informed the woman that formal notice had been served upon her husband by the justice himself. The argument ended there and Mrs. Harsha went home to pack up.

WORK UNFINISHED

East End People Want to See the Virginia Avenue Bridge Completed.

Work has been suspended on the Virginia avenue bridge, because it is presumed those in charge have other and more important work demanding their attention. The residents of that section are not certain but the job is completed as far as the street force is concerned, but it is asserted by them that in appearance the bridge looks anything but finished.

A vast amount of filling in will be required before the approaches are made passable.

SPECIAL SERVICES

For the Reception of New Members at the Second M. E. Church.

The services at the Erie street M. E. church tomorrow morning will be of a special order. The pastor, Rev. G. W. Orcutt, has arranged for the reception of the probationers, and in addition to this ceremony communion will be administered.

The ingathering service will occupy considerable time on acccount of the large number to be taken into full membership, and for this reason there will be no sermon. In connection with the morning services the ordinance of baptism will be adminstered.

Picnic a Big Success.

Those in charge of the union Sunday school picnic held recently at Stanton park by the East End churches have now settled up all matters connected with the outing. The affair was a success in every particu lar, and contrary to the general rule some money was netted. The representatives of the several Sunday schools met this week, and after paying all expenses, found they were $50 to the good.

Defendant Did Not Appear.

When the case of Allison & Kerr vs. John Fetty was called at 2 p. m. yesterday afternoon in the court of Justice L. W. Carman, the defendant failed to put in an appearance. The amount asked was $74 and it included the costs and interest on the original account for a period covering almost a year. Documents in aid of execution had been issued, and money in the hands of John Schmeltzenbach was secured.

New Parsonage.

Workmen in charge of the erection of the new Erie street M. E. church parsonage will have finished their work in a few days. The lathing was completed yesterday, and the plasterers will begin their portion of the task on Monday. Rev. Mr. Orcutt hopes to be settled in his new home by the 1st of September.

Special Song Service.

Rev. N. M. Crowe is still absent on his vacation which he is spending in Armstrong county, Pa., and tomorrow the services at the Second Presbyterian church will be in charge of Rev. J. N. Swan. A special song service will be conducted in the evening with a short address by Rev. Mr. Swan.

The Revival Services.

Rev. J. W. Howard and wife have charge of the successful evangelistic meetings which are in progress at Neville institute in the East End. The report that Mrs. Elliott was preaching there is an error.

Pickpockets and Pins.

Artful as the ways of the "Heathen Chinee" are the dodges of the expert picker of pockets. The other night a young lady who had been to the theater was getting on to a tram car, and, knowing the possibilities opened up to the light fingered gentry by a crowd, she kept her hand in her pocket and grasped her purse firmly. Suddenly she felt a sharp prick as from a pin on her hand and, acting on the impulse, let go her hold of the purse and snatched her hand out, almost as quickly returning it, but she was too late. In the few seconds that had elapsed another hand had been there, and the purse was gone.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery), says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

DISGUISED CATARRH.

A Stealthy, Insidious, Weakening Enemy to Women.

REV. HARRIET R. EDWARDS, CLINTON, IA.

Rev. Harriet R. Edwards in a recent letter from Mt. Pleasant Park, Clinton, Ia., writes:

"I have found that Peruna is a wonderful medicine to use in diseases peculiar to women. It quickly and permanently restores health and vigor and acts as a natural tonic to a worn-out system. I have so far never observed a case which was not greatly aided by its use."--REV. DR. H. R. EDWARDS.

THERE are a multitude of women, especially housewives, and all other women obliged to be on their feet constantly, who are wretched beyond description, simply because their strength and vitality is sapped away by catarrhal discharges from the pelvic organs. These women get up in the morning tired, drag themselves through their daily duties tired, only to go to bed at night as tired as before.

Peruna is such a perfect specific for each case that when patients have once used it they can never be induced to quit it until they are permanently cured. It begins to relieve the disagreeable symptoms at once. The backache ceases, the trembling knees are strengthened, the appetite restored, the digestion made perfect, the dull headache is stopped and the weakening drains are gradually cured. These results certainly follow a course of treatment with Peruna.

"Mrs. Crowley has taken a number of bottles of Peruna on account of nervous troubles. It has proven a strong tonic and lasting cure. I can cheerfully recommend it."---Jos. B. Crowley.

Mrs. Wm. Hetrick, Kennard, Washington county, Neb., writes:

"I am fifty-six years old and have not felt well since the Change of Life began ten years ago. I was in misery somewhere most of the time. My back was very weak, and my flesh so tender it hurt me to lean against the back of a chair. I had pain under my shoulder-blades, in the small of my back and hips. I sometimes wished myself out of this world. Had hot and cold spells, dizziness, and trembling of the limbs, and was losing flesh all the time.

Barbara Alberty, corner Seventh and Walnut streets, Appleton, Wis., writes as follows in regard to Peruna:

"For years I have suffered with backache and severe pains in the side. I doctored so much that I became discouraged.

"A school friend told me how very much Peruna had benefited her and I sent out for a bottle, which did more to relieve me than all the other medicine I had ever taken.

Barbara Alberty.

"I used it faithfully for two weeks and it completely cured me. I have not had any pains since, anywhere, but feel like a new woman. I am truly thankful for what Peruna has done for me."—Barbara Alberty.

Mrs. D. W. Mason, 502 Dauphine street, New Orleans, La., writes:

"I have been taking your Peruna and Manalin and can cheerfully recommend it to all those suffering with the same trouble that I was. I have been suffering for the past two years with female weakness, palpitation of the heart, stomach, kidney and liver disorder, and above all a dreadful cough with smothering spells. I was completely run down.

"After I had taken one bottle of Peruna and a few doses of your Manalin, I could sleep soundly, my heart was better, my cough left me, it acted immediately upon my nerves, and after taking four bottles according to your directions, I was entirely cured of all my troubles.

"I can truthfully say that there is nothing to equal your Peruna and Manalin. I was a different women after taking the second bottle. It is without a doubt the best medicine in the world. Language fails to express my gratitude for this cure. May God bless you."—Mrs. D. W. Mason.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

EAST END

NOTICE WAS SERVED

'Squire Carman Attended to the Matter And the Harshas Will Move.

It is probable the case of Mrs. Randall against the Harsha family will not be contested in the court of Justice Carman this afternoon. The defendants have concluded to reconsider their determination to retain possession of the Randall property and this morning vacated the premises.

An amusing incident in the case occurred yesterday when Mrs. Harsha called at the office of the justice and poured into his ears a sorrowful story calculated to appeal to his sympathies. She maintained that neither she nor her husband had ever been given notice that the owners of the house were denied possession. The 'squire thought they had, and presuming, of course, that the notice must come from Mrs. Randall, the Harsha woman was positive no notice had ever been served. When the justice concluded she had proceeded far enough with the argument, he queitly informed the woman that formal notice had been served upon her husband by the justice himself. The argument ended there and Mrs. Harsha went home to pack up.

WORK UNFINISHED

East End People Want to See the Virginia Avenue Bridge Completed.

Work has been suspended on the Virginia avenue bridge, because it is presumed those in charge have other and more important work demanding their attention. The residents of that section are not certain but the job is completed as far as the street force is concerned, but it is asserted by them that in appearance the bridge looks anything but finished.

A vast amount of filling in will be required before the approaches are made passable.

SPECIAL SERVICES

The decision of Governor Nash and his advisers to make public the provisions of their proposed code bill is certainly a wise one. A matter which interests every village and city in Ohio must receive public discussion, and public attention. There is no need of waiting until the legislature meets to make the provisions of the bill known and learn what the people of the state think of them. In the work which has been done the governor has had the assistance of the state bar association and of some of the best trained legal minds in Ohio, as well as men who are familiar with the wants of the cities and the conduct of municipal affairs. The suggestions offered ought therefore to be valuable and helpful to the legislature. The experience of the latter body in the enactment of bills which the supreme court has found unconstitutional should convince the lawmakers that the advice of constitutional lawyers is something needed in their business.

Attention is called to the fact that under the Republican protective tariff millions of workingmen have not only had their wages increased, but their hours of labor reduced since 1897. In many instances the time has been as much as two hours, in other cases only half an hour. It would be a most safe and conservative estimate to assume that at least 5,000,000 workmen throughout the country have gained on an average an hour a day without any corresponding decrease in wages. That is, 5,000,000 hours for 300 working days would be 1,500,000,000 hours, or 534,186 years of 52 weeks each of 54 working hours. Just what this amount of time means in social and domestic happiness is beyond calculation, but there are material benefits as well.

Secretary Shaw, in a recent speech in New Hampshire, uttered a solemn truth when he said that no amount of tariff revision by the Republicans would satisfy the Democrats, who have no policy of their own and are merely watching for opportunities to find fault. In looking the country over nothing substantial can be found in the talk of tariff revision by the present or the next congress. The Democratic party want the tariff ripped up on the general principle that every setback to business improves their political chances, and if they can stir up revisionists among Republicans, so much the better for Democratic purposes. But sensibile Republicans do not walk into Democratic traps.

Recent successful tests of wireless telegraphy in the navies of England, Germany and the United States confirm the statements of the leading electricians and scientists to the effect that marine communication offers a most successful and profitable field for utilizing this remarkable discovery whether it can ever be made of practical service on land or not.

Experiments which have been made in the raising of cotton in Cuba have been so successful as to give promise to the planters of the island of another staple product in addition to sugar and tobacco on which there will be a hand some profit.

One of the "trust issues" which the Democracy is unthinkingly raising is why the Democratic party never did anything to curb the power of the trusts when it had a chance.

Even the Democratic Pittsburg Post is forced to admit that the world moves and that its erstwhile presidential candidate, who still clings to free silver, does not.

A Scandinavian explorer is engaging a party to hunt for the South pole. The party that will hunt for the explorer will be made up later.

Henry Watterson does not want to be governor of Kentucky. Nobody can blame him. Kentucky is ungovernable.

Cholera in the Philippines is killing more American soldiers than fell in many months of the later stages of the war there.

OBITUARY

Jacob Hobbs.

Jacob Hobbs, aged 36 years, died at his home in Fairview, W. Va., last night from the effects of a severe attack of cramps. Mr. Hobbs was one of the best known young men in Hancock county and until about a year ago was in business in Chester, where he was very popular. He is survived by a widowed mother, two sisters and six brothers, Mrs. Margaret Allison, Mrs. William Chapman and Charles, Robert, Cyrus, Austin, John and Joseph Hobbs, all of Hancock county. The remains will likely be laid to rest in the Fairview cemetery on Monday.

Joseph Heasley.

Joseph Heasley, one of the staunch farmers of the vicinity of Summitville, is dead. He had been the victim of fever for several weeks. He was in his seventy-ninth year. He owned 160 acres of fine farming land, well stocked and watered, good farm buildings and pleasant home. He was universally liked in the neighborhood in which he resided and had a host of friends. He was the father of four children, John, of Wellsville; Philip, of Cleveland; Joseph, of this city, and Jennie, who lived at home.

Mollifying.

"I am afraid, Bobby," said his mother, "that when I tell your father what a naughty boy you've been he will punish you severely."

"Have you got to tell him?" asked Bobby earnestly.

"Oh, yes; I shall tell him immediately after dinner."

The look of concern on Bobby's face deepened.

"Well, mother," said he, "give him a better dinner than usual. You might do that much for me."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Short Cut to Sleep.

"Doctor," said he, "I'm a victim of insomnia. I can't sleep if there's the least noise, such as a cat on the garden wall, for instance."

"This powder will be effective," replied the physician, after compounding a prescription.

"When do I take it, doctor?"

DECREASE IN DEATHS

New York, Aug. 16.—The report of the New York Board of Health for the first quarter of the present year shows a decrease of deaths from consumption of 282 as compared with the first three months of last year. Dr. Guilfoyle says: "It is encouraging to note the decrease and indicates that the American bureau of The Hoff Consumption Cure is responsible for the good work."

This bureau is sending Prof. Hoff's literature on the treatment and cure of consumption gratis to all who apply by addressing The American Bureau of The Hoff Cure for Consumption, Third ave. and 10th street, New York City.

Meritless Schemes.

Hundreds of novel advertising schemes that are hatched every day are so evenly meritless that it is almost safe to apply Punch's advice to all of them, "Don't!" Some one tries them all, however, and vast sums of money are sunk in them. There are doubtless cases where they pay, but it would not be hard to show that legitimate advertising would have paid better. The great public holds its open court daily in the newspaper and will hear what any man has to say in behalf of his business provided he can say it well.—Printers' Ink.

Why Ads. Are Read.

An observant person remarks that "the public likes as well to read interesting matter in the advertising columns as in the news columns." There is nothing surprising about this, since the facts which are advertised have a direct personal interest to the public. The advertiser offers to the people only such things as the people need and about the character and prices of which they want information. A persistent advertiser is bound to win the attention of all newspaper readers.—Philadelphia Record.

COUGHED UP BULLET

It Had been Fired into Steubenville Negro's Lungs Years Ago.

Steubenville, Aug. 16.—Eight years ago, "Uncle Tom" Ferris, a well-known colored character was shot by John Jordan, also colored. The ball entered in the upper part of the breast near the shoulder and took a downward course penetrating one of the lungs. After diligent effort to locate it the surgeons concluded it must have lodged near the back, and gave up their efforts to remove it. Meantime, Jordan, who was a railroader, working on the Gould tunnel, was convicted and sent to the penitentiary for shooting with intent to kill. The Circuit court reviewed his case, and concluded as Ferris was the agressor, and the shooting had been in self-defense, that Jordan was improperly convicted and should be given a new trial. He was brought back and afterwards set free.

Meantime and for a number of years succeeding, Uncle Tom had no annoyance from the bullet. But about a year ago he had pneumonia, his lungs began to trouble him, which continued until the doctors thought he surely was a victim of consumption. A few days ago the real cause of his trouble developed in a peculiar manner. Ferris, while bedfast at his home on South Eighth street, and seeming-in the far advanced stages took a severe coughing spell, which lasted for nearly an hour, and did not cease until he had coughed up some hard substance, which upon examination was found to be the 38-calibre cartridge which had been fired into his lung eight years ago. Ferris' condition has begun to improve, and it is thought he will now sure recover.

Did Not Take Place as Predicted, but Many Ignorant Foreigners Moved Out.

Cleveland, Aug. 16.—There is a prophet here named Snyder that predicted that this city was to be destroyed by a deluge on Wednesday. The city still stands, but Snyder badly scared a number of ignorant people.

A dispatch from Akron says: About 200 negroes, Syrians, Italians and others came to Akron to escape death in the prophesied destruction of Cleveland. In one house at High and Furnace streets about 100 refuges, principally negroes, were gathered today. Some came last night, others this morning. A few joked about the prophesy that Cleveland was to be destroyed, but others spoke most seriously of the prediction of Snyder. About half those who came here had disposed of their earthy belongings for cash and a part of them expect never to return to their former homes. Although the larger number of those who arrived here on the A. B. & C. cars remained in Akron, many went to friends in Canton.

LAWSUIT LIKELY

Chairman Howard T. Weaver, of the building committee of council, stated last evening that the check of the Columbiana County Telephone company for $30 referred to in last evening's issue of this paper was not accepted by council and nothing but $15 per month will be accepted. The $30 check is for July, August and September.

Mr. Weaver states that the telephone company will either have to pay the increase asked for or else vacate the room in the city building which they occupy for their exchange. It is said that the lease existing between the former council and the said said company is illegal, no bids having been called in. The matter will probably terminate in a law suit of the city versus the company.

A GREAT INVENTION

Designed to Save Water Has Been Devised by a Wellsville Man.

Samples of W. L. Fogo and C. C. Ewing's new invention for flush tanks have been sent to New Castle and Youngstown and if they answer the requirements these two gentlemen will get the contract to supply both owns with the flush tank feeders. It is claimed to be a great invention and to save enough water within a few months to pay for itself.

Messrs. Fogo and Ewing have made a contract with this city and the city of Toledo and as soonas they establish a plant in this city they will be able to supply the demand for the very necessary article. Until that time the invention will be manufactured in Pittsburg.

Next Re-union at Wellsville.

The re-union of the 104th O. V. I. was held at Massillon Wednesday. The next re-union will be held at Wellsville the second Wednesday and Thursday in August, 1903. Next year's officers of the association are Gen. J. W. Reilly, president; G. G. Cope, secretary, all residing in Wellsville; vice president; Thomas Butler, secretary. Thes officers all reside in Wellsville. Jacob Lawrence of North Lawrence is treasurer. Roll call showed eighteen deaths since last re-union.

Coaching Bunting.

Frank Geisse and Samuel Brubaker, both backers of "Skinny" Bunting, went to Pittsburg yesterday to call on Bunting at his training headquarters at the Southside Athletic club. Both are carefully watching Bunting's work and occasionally giving him pointers where they think it necessary. Bunting is now within a pound or so of the fighting weight and it will be an easy matter to pull down a few more pounds.

Under a Doctor's Care.

Miss Mary Hays, of Commerce street, recently had a gold ring filed off her finger by her father. The ring had been worn for a number of years and was becoming tight. In the work her finger was accidentally cut by the file and soon afterward a sore developed. She is now under a physician's care and blood poisoning may set in.

Intended to Purchase.

A prominent real estate dealer of Bellaire was in this city yesterday looking over several pieces of valuable land here. He intends to purchase some of the property and build several new houses thereon. A. C. Fogo had the gentleman in tow and showed him several pieces of land that are on sale.

Broken Pump Repaired.

Notice was recently given by the water works trustees asking that the water consumers be as economical as possible with the water, as one of the pumps was broken and the other one would be unable to supply the demand throughout the city. The pump has been repaired and cleaned out and is now being used again.

Got a Severe Bruise.

Samuel S. Thorn, of Coal street, had his right leg badly bruised yesterday afternoon. He was engaged at the time doing carpenter work on a new barn when a large piece of timber fell on his leg and crushed it, but broke no bones. He was brought home in a buggy. He will be unable to work for a week or so.

Preparing to Pave.

Contractor C. A. Freshwater started work this morning on placing the curbing on Liverpool street, preparatory to paving it. The paving work will probobly be completed within a week or so.

The twenty-fifth annual reunion of the Ninety-eighth O. V. I. will be held at Steubenville August 28. Many old soldiers from this city who have received invitations, will attend.

Mrs. Hutchinson, of Eleventh street, was called to St. Clairsville yesterday on account of the death of her father.

"Doc" Marshall, of Hanoverton, passed through the city yesterday en route to Pittsburg on business. He is well known here.

Miss Edith Morrow, who has been visiting relatives in this city for the past few days, has returned to her home in Pittsburg.

The household goods of Dr. Duncan, of this city, have been shipped to Blairsville, Pa., where the doctor and his family will reside.

Miss Lillie Brown, of this city, who has been visiting friends in Wheeling for the past few weeks, returned last evening on the Steamer Virginia.

Rev. Wm. Rutherford, of Washington, Pa., will conduct all of the services tomorrow at the Second Presbyterian church on Eighteenth street.

Miss Amanda Johnston, of Ninth street, will leave today for Angola, N. Y., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. John Lyth, who formerly resided here.

W. H. Morgan, a clerk in the Third street freight station, left yesterday for Mingo, where he has been assigned to do some special work for the railroad company.

Mrs. Alice Smith and three children, who have been visiting relatives in this city for the past few days, returned to their home in New Cumberland last evening.

Mrs. Charles Carpenter, who has been visiting her parents in this city, returned last evening to her home in Pittsburg. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Aughinbaugh.

A slight change of positions will be made at the shops Monday evening. Howard T. Weaver, who has been a machinist there for some time, will be promoted to assistant gang foreman and an extra man will be put in his place.

Seven Trainloads of People Are Enjoying Themselves at the Park.

The immense crowd expected by the park management today began to arrive in Chester and East Liverpool at 10 o'clock this morning. It was almost noon before all of the seven sections of cars had been unloaded and the people deposited at the park. Every facility was taxed to its utmost capacity for upwards of two hours. It is estimated that fully 18,000 American Mechanics and their friends are in attendance.

Three of the trains came in by way of the New Cumberland branch, having left Pittsburg on the Panhandle. The remainder of the seven sections and those arriving first came on the C. & P. On the early Panhandle train this morning a number of New Cumberland Mechanics arrived, and not a few from East Liverpool and Chester were at the park during the afternoon.

Oil Well on Kinney Farm After Being Shot shows up Well.

The oil well on the Kinney farm owned by the Line Island Oil and Gas company, which came in this week, was shot yesterday and gives promise of being a good producer. The well filled up 400 feet in less than two hours, and the owners think it will be good for at least ten barrels a day.

The company is making preparations to drill another well at once, and work will be started early next week. The new well will be in close proximity to the one already in.

Novel Entertainment.

At the home of A. E. McDonald south of Chester, Thursday evening, a novel entertainment was held in the shape of a corn bake. A most enjoyable evening was spent in various amusements. A number of guests were present from Wellsville and other points, among them being Miss Carrie Mahan, Steubenville; Fred. H. and Miss Leah Porter, Misses Ada and Lou Riggs and Rev. Mr. Edwards, Wellsville.

Water Line Finished.

The water line on Louisana avenue, which has been in course of construction for several weeks, will be completed today. The line is about 1,600 feet in length and required a great deal of work.

CHESTER NOTES.

Wilby Govey, of Fairview, was in Chester yesterday calling on friends.

Mrs. William Philpot has begun the erection of a new residence on Louisiana avenue.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT

Facilities for Doing Business in Perfect Manner Are Unmlimited.

A deal of more than the usual importance was this week consummated in Chester when the old established grocery firm of O. O. Allison was made still more stable by the association of Robert Hobbs, of East Liverpool, with the concern.

Mr. Hobbs is a thoroughly practica merchant, having been connected with one of the pricinpal grocery houses of East Liverpool for a number of years. O. O. Allison, who disposes of half interest, has been in business in Chester for over four years, and has by perseverance and a strict application to the details of his business, succeeded in establishing an enterprise of which his own community feels justly proud.

The new firm will be so situated that they will be able to cater to the needs of the public in a manner even more acceptable than ever before. It will be their aim to carry a stock that cannot but please, and the wishes and demands of the patrons will receive prompt and careful attention at all times. 193-h

Cowardly Crime Attempted.

A dastardly attempt was made by boys one week ago yesterday to assault the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Davis, who resides in a small but respectable home on Oak street. No complaint of the affair has been made to the police, and the only chastisement resulting from the affair was the whipping of a son by his father, and keeping him in the house since the affair became known.

The English Navy.

In the earliest times of the British navy there was practically no distinction between the merchantman and the man-of-war. In the rare times of peace men-of-war traded as merchantmen, while merchantmen always went armed. Thus in time of war the trader became the warship and vice versa. From the time of the conquest and probably earlier down to the days of Elizabeth this was the ordinary practice. Elizabeth hired out ships of the navy for all sorts of purposes, from piracy to slave trading, taking her share of the profits when the venture was successful and disclaiming all responsibility when it wasn't.

Henry III., who may be described as the originator of the navy as a special fighting force, hired out the ships specially built for the navy in times of peace and even allowed them to be taken away from their appointed stations provided that the hirers deposited due security for the return of the ships with their tackle and all equipment in a proper state of efficiency. The practice ceased after the repulse of the Spanish armada, when the fighting ship, as such, became distinct from the trader.—London Globe.

The word "stove," as applied to a heater for a room, seems to be of about the same age as the article to which the name is now applied, for while the word as a name had an existence in early English it was used in a different sense.

Both Lord Bacon and Woodward used it as referring to a house or room artificially warmed and particularly a hothouse for plants. Bacon also used the word as a verb in the way of keeping warm in a house or room, as "to stove orange trees and myrtles," to quote from his writings. Pepys used the verb in a nautical sense, as heating for the purpose of making pliable, as "stove boli ropes."

But all these definitions are obsolete now, such disuse dating from the time when Dr. Franklin made his discoveries and applications. The French word "etuve," it may be added, describes a hothouse or bathing room, and hence is parallel in meaning with the early English word.

TRADE PROSPECTS IMPROVED.

Due to Adjustment of Numerous Labor Controversies—Failures For the Week.

New York, Aug. 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, said in part:

Prospects have greatly improved through the adjustment of numerous labor controversies, yet the anthracite coal strike situation is unchanged and supplies are nearing depletion. Distribution of merchandise has met with some interruption, owing to freight blockades, the volume of business being very heavy.

Statistics of pig iron production on Aug. 1, according to The Iron Age, are more satisfactory than might have been expected in view of the great scarcity of fuel. A weekly capacity of 336,465 tons is 15,599 tons less than the high record of May 1, it is true, but compares favorably with all earlier dates, and shows an increase of 32,618 tons over the output a year ago. These figures by no means suggest a serious setback in the industry, but rather emphasize the abnormal condition of demand, which finds such a heavy yield entirely inadequate. Southern furnaces have contracted so far in advance that they have practically withdrawn from the market, and all dates for deliveries are remote, except where foreign arrivals are offered. Pressure for steel is undiminished, and the urgency of domestic consumers is shown by additional imports of large size. Structoral material is sought by car shops and bridge builders, while many office buildings and other steel structures are planned. Coke production in the Connellsville region exceeds 250,000 tons weekly and outside ovens are also surpassing all records of activity. Yet shipments are unsatisfactory, causing frequent delays.

Solicitude Over Possible Stringency Evident, Yesterday.

New York, Aug. 16.—The solicitude felt over the possible stringency of money was exemplified by the effect upon the stock market of a flurry in the call money rate to 6 per cent. The fact that stock exchange loans made on Friday carry over until the following Monday makes the customary demand on Friday somewhat more urgent than on other days. The special cause offered to explain yesterday's sharp advance was the maturity of subscriptions for the new Oregon Short Line collateral bonds, secured by deposit of Northern Securities stock. The payment called for about $15,000,000 and necessitated considerable shifting of loans to meet the requirement. The rate dropped back to near 4 per cent near the close, after the demand had been satisfied. There have been a number of other syndicate operations during the week, which may upset calculations as to the bank statement today. Among these were the payment of subscriptions to the United States Shipbuilding company, the payment of dividend to the United States Steel underwriting syndicate, and the dividend on United States Steel preferred, payable yesterday. So far as the indicated cash changes promise, today's bank statement will not be unfavorable. The movement of currency with the interior seems to be in favor of New York still, the receipts on balance during the week amounting to $1,500,000, against the loss to the sub-treasury of $633,000. New York exchange at Chicago fell to par yesterday, compared with 10 cents premius on Thursday and 20 cents premium on Wednesday.

SLANG CANDY.

What Has Happened to Old Sentimental Inscriptions.

"It takes a vigilant and determined person to steer clear of slang these days," remarked a man who likes to study the signs of the time. "We have slang novels, slang plays and slang art of various kinds.

"The latest slang manifestation, however, is slang candy. Haven't you seen it? It is on sale at many candy stands. Do you remember the old fashioned, flat, scalloped, diamond or heart shaped candy lozenge, ornamented with sentimental words, such as 'Sweetheart,' 'My Own True Love,' 'Faithful to Thee,' 'Ever Thine,' and so on? We used to pass these complimentary lozenges around at little gatherings when I was young, and much harmless but deeply fervent lovemaking was carried on by means of such simple tokens.

"The pink and white candy lozenge of the present day, however, is a degenerate. It is much smaller in size, although still scalloped, and the phrases stamped on its surface are below the dignity of genteel members of the lozenge family. The words you read now on the candy lozenge are as follows: 'That's What,' 'My Best Girl,' 'Rubberneck,' 'Move On,' 'Sure,' 'Bat Them Out,' 'My Size,' 'Do You Bike?' 'Gee Whiz!' 'My Baby Lou,' 'Guess Not,' 'Just So,' 'Come Again,' 'That Face!' and so on."

"How curious!" commented the man who was listening. "We live in a slang age, don't we?"

"Sure!" answered the man who was down on slang, and then with a suddenly reddened face he began to talk about seventeen year locusts.—Detroit Free Press.

A Story of Charles Reade.

Cowardly Crime Attempted.

A dastardly attempt was made by boys one week ago yesterday to assault the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Davis, who resides in a small but respectable home on Oak street. No complaint of the affair has been made to the police, and the only chastisement resulting from the affair was the whipping of a son by his father, and keeping him in the house since the affair became known.

The English Navy.

In the earliest times of the British navy there was practically no distinction between the merchantman and the man-of-war. In the rare times of peace men-of-war traded as merchantmen, while merchantmen always went armed. Thus in time of war the trader became the warship and vice versa. From the time of the conquest and probably earlier down to the days of Elizabeth this was the ordinary practice. Elizabeth hired out ships of the navy for all sorts of purposes, from piracy to slave trading, taking her share of the profits when the venture was successful and disclaiming all responsibility when it wasn't.

Henry III., who may be described as the originator of the navy as a special fighting force, hired out the ships specially built for the navy in times of peace and even allowed them to be taken away from their appointed stations provided that the hirers deposited due security for the return of the ships with their tackle and all equipment in a proper state of efficiency. The practice ceased after the repulse of the Spanish armada, when the fighting ship, as such, became distinct from the trader.—London Globe.

The word "stove," as applied to a heater for a room, seems to be of about the same age as the article to which the name is now applied, for while the word as a name had an existence in early English it was used in a different sense.

Both Lord Bacon and Woodward used it as referring to a house or room artificially warmed and particularly a hothouse for plants. Bacon also used the word as a verb in the way of keeping warm in a house or room, as "to stove orange trees and myrtles," to quote from his writings. Pepys used the verb in a nautical sense, as heating for the purpose of making pliable, as "stove bolt ropes."

But all these definitions are obsolete now, such disuse dating from the time when Dr. Franklin made his discoveries and applications. The French word "etuve," it may be added, describes a hothouse or bathing room, and hence is parallel in meaning with the early English word.

Devotion.

"Are you sure you love me for myself alone?" said the heiress.

"Yes," answered the blunt but sincere young man. "I love you in spite of your superior fortune. I am willing to marry you and take chances on being bullied by reminders of it."—Washington Star.

TRADE PROSPECTS IMPROVED.

New York, Aug. 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, said in part:

Prospects have greatly improved through the adjustment of numerous labor controversies, yet the anthracite coal strike situation is unchanged and supplies are nearing depletion. Distribution of merchandise has met with some interruption, owing to freight blockades, the volume of business being very heavy.

Statistics of pig iron production on Aug. 1, according to The Iron Age, are more satisfactory than might have been expected in view of the great scarcity of fuel. A weekly capacity of 336,465 tons is 15,599 tons less than the high record of May 1, it is true, but compares favorably with all earlier dates, and shows an increase of 32,618 tons over the output a year ago. These figures by no means suggest a serious setback in the industry, but rather emphasize the abnormal condition of demand, which finds such a heavy yield entirely inadequate. Southern furnaces have contracted so far in advance that they have practically withdrawn from the market, and all dates for deliveries are remote, except where foreign arrivals are offered. Pressure for steel is undiminished, and the urgency of domestic consumers is shown by additional imports of large size. Structural material is sought by car shops and bridge builders, while many office buildings and other steel structures are planned. Coke production in the Connellsville region exceeds 250,000 tons weekly and outside ovens are also surpassing all records of activity. Yet shipments are unsatisfactory, causing frequent delays.

Solicitude Over Possible Stringency Evident, Yesterday.

New York, Aug. 16.—The solicitude felt over the possible stringency of money was exemplified by the effect upon the stock market of a flurry in the call money rate to 6 per cent. The fact that stock exchange loans made on Friday carry over until the following Monday makes the customary demand on Friday somewhat more urgent than on other days. The special cause offered to explain yesterday's sharp advance was the maturity of subscriptions for the new Oregon Short Line collateral bonds, secured by deposit of Northern Securities stock. The payment called for about $15,000,000 and necessitated considerable shifting of loans to meet the requirement. The rate dropped back to near 4 per cent near the close, after the demand had been satisfied. There have been a number of other syndicate operations during the week, which may upset calculations as to the bank statement today. Among these were the payment of subscriptions to the United States Shipbuilding company, the payment of dividend to the United States Steel underwriting syndicate, and the dividend on United States Steel preferred, payable yesterday. So far as the indicated cash changes promise, today's bank statement will not be unfavorable. The movement of currency with the interior seems to be in favor of New York still, the receipts on balance during the week amounting to $1,500,000, against the loss to the sub-treasury of $633,000. New York exchange at Chicago fell to par yesterday, compared with 10 cents premius on Thursday and 20 cents premium on Wednesday.

SLANG CANDY.

What Has Happened to Old Sentimental Inscriptions.

"It takes a vigilant and determined person to steer clear of slang these days," remarked a man who likes to study the signs of the time. "We have slang novels, slang plays and slang art of various kinds.

"The latest slang manifestation, however, is slang candy. Haven't you seen it? It is on sale at many candy stands. Do you remember the old fashioned, flat, scalloped, diamond or heart shaped candy lozenge, ornamented with sentimental words, such as 'Sweetheart,' 'My Own True Love,' 'Faithful to Thee,' 'Ever Thine,' and so on? We used to pass these complimentary lozenges around at little gatherings when I was young, and much harmless but deeply fervent lovemaking was carried on by means of such simple tokens.

"The pink and white candy lozenge of the present day, however, is a degenerate. It is much smaller in size, although still scalloped, and the phrases stamped on its surface are below the dignity of genteel members of the lozenge family. The words you read now on the candy lozenge are as follows: 'That's What,' 'My Best Girl,' 'Rubberneck,' 'Move On,' 'Sure,' 'Bat Them Out,' 'My Size,' 'Do You Bike?' 'Gee Whiz!' 'My Baby Lou,' 'Guess Not,' 'Just So,' 'Come Again,' 'That Face!' and so on."

"How curious!" commented the man who was listening. "We live in a slang age, don't we?"

"Sure!" answered the man who was down on slang, and then with a suddenly reddened face he began to talk about seventeen year locusts.—Detroit Free Press.

A Story of Charles Reade.

THE WHOLE SHOW WAS VASBINDER

New Player Did Much of the Real Work in the Game Yesterday.

And East Liverpool Could Have Run the Score Up ad Libitum If It Had Seen Fit—Some Very Amusing Features of the Game.

"Lengthy" Vasbinder, farmed recently by the Cleveland American league team, but who is now on Manager Walsh's salaried team of semi-professionals, was the whole show in West End park yesterday afternoon.

Of course there were 17 others in the game and some of them were a little conspicuous, but when it came to doing the real stunts Vassie was the man. That collection from the mammoth Westinghouse electrical works of Pittsburg looked like bad coin to him. Their pitcher was the funniest freak that he had witnessed for years.

Every ball that the youngster would toss toward the plate the newcomer would tap just to see the fielders run. And upon two occasions he made men run for fair. Out in the tall timbers the ball came down with the left fielder in close pursuit, but not close enough to keep the "batter out" from advancing to base No. 3. At intervals he would let up on his baby playing with the pitcher and turn on Smithy, the auburn haired catcher. Reddy could not stand the looks and showed fight plainly from beneath the curly locks which ornament his forehead, but he would cool off suddenly and make the best of the situation.

Following an error made by most players there is an outburst of hisses and cries of "Put him out," "Get another man," "He is no good." There was an exception, however, when Chick made a play that the scorer could only credit as an error. It was in the third inning. O'Leary came to bat and landed on one unmercifully, sending it high into right field. Vasbinder was playing in too far to connect with it and Chick saw that if the ball was caught it was up to him to do the work. He started on the long run and much to the surprise of all reached the ball before it touched the ground. He not only reached it but clasped it tightly, only to let the coveted little sphere drop. But not until he had fallen over that ditch, an eyesore. Had he held on to the ball he would carry the honors for catching the hardest fielded ball ever grasped in this city. For making such an effort he was loudly applauded upon his return to the bench.

Of the visiting aggregation no complimentary remarks can be said other than that they are a band of hard hitters and that with company not so fast as the locals, they would put up a pretty game. Smith did the hitting, getting a home run on a ball that got lost in the weeds. They did not have things equal. With the lineup presented by Manager Walsh, teams other than Parkersburg and Wheeling are against the real thing.

From the way the game started the supposition was that the score would not be less than 20 to 7, but a better showing was made. In the second and third minds were not so positive as to the outcome. It was all off again, however, when the sixth inning was reached. Marks tried, but in vain. He was batted high and batted low. It made little difference where. None of them were slow enough to warrant fielding. Like cannon balls they sped through the diamond and fields and seldom ever met an outstretched mit.

Six pretty, but hard hits were made in this inning and as many runs. What could the visitors do then? They were helpless and had the locals so desired the score could, in this inning, have reached possibly 14. Heckathorn got tired of the awful onslaught and retired the side by striking out.

FAMILIAR SNAKES

THEY RUN ABOUT PEOPLE'S HOUSES NEAR SALINEVILLE.

One Attacks a Couple on a Porch And Another Entwines a Fruit Jar.

Salineville, August 16. — While Thomas Earl and wife, of Fox township, near here, were preparing beans and corn for their noonday meal on the porch of their home they experienced a most unpleasant surprise. Mr. Earl was sitting with his back to his wife when he heard her scream. Suddenly with the head erect and forked tongue darting in and out, a huge black snake, about four feet long, made a dash for the lady. But in jumping from the spouting on the porch the snake became entangled in the vines around the porch.

When the husband heard his wife scream he turned around and saw the ugly reptile fall to the ground. He instantly rushed to the outer yard for a weapon, but when he returned the snake had made his escape. The lady was so frightened that it was some time before she recovered. It is supposed that the snake had climbed up the vines and had been sunning itself for some time on the roof of the house. A threatening storm had aroused its viciousness.

While Mrs. J. W. Johnson, of Mechanicstown, was preparing a meal she had occasion to go to the cellar for some fruit. As she was coming from the cellar she reached up on the shelf where she had her fruit stored to get a jar of fruit for the coming meal. Imagine her surprise when she laid her hand on a cold, clammy snake, snugly wrapped around the fruit jar. The snake offered no resistance, but the woman very promptly dropped what she had and immediately made her exit from the cellar to the outdoors. She was so frightened that it was some time before she was able to tell her neighbors what had happened. Soon a party was organized to hunt the reptile which had made its abode in the family cellar. But no trace was found. From the statement it must have been about five feet long and perhaps as thick as an ordinary ball bat at the small end.

A Good Hearted Man,

or in other words, men with good sound hearts, are not very numerous. The increasing number of sudden deaths from heart disease daily chronicled by the press, is proof of the alarming prevalence of this dangerous complaint, and as no one can foretell just when a fatal collapse will occur, the danger of neglecting treatment is certainly a very risky matter. If you are short of breath, have pain in left side, smothering spells, palpitation, unable to lie on side, especially the left, you should begin taking

ATTEMPT MADE UPON LIFE OF PENNSYLVANIAN.

Infernal Machine Sent—Failed to Explode—Plot Revealed by Letters.

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—An attempt upon the life of Robert E. Pattison, former governor of the state of Pennsylvania, and at present the Democratic nominee for the same office, was made in this city, the information just now coming to light, according to The North American.

The infernal machine, containing several pounds of gunpowder in a concentrated and highly powerful form, was sent to Mr. Pattison by express.

The sender of the package had neglected to place the means of ignition in the parcel, trusting to circumstances for the working out of his plan. The senders of the package are under surveillance and arrests are expected within a few hours.

A test of the strength of the powder was made at the League Island navy yard by Captain Delano, ordnance officer. He declared positively that it was powder of the same character as that which is stored at Ft. Mifflin, and he said that there was a possibility that it might have been secured at that place.

The first intimation that there was a plot under way was gleaned from an anonymous letter received by the Philadelphia North American. The letter said:

"There are rumors that a downtown gang are sending an infernal machine to Governor Pattison. Do you know anything about it?"

A second anonymous letter was received. It urged immediate action on the part of the paper, and the outline of the plot was given. The package, the anonymous writer said, had been mailed from the Bingham house, Philadelphia, addressed to Governor Pattison, and marked "Ore samples."

The information leaked out because the sender became intoxicated and talked too much. The writer said that the package had been mailed Tuesday night or Wednesday morning, and there was a possibility that it had been stopped in time by the postoffice authorities.

The history of the receipt of the package by Governor Pattison is short. He took it with a quantity of other mail delivered to him at the postoffice. He noted that it was marked "Ore samples," and when he reached his office he tossed it aside for later consideration.

Forced Non-Unionists to Stop Work.

Thurmond, W. Va., Aug. 16.—One hundred or more non-union men are arriving in the New River coal fields daily to take the places of strikers. At the Rend mines a great demonstration was made yesterday. Several hundred strikers, heavily armed, marched to the mine and forced 60 non-unionists to abandon work. Deputy marshals were powerless and trouble is imminent.

LIFE PLANT

The Great Vegetable Medicine Will Cure You.

In LIFE PLANT we have a sure and certain cure for all diseases caused by impure blood.

The first thing for good health is to keep the stomach in a good condition. When the stomach is diseased, the food eaten is not digested properly and the body loses strength and vigor naturally. The loss of strength makes you weak until you lose your energy and vitality. LIFE PLANT cures all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs, enabling a perfect digestion of food, making the body strong in a way it should be. LIFE PLANT contains no minerals or opiates, which stop the pain for a short time. It is purely vegetable, and when taken according to directions positively cures all diseases of the stomach, bowels, etc.

Mr. Frederick Dubaugh, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, writes:
Life Plant Co.,

Messrs:—I was attacked last August with a very serious and painful form of stomach trouble which gave me no rest by day and very little sleep at night. I used numerous remedies without any beneficial results. I was in constant misery with pain in stomach, which was increased, even by a slight pressure. For months I could not take any kind of food without suffering severe pain. This condition continued until I commenced the use of LIFE PLANT. I have taken six bottles and am now a well man, can do a full day's work, eat all kinds of food and feel no inconvenience. Yours, etc.

THE WHOLE SHOW WAS VASBINDER

And East Liverpool Could Have Run the Score Up ad Libitum If It Had Seen Fit—Some Very Amusing Features of the Game.

"Lengthy" Vasbinder, farmed recently by the Cleveland American league team, but who is now on Manager Walsh's salaried team of semi-professionals, was the whole show in West End park yesterday afternoon.

Of course there were 17 others in the game and some of them were a little conspicuous, but when it came to doing the real stunts Vassie was the man. That collection from the mammoth Westinghouse electrical works of Pittsburg looked like bad coin to him. Their pitcher was the funniest freak that he had witnessed for years.

Every ball that the youngster would toss toward the plate the newcomer would tap just to see the fielders run. And upon two occasions he made men run for fair. Out in the tall timbers the ball came down with the left fielder in close pursuit, but not close enough to keep the "batter out" from advancing to base No. 3. At intervals he would let up on his baby playing with the pitcher and turn on Smithy, the auburn haired catcher. Reddy could not stand the looks and showed fight plainly from beneath the curly locks which ornament his forehead, but he would coof off suddenly and make the best of the situation.

Following an error made by most players there is an outburst of hisses and cries of "Put him out," "Get another man," "He is no good." There was an exception, however, when Chick made a play that the scorer could only credit as an error. It was in the third inning. O'Leary came to bat and landed on one unmercifully, sending it high into right field. Vasbinder was playing in too far to connect with it and Chick saw that if the ball was caught it was up to him to do the work. He started on the long run and much to the surprise of all reached the ball before it touched the ground. He not only reached it but clasped it tightly, only to let the coveted little sphere drop. But not until he had fallen over that ditch, an eyesore. Had he held on to the ball he would carry the honors for catching the hardest fielded ball ever grasped in this city. For making such an effort he was loudly applauded upon his return to the bench.

Of the visiting aggregation no complimentary remarks can be said other than that they are a band of hard hitters and that with company not so fast as the locals, they would put up a pretty game. Smith did the hitting, getting a home run on a ball that got lost in the weeds. They did not have things equal. With the lineup presented by Manager Walsh, teams other than Parkersburg and Wheeling are against the real thing.

From the way the game started the supposition was that the score would not be less than 20 to 7, but a better showing was made. In the second and third minds were not so positive as to the outcome. It was all off again, however, when the sixth inning was reached. Marks tried, but in vain. He was batted high and batted low. It made little difference where. None of them were slow enough to warrant fielding. Like cannon balls they sped through the diamond and fields and seldom ever met an outstretched mit.

Six pretty, but hard hits were made in this inning and as many runs. What could the visitors do then? They were helpless and had the locals so desired the score could, in this inning, have reached possibly 14. Heckathorn got tired of the awful onslaught and retired the side by striking out.

FAMILIAR SNAKES

THEY RUN ABOUT PEOPLE'S HOUSES NEAR SALINEVILLE.

One Attacks a Couple on a Porch And Another Entwines a Fruit Jar.

Salineville, August 16. — While Thomas Earl and wife, of Fox township, near here, were preparing beans and corn for their noonday meal on the porch of their home they experienced a most unpleasant surprise. Mr. Earl was sitting with his back to his wife when he heard her scream. Suddenly with the head erect and forked tongue darting in and out, a huge black snake, about four feet long, made a dash for the lady. But in jumping from the spouting on the porch the snake became entangled in the vines around the porch.

When the husband heard his wife scream he turned around and saw the ugly reptile fall to the ground. He instantly rushed to the outer yard for a weapon, but when he returned the snake had made his escape. The lady was so frightened that it was some time before she recovered. It is supposed that the snake had climbed up the vines and had been sunning itself for some time on the roof of the house. A threatening storm had aroused its viciousness.

While Mrs. J. W. Johnson, of Mechanicstown, was preparing a meal she had occasion to go to the cellar for some fruit. As she was coming from the cellar she reached up on the shelf where she had her fruit stored to get a jar of fruit for the coming meal. Imagine her surprise when she laid her hand on a cold, clammy snake, snugly wrapped around the fruit jar. The snake offered no resistance, but the woman very promptly dropped what she had and immediately made her exit from the cellar to the outdoors. She was so frightened that it was some time before she was able to tell her neighbors what had happened. Soon a party was organized to hunt the reptile which had made its abode in the family cellar. But no trace was found. From the statement it must have been about five feet long and perhaps as thick as an ordinary ball bat at the small end.

A Good Hearted Man,

or in other words, men with good sound hearts, are not very numerous. The increasing number of sudden deaths from heart disease daily chronicled by the press, is proof of the alarming prevalence of this dangerous complaint, and as no one can foretell just when a fatal collapse will occur, the danger of neglecting treatment is certainly a very risky matter. If you are short of breath, have pain in left side, smothering spells, palpitation, unable to lie on side, especially the left, you should begin taking

ATTEMPT MADE UPON LIFE OF PENNSYLVANIAN.

Infernal Machine Sent—Failed to Explode—Plot Revealed by Letters.

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—An attempt upon the life of Robert E. Pattison, former governor of the state of Pennsylvania, and at present the Democratic nominee for the same office, was made in this city, the information just now coming to light, according to The North American.

The infernal machine, containing several pounds of gunpowder in a concentrated and highly powerful form, was sent to Mr. Pattison by express.

The sender of the package had neglected to place the means of ignition in the parcel, trusting to circumstances for the working out of his plan. The senders of the package are under surveillance and arrests are expected within a few hours.

A test of the strength of the powder was made at the League Island navy yard by Captain Delano, ordnance officer. He declared positively that it was powder of the same character as that which is stored at Ft. Mifflin, and he said that there was a possibility that it might have been secured at that place.

The first intimation that there was a plot under way was gleaned from an anonymous letter received by the Philadelphia North American. The letter said:

"There are rumors that a downtown gang are sending an infernal machine to Governor Pattison. Do you know anything about it?"

A second anonymous letter was received. It urged immediate action on the part of the paper, and the outline of the plot was given. The package, the anonymous writer said, had been mailed from the Bingham house, Philadelphia, addressed to Governor Pattison, and marked "Ore samples."

The information leaked out because the sender became intoxicated and talked too much. The writer said that the package had been mailed Tuesday night or Wednesday morning, and there was a possibility that it had been stopped in time by the postoffice authorities.

The history of the receipt of the package by Governor Pattison is short. He took it with a quantity of other mail delivered to him at the postoffice. He noted that it was marked "Ore samples," and when he reached his office he tossed it aside for later consideration.

Forced Non-Unionists to Stop Work.

Thurmond, W. Va., Aug. 16.—One hundred or more non-union men are arriving in the New River coal fields daily to take the places of strikers. At the Rend mines a great demonstration was made yesterday. Several hundred strikers, heavily armed, marched to the mine and forced 60 non-unionists to abandon work. Deputy marshals were powerless and trouble is imminent.

LIFE PLANT

The Great Vegetable Medicine Will Cure You.

In LIFE PLANT we have a sure and certain cure for all diseases caused by impure blood.

The first thing for good health is to keep the stomach in a good condition. When the stomach is diseased, the food eaten is not digested properly and the body loses strength and vigor naturally. The loss of strength makes you weak until you lose your energy and vitality. LIFE PLANT cures all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs, enabling a perfect digestion of food, making the body strong in a way it should be. LIFE PLANT contains no minerals or opiates, which stop the pain for a short time. It is purely vegetable, and when taken according to directions positively cures all diseases of the stomach, bowels, etc.

SAD NEWS MORE FREQUENT.

President Orders Names of Privates Dying In Philippines to Be Cabled Oftener.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 16.—The president yesterday gave orders that hereafter the names of the enlisted men of the army who die in the Philippines be cabled to this country once in every two weeks. When the volunteer army was in the archipelago it was the custom to cable the casualties, but on the withdrawal of that army the practice was discontinued.

The subject was discussed while the president was entertaining a number of visitors at luncheon yesterday.

CHINESE OFFICIALS CROOKED.

Accused of Filling Their Pockets From Taxes Collected.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The state department has received two interesting Chinese proclamations, one an imperial edict issued from the throne, concerning the raising of the war indemnity, and the other by Governor Yuan, viceroy of Chi-li, ordering the people to stop carrying weapons and to guard against a repetition of the Boxer trouble. The documents are not only curious, but they are important as showing some of the results of the war.

The imperial edict discloses that China is seeking to devise a plan for meeting the war indemnity, and is fearful that the heavy tax on the people will oppress them to further disorder. The edict also accuses the Chinese officials of "filling their own pockets" with the sums taken from the people.

Railroads In Bitter Fight.

Pittsburg, Aug. 16.—Two hundred railroad laborers, armed with pick handles and heavy clubs, and protected by a trench and strong barricade, remained on guard all last night, at South First street, awaiting the advance of several hundred Pittsburg and Lake Erie workmen who started to bar the entrance of the Wabash road to the Southside by laying tracks across the route over which the Wabash proposes to run, near the Panhandle bridge.

Killed at Mountain Lake Park.

Cumberland, Md., Aug. 16.—Captain H. Hillard, of St. Louis, was struck by a Baltimore and Ohio passenger train at Mountain Lake Park Thursday evening, sustaining a fracture at the back of the skull, which caused his death several hours later. He was spending the summer at the Hotel Chautauqua.

SOLDIERS TO ARMS.

Regiment Out at Shenandoah, Pa., to Quell a Riot.

A MAN THROWN INTO CREEK

Tried to Protect a Non-Unionist Whom a Mob Was Chasing—Quay Notified Wilkesbarre Alliance He Would See Committee.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 16.—There was an outbreak last night right under the noses of the troops in camp, and for a time it looked as though serious trouble would occur. The disorder was the result of a mob chasing an alleged unfair workman near the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company's washery, in the southeastern part of the town. There were 50 or 60 men in the mob. As they chased the man up the railroad, throwing stones at him, the night watchman at the washery, named Anthony Flinn, tried to rescue the man. The watchman was promptly thrown into the creek running parallel with the railroad by some of those leading in the chase.

The crowd kept after the workman and he ran to the Reading railroad station, where a company of infantry was on provost duty. The company was immediately called into formation and attempted to hold the crowd back. The captain of the company exercised great patience with the crowd and prevented any serious trouble. The mob caused a large crowd to gather from all directions and word was immediately sent to camp for reinforcements. In nine minutes the entire Twelfth regiment and a battalion of the Eighth were on the scene. The crowd quickly scattered and three men, John Howe, Frederick Zimmerman and Matthew Bronz, who are alleged to have been participants in the assault on the watchman and the workman, were arrested and taken to the town lockup. The troops were kept in the streets until a late hour last night.

POLICE HELD UNDER BAIL.

Twenty-Four Men Under Arrest Required to Give a Bond of $10,000.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 16.—The 24 coal and iron policemen and armed workmen of the Warnke colliery, who were arrested for participation in Thursday's affray at Duryea, were brought before Judge Halsey here, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and charged by Prosecuting Attorney Frank A. Guigan with inciting to riot and felonious assault.

John P. Lenahan, who appeared for the defendants, moved for the discharge of the prisoners, but Judge Halsey held them for examination at 10 o'clock next Monday, on temporary bail of $10,000. The bail was furnished by a man who did not wish his name divulged, but who is known to be connected with a large coal-carrying company. The men were released. Sheriff Jacobs telephoned here yesterday that if Frederick Warnke attempted to start his washery again, he would be compelled to ask for troops.

Advices from Duryea indicated that the feeling there against the Warnke washery was increasing as a result of Thursday's fight and that trouble will occur on the least provocation. It is further stated that the Warnke men are determined on a resumption of work soon.

Senator Quay telegraphed from Atlantic City to the chairman of the Public Alliance, of this city, that he is still under the doctor's care, but that he will be glad to see a committee from the alliance any time they call upon him at his cottage at Atlantic City. The alliance wants Senators Quay and Penrose to use their influence with the coal operators to have them consent to arbitrate the strike.

A Lithunian striker was arrested in Plymouth township last night charged with being one of the party that shot George Sullivan, a Polander, employed in fighting fire at the Jersey mine. Two shots from ambush were fired at Sullivan, one of the bullets striking him in the leg and inflicting a slight wound.

MANY STORES BURNED.

Hamilton, O., Visited by a $200,000 Fire.

Hamilton, O., Aug. 16.—One of the most disastrous fires in the history of the city originated Thursday night at 11 o'clock in the basement of the large dry goods and carpet store of T. V. Howell & Son, High street. In a short time the interior of the Howell block was a mass of flames, and burned briskly until the fire communicated with the Second National bank building, burning out the rear second and third floors and the front third floor.

The Mehrum block, next door, was also damaged, and the carpet store of Creighton and Hooven was drenched with water. The fire department was unable to control the fire, which burned until 4 o'clock. The damage to Howell will reach over $175,000; Holbrook Bros., in the Mehrum block $10,000; bank building, $30,000, with other smaller losses.

A CONTRAST

Of the face of a healthful woman with the face of one who is sick proves that quite often a sad face is a sick face. Many a woman has credit for a sunny disposition who would soon be sad of face and irritable of temper if she had to endure the womanly ills which many of her sex have borne for years.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases which are the source of so much pain and suffering to women. It establishes regularity, dries debilitating drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Cornelia Henson, of Coalton, Boyd Co., Ky., writes: "In October 1899 I gave birth to a baby and the treatment I received at the hands of the midwife left me with falling of the uterus. I had no health to speak of for three years. I had another baby which was the third child. My health began to fail and I found myself completely worn out. I had so many pains and aches my life was a burden to me and also to all the family, for I was nervous and cross and I could not sleep. Had four doctors come to see me but at last found I was slowly dying. The doctors said I had liver, lung and uterine trouble. I was in bed for months and when I did get up I was a sight to behold. I looked like a corpse walking about. I commenced to take Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets,' and ever since then I have been a well woman. I have suffered all a woman could suffer at my monthly period until since I began the use of Dr. Pierce's medicines, but now I can say I have no pain. The dark circles around my eyes are going away and I feel better in every way. My cheeks are red and my skin is white, but before it was as yellow as saffron."

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription" there is nothing just as good for weak and sick women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are easy and pleasant to take. A most effective laxative.

DISTRIBUTION OF FAIR ESTATE.

Relatives of Dead Woman to Go to San Francisco to Secure Their Share.

New York, Aug. 16.—The Evening World said yesterday that Mrs. Anna E. Nelson, mother of the late Mrs. Charles Fair, accompanied by her son, A. G. Nelson, a half-brother of the late Mrs. Fair, will leave their home at Newmarket, N. J., on Sunday for San Francisco, where they will employ lawyers to represent them in the distribution of the Fair estate. The paper adds that the trip is made at the instigation of George Harvey, of San Francisco, who had telegraphed Mrs. Nelson to come immediately.

The paper also quotes Edward S. Lefler, a real estate dealer of this city, as saying that he and his family would take steps to protect their interests as heirs. Mr. Lefler's mother was a sister of Mrs. Charles Fair. Among Mrs. Fair's heirs, besides her mother, others who live in the east are said to be Mrs. Elizabeth Bunnell, of Union, N. J.; Mrs. Laura Leonard, of Caldwell, N. J.; William B. Smith, of Newmarket, N. J., and a number of members of the Lefler family.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—A question at issue in the Fair estate settlement will be which died first. Mrs. Fair's individual estate amounts to about $350,000.

Paris, Aug. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Fair apparently both died at the same time.

Noted Spiritualist Dead.

Middletown, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Luther R. Marsh, widely noted as a Spiritualist, died at his home at this place yesterday afternoon, after an illness of several weeks. He was 89 years old.

MONEY FOR MISSIONS

LETTER TO AMERICAN PRELATES

Small Catholic Population of England Unable to Develop Distant Missionary Fields Unaided—School Sends Out Many Workers.

London, Aug. 16 — Cardinal Vaughan, archbishop of Westminster has dispatched the Very Rev. Francis Henry, rector of St. Joseph's Missionary college, to the United States and Canada to solicit money for heathen missions. Cardinal Vaughan has also addressed a letter to the archbishops and bishops of the United States, in which he points out that hundreds of missionaries are sent out by St. Joseph's college, but that the small Catholic population of England is unable to develop distant missionary fields unaided.

Sisters Wish to Come to United States

Rome, Aug. 16.—Members of the religious orders expelled from France especially sisters, are applying to the vatican authorities for permission to settle in the United States. Several of them have come to Rome personally for the purpose of urging their requests. A reply has been sent to them, pointing out that there are no vacancies in the United States, and besides, calling attention to the difficulty arising from the fact that the expelled sisters do not speak the English language.

Canada has been suggested as a better field, as sisters are comparatively scarce there, and because French is spoken in a large area of the Dominion. The applicants, however, did not take kindly to the suggestion, and persist in their request to go to the United States.

Corrigan's Successor Not Chosen.

Washington, Aug. 16.—It was stated at the papal legation yesterday that owing to the death of the Cardinal Prefect at Rome, and the various formalities necessary to be gone through with, the appointment of a successor to the late Archbishop Corrigan will not be made until late in November, and possibly December. It is said that the matter is being carefully considered, and that while Bishop John M. Farley was strongly urged for the appointment there are two other bishops whose names have been submitted who are regarded as formidable candidates. These latter the officials of the legation declined to designate by name.

Brain Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You may prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get the reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's.

CERTAIN RESULTS

Many a East Liverpool Citizen Knows How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in East Liverpool. There is plenty of positive proof of this in testimony of citizens, such evidence should convince the most skeptical doubter.

Read the following statement:

Mr. Thomas Laughlin, of 172 Sophia street, engineer, says: "I caught cold and neglected it. It settled in my back and kidneys. Forced me to quit work and almost cost me my life. I could not move without suffering, and often could neither sit, stand or lie for pain. The secretions of the kidneys went wrong and distressed and annoyed me both night and day. I took medicine for ten years but did not get well. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at the W. & W. Pharmacy. Noticing some improvement by the time I had taken the first half of the box, I continued until I had taken four boxes and my back was all right as well as the urinary trouble. I will substantiate my statement of Doan's Kidney Pills if anyone will come to my house to investigate for themselves. My wife had some backache also; she took Doan's Kidney pills and was cured."

Sold for 50 cents per box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 16.—The president yesterday gave orders that hereafter the names of the enlisted men of the army who die in the Philippines be cabled to this country once in every two weeks. When the volunteer army was in the archipelago it was the custom to cable the casualties, but on the withdrawal of that army the practice was discontinued.

The subject was discussed while the president was entertaining a number of visitors at luncheon yesterday.

CHINESE OFFICIALS CROOKED.

Accused of Filling Their Pockets From Taxes Collected.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The state department has received two interesting Chinese proclamations, one an imperial edict issued from the throne, concerning the raising of the war indemnity, and the other by Governor Yuan, viceroy of Chi-li, ordering the people to stop carrying weapons and to guard against a repetition of the Boxer trouble. The documents are not only curious, but they are important as showing some of the results of the war.

The imperial edict discloses that China is seeking to devise a plan for meeting the war indemnity, and is fearful that the heavy tax on the people will oppress them to further disorder. The edict also accuses the Chinese officials of "filling their own pockets" with the sums taken from the people.

Railroads In Bitter Fight.

Pittsburg, Aug. 16.—Two hundred railroad laborers, armed with pick handles and heavy clubs, and protected by a trench and strong barricade, remained on guard all last night, at South First street, awaiting the advance of several hundred Pittsburg and Lake Erie workmen who started to bar the entrance of the Wabash road to the Southside by laying tracks across the route over which the Wabash proposes to run, near the Panhandle bridge.

SOLDIERS TO ARMS.

A MAN THROWN INTO CREEK

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 16.—There was an outbreak last night right under the noses of the troops in camp, and for a time it looked as though serious trouble would occur. The disorder was the result of a mob chasing an alleged unfair workman near the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company's washery, in the southeastern part of the town. There were 50 or 60 men in the mob. As they chased the man up the railroad, throwing stones at him, the night watchman at the washery, named Anthony Flinn, tried to rescue the man. The watchman was promptly thrown into the creek running parallel with the railroad by some of those leading in the chase.

The crowd kept after the workman and he ran to the Reading railroad station, where a company of infantry was on provost duty. The company was immediately called into formation and attempted to hold the crowd back. The captain of the company exercised great patience with the crowd and prevented any serious trouble. The mob caused a large crowd to gather from all directions and word was immediately sent to camp for reinforcements. In nine minutes the entire Twelfth regiment and a battalion of the Eighth were on the scene. The crowd quickly scattered and three men, John Howe, Frederick Zimmerman and Matthew Bronz, who are alleged to have been participants in the assault on the watchman and the workman, were arrested and taken to the town lockup. The troops were kept in the streets until a late hour last night.

POLICE HELD UNDER BAIL.

Twenty-Four Men Under Arrest Required to Give a Bond of $10,000.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 16.—The 24 local and iron policemen and armed workmen of the Warnke colliery, who were arrested for participation in Thursday's affray at Duryea, were brought before Judge Halsey here, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and charged by Prosecuting Attorney Frank A. Guigan with inciting to riot and felonious assault.

John P. Lenahan, who appeared for the defendants, moved for the discharge of the prisoners, but Judge Halsey held them for examination at 10 o'clock next Monday, on temporary bail of $10,000. The bail was furnished by a man who did not wish his name divulged, but who is known to be connected with a large coal-carrying company. The men were released. Sheriff Jacobs telephoned here yesterday that if Frederick Warnke attempted to start his washery again, he would be compelled to ask for troops.

Advices from Duryea indicated that the feeling there against the Warnke washery was increasing as a result of Thursday's fight and that trouble will occur on the least provocation. It is further stated that the Warnke mines are determined on a resumption of work soon.

Senator Quay telegraphed from Atlantic City to the chairman of the Public Alliance, of this city, that he is still under the doctor's care, but that he will be glad to see a committee from the alliance any time they call upon him at his cottage at Atlantic City. The alliance wants Senators Quay and Penrose to use their influence with the coal operators to have them consent to arbitrate the strike.

A Lithunian striker was arrested in Plymouth township last night charged with being one of the party that shot George Sullivan, a Polander, employed in fighting fire at the Jersey mine. Two shots from ambush were fired at Sullivan, one of the bullets striking him in the leg and inflicting a slight wound.

MANY STORES BURNED.

Hamilton, O., Aug. 16.—One of the most disastrous fires in the history of the city originated Thursday night at 11 o'clock in the basement of the large dry goods and carpet store of T. V. Howell & Son, High street. In a short time the interior of the Howell block was a mass of flames, and burned briskly until the fire communicated with the Second National bank building, burning out the rear second and third floors and the front third floor.

The Mehrum block, next door, was also damaged, and the carpet store of Creighton and Hooven was drenched with water. The fire department was unable to control the fire, which burned until 4 o'clock. The damage to Howell will reach over $175,000; Holbrook Bros., in the Mehrum block, $10,000; bank building, $30,000, with other smaller losses.

A CONTRAST

Of the face of a healthful woman with the face of one who is sick proves that quite often a sad face is a sick face. Many a woman has credit for a sunny disposition who would soon be sad of face and irritable of temper if she had to endure the womanly ills which many of her sex have borne for years.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases which are the source of so much pain and suffering to women. It establishes regularity, dries debilitating drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Cornelia Henson, of Coalton, Boyd Co., Ky., writes: "In October 1899 I gave birth to a baby and the treatment I received at the hands of the midwife left me with falling of the uterus. I had no health to speak of for three years. I had another baby which was the third child. My health began to fail and I found myself completely worn out. I had so many pains and aches my life was a burden to me and also to all the family, for I was nervous and cross and I could not sleep. Had four doctors come to see me but at last found I was slowly dying. The doctors said I had liver, lung and uterine trouble. I was in bed for months and when I did get up I was a sight to behold. I looked like a corpse walking about. I commenced to take Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets,' and ever since then I have been a well woman. I have suffered all a woman could suffer at my monthly period until since I began the use of Dr. Pierce's medicines, but now I can say I have no pain. The dark circles around my eyes are going away and I feel better in every way. My cheeks are red and my skin is white, but before it was as yellow as saffron."

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription" there is nothing just as good for weak and sick women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are easy and pleasant to take. A most effective laxative.

DISTRIBUTION OF FAIR ESTATE.

Relatives of Dead Woman to Go to San Francisco to Secure Their Share.

New York, Aug. 16.—The Evening World said yesterday that Mrs. Anna E. Nelson, mother of the late Mrs. Charles Fair, accompanied by her son, A. G. Nelson, a half-brother of the late Mrs. Fair, will leave their home at Newmarket, N. J., on Sunday for San Francisco, where they will employ lawyers to represent them in the distribution of the Fair estate. The paper adds that the trip is made at the instigation of George Harvey, of San Francisco, who had telegraphed Mrs. Nelson to come immediately.

The paper also quotes Edward S. Lefler, a real estate dealer of this city, as saying that he and his family would take steps to protect their interests as heirs. Mr. Lefler's mother was a sister of Mrs. Charles Fair. Among Mrs. Fair's heirs, besides her mother, others who live in the east are said to be Mrs. Elizabeth Bunnell, of Union, N. J.; Mrs. Laura Leonard, of Caldwell, N. J.; William B. Smith, of Newmarket, N. J., and a number of members of the Lefler family.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—A question at issue in the Fair estate settlement will be which died first. Mrs. Fair's individual estate amounts to about $350,000.

Paris, Aug. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Fair apparently both died at the same time.

MONEY FOR MISSIONS

Small Catholic Population of England Unable to Develop Distant Missionary Fields Unaided—School Sends Out Many Workers.

London, Aug. 16 — Cardinal Vaughan, archbishop of Westminster has dispatched the Very Rev. Francis Henry, rector of St. Joseph's Missionary college, to the United States and Canada to solicit money for heathen missions. Cardinal Vaughan has also addressed a letter to the archbishops and bishops of the United States, in which he points out that hundreds of missionaries are sent out by St. Joseph's college, but that the small Catholic population of England is unable to develop distant missionary fields unaided.

Sisters Wish to Come to United States

Rome, Aug. 16.—Members of the religious orders expelled from France, especially sisters, are applying to the Vatican authorities for permission to settle in the United States. Several of them have come to Rome personally for the purpose of urging their requests. A reply has been sent to them, pointing out that there are no vacancies in the United States, and besides, calling attention to the difficulty arising from the fact that the expelled sisters do not speak the English language.

Canada has been suggested as a better field, as sisters are comparatively scarce there, and because French is spoken in a large area of the Dominion. The applicants, however, did not take kindly to the suggestion, and persist in their request to go to the United States.

Corrigan's Successor Not Chosen.

Washington, Aug. 16.—It was stated at the papal legation yesterday that owing to the death of the Cardinal Prefect at Rome, and the various formalities necessary to be gone through with, the appointment of a successor to the late Archbishop Corrigan will not be made until late in November, and possibly December. It is said that the matter is being carefully considered, and that while Bishop John M. Farley was strongly urged for the appointment there are two other bishops whose names have been submitted who are regarded as formidable candidates. These latter the officials of the legation declined to designate by name.

Brain Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You may prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get the reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's.

CERTAIN RESULTS

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in East Liverpool. There is plenty of positive proof of this in testimony of citizens, such evidence should convince the most skeptical doubter.

Read the following statement:

Mr. Thomas Laughlin, of 172 Sophia street, engineer, says: "I caught cold and neglected it. It settled in my back and kidneys. Forced me to quit work and almost cost me my life. I could not move without suffering, and often could neither sit, stand or lie for pain. The secretions of the kidneys went wrong and distressed and annoyed me both night and day. I took medicine for ten years but did not get well. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at the W. & W. Pharmacy. Noticing some improvement by the time I had taken the first half of the box, I continued until I had taken four boxes and my back was all right as well as the urinary trouble. I will substantiate my statement of Doan's Kidney Pills if anyone will come to my house to investigate for themselves. My wife had some backache also; she took Doan's Kidney pills and was cured."

Sold for 50 cents per box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

A Son Born—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Fickes, Lisbon street, this morning.

Allegheny Couple Married. — Miss Marcella S. Hart and Philip Schweitzer, both of Allegheny, were married this afternoon by Squire McLane.

Pleasantly Entertained.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Winkle, of Pleasant street, entertained last evening in honor of the latter's cousin, Miss Joan Winkle, St. Louis, Mo. Music was a feature.

The Hunting Was Good—City Clerk Davidson and Dr. Jackman spent yesterday in the woods squirrel hunting. Willis says that the entire time was spent in hunting, not a squirrel being impudent enough to get in their way.

Masons Enjoyed Themselves—The Masonic picnic held at Rock Springs park yesterday afternoon and evening was not the success that was anticipated. The cause was the threatening weather. There were, however, quite a number present and all reported an enjoyable time.

Surprise Party—A most enjoyable surprise party was tendered Mrs. J. M. Arbuthnot at her home, Bradshaw avenue, last evening by a large number of her friends. They arrived early in the evening and spent several hours in music, games and other amusements, after which all were seated to a delightful collation.

Watching for a Runaway Boy—Chief Thompson received a telephone message from Mrs. John Johnston, of Gallipolis, last evening asking that he watch all upriver boats for her boy Harry, who ran away from home several days ago. The lad had intimated that he was coming to East Liverpool and the anxious mother wants him returned to her if apprehended. The chief has not been able to locate him, but will watch as requested.

MACCABEES' MEETING

An Interesting One Last Evening. New Tent at Wellsville.

An excellent meeting was held last evening by Crockery City Tent No. 131, Knights of the Maccabees. Several applications for membership were presented, and at the next meeting new candidates will be initiated. The degree team of the tent is hard at work preparing for its coming task at Wellsville. A lodge is being formed at Wellsville by District Deputy Carouthers, of Steubenville, and although he has been soliciting members but a short time, a large list has been obtained. It is expected this tent will be instituted on the evening of September 2, or possibly sooner if a desirable hall can be obtained.

After the meeting of the local tent last evening, the members ajourned to a cafe where ice cream and cake were served.

Licensed to Marry.

Notice.

All members of Eureka Circle, No. 86, P. H. C., are requested to meet at the hall on Tuesday evening, August 19, as there is business of great importance. There is a class of thirty to be initiated and final arrangements for the picnic at Cascade Park will be completed. Badges for the committees and all members will be given out. Visiting members from Wellsville, Stratton and Chester circles will be in attendance. By order of Committee.

HUNGRY CROWDS

Simply Taxed Hotels and Restaurants to their Utmost Capacity.

Owing to the big picnic of the Jr. O. U. A. M., of West Virginia and Pennsylvania held at Rock Springs park today local hotels and restaurants simply had so many customers that not more than half could be fed. At the tables and lunch counters sat the hungry visitors while every inch of available standing room was occupied by others patiently awaiting a chance for a seat. Several restaurant proprietors, not anticipating such a crowd, were compelled to turn the people away before one o'clock. The streets were jammed from 10 o'clock until 2 when the people repaired to the park. The need of more hotel accommodations was never before more apparent.

Chief Thompson states that he never saw a more orderly crowd considering the immense number. But a very few were drunk. Two cases were reported to central station of pickpockets getting in their work, but it is thought that the loosers carelessly dropped their wealth in the street and that they were not victimized.

SURPRISED FRIENDS

Miss Margaret Todd And C. E. Jones Quietly Wedded at Steubenville.

The friends of Miss Margaret Todd and C. E. Jones got quite a surprise yesterday when word reached the city that the couple had quietly been married on Thursday evening by Rev. Dr. McKinley at Steubenville. Both are highly respected young people and have the best wishes of the entire community. They will reside on College street, where they are now receiving congratulations.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Todd, of Lincoln avenue, and is possessed of many admirable traits. Mr. Jones has lived in the city for two years, his former nome being at Wellsburg. He is in the employ of T. B. Murphy & Son.

CAME HERE TO WED

'Squire McCarron Said the Words That Made a Pittsburg Couple Happy.

Among the throngs from Pittsburg who visited the city and Rock Springs park today was a couple that took in the excursion for but one purpose, that of getting married by an Ohio ustice. They were Miss Anna E. Stille and John M. Thomas. 'Squire H. P. McCarron was chosen to perform the ceremony and he did it in his usual accomplished and satisfactory style.

Mr. Thomas is a photographer and expects to be employed by the government in a few weeks, having secured a commission to do photographing for the forestry surveying corps recently instituted. His bride is a winsome and beautiful young lady.

SOME TRI-STATE EVENTS

By the premature explosion of 36 sticks of dynamite near Elkins, W. Va., Patrick Tabaney, a railroad foreman, lost both arms and received other frightful injuries, but will recover.

At Toledo, O., George S. Clair, an employe of the Malleable Iron works, had both eyes burned out by the bursting of a pot into which he was pouring molten metal.

Orville DeLand, of Fairfield, Wis., was fatally injured, it is believed, by falling off the roof of the new Lake Shore depot, at Toledo, O.

The National Union of Northwestern Ohio, under the auspices of Lucas County Cabinet, held a monster field day at Walbridge park, near Toledo, which was attended by 40,000 people.

Henry A. Kulhauser, charged with embezzling $193 from the Union Casualty and Surety company, of St. Louis, was bound over in $1,000, at Toledo, O.

James J. Karr, night watchman on the Pittsburg Coal company's fleet, at Minersville, near Pomeroy, O., fell overboard and was drowned.

At Columbus, O., a police court jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the gambling case instituted against Guy Goble by the Citizens' League.

At Toledo, O., the Donovan Wire and Iron works, 505-515 Water street, was damaged $7,000 by fire.

The board of Ohio penitentiary managers paroled Patrick Grady, serving 15 years, from Hamilton county, O., for shotting to kill. All other applications were rejected.

At Cambridge, O., the plant of the Cambridge Brick and Tile company was burned. Loss, $12,000; partly covered by insurance.

At Marietta, O., Everett Rowland, aged 25 and unmarried, was fatally shot by the accidental discharge of a gun.

John Ruskosky, of No. 5 Seventh street, Braddock, Pa., was held for the murder of his 7-weeks-old daughter, Annie, at the inquest held by Coroner Jesse M. McGeary. Ruskosky was arrested and committed to jail on a coroner's commitment Aug. 12, it being alleged that on Aug. 9 he took his child by the heels and struck its head against the bed because the crying of the little one annoyed him.

William Heidenrich, aged about 40 years, was found dead on Lowry street, Reserve township, near Allegheny City, Pa. He had a big gash in his forehead. The police are working on the case. It is not known whether he met with foul play or not.

Frank McCullough, the ex-policeman, who shot William E. Dunn, of 21 Haldane street, in a drunken row on Third avenue, Pittsburg, was charged by Police Captain Charles Gallant with felonious shooting and was committed to jail without bail to await the result of the wound he inflicted. Dunn is at the Homeopathic hospital and his wound is of the same nature as that which caused the death of Moore, the colored man shot by Policeman Riley in Water street. The chances are against his getting well.

Another effort may be made by the American Tinplate company to have the Amalgamated association reconsider the stand which it has taken against any concession in the matter of wages at a conference of the officials of the company and the tinplate wage committee of the association, to be held in New York soon. The members of the committee have not been appointed by President T. J. Shaffer, but it is admitted at the headquarters of the association that such a conference will take place shortly.

HUNGRY CROWDS

Simply Taxed Hotels and Restaurants to their Utmost Capacity.

Owing to the big picnic of the Jr. O. U. A. M., of West Virginia and Pennsylvania held at Rock Springs park today local hotels and restaurants simply had so many customers that not more than half could be fed. At the tables and lunch counters sat the hungry visitors while every inch of available standing room was occupied by others patiently awaiting a chance for a seat. Several restaurant proprietors, not anticipating such a crowd, were compelled to turn the people away before one o'clock. The streets were jammed from 10 o'clock until 2 when the people repaired to the park. The need of more hotel accommodations was never before more apparent.

Chief Thompson states that he never saw a more orderly crowd considering the immense number. But a very few were drunk. Two cases were reported to central station of pickpockets getting in their work, but it is thought that the loosers carelessly dropped their wealth in the street and that they were not victimized.

SURPRISED FRIENDS

The friends of Miss Margaret Todd and C. E. Jones got quite a surprise yesterday when word reached the city that the couple had quietly been married on Thursday evening by Rev. Dr. McKinley at Steubenville. Both are highly respected young people and have the best wishes of the entire community. They will reside on College street, where they are now receiving congratulations.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Todd, of Lincoln avenue, and is possessed of many admirable traits. Mr. Jones has lived in the city for two years, his former home being at Wellsburg. He is in the employ of T. B. Murphy & Son.

CAME HERE TO WED

'Squire McCarron Said the Words That Made a Pittsburg Couple Happy.

Among the throngs from Pittsburg who visited the city and Rock Springs park today was a couple that took in the excursion for but one purpose, that of getting married by an Ohio ustice. They were Miss Anna E. Stille and John M. Thomas. 'Squire H. P. McCarron was chosen to perform the ceremony and he did it in his usual accomplished and satisfactory style.

Mr. Thomas is a photographer and expects to be employed by the government in a few weeks, having secured a commission to do photographing for the forestry surveying corps recently instituted. His bride is a winsome and beautiful young lady.

SOME TRI-STATE EVENTS

By the premature explosion of 36 sticks of dynamite near Elkins, W. Va., Patrick Tabaney, a railroad foreman, lost both arms and received other frightful injuries, but will recover.

At Toledo, O., George S. Clair, an employe of the Malleable Iron works, had both eyes burned out by the bursting of a pot into which he was pouring molten metal.

Orville DeLand, of Fairfield, Wis., was fatally injured, it is believed, by falling off the roof of the new Lake Shore depot, at Toledo, O.

The National Union of Northwestern Ohio, under the auspices of Lucas County Cabinet, held a monster field day at Walbridge park, near Toledo, which was attended by 40,000 people.

Henry A. Kulhauser, charged with embezzling $193 from the Union Casualty and Surety company, of St. Louis, was bound over in $1,000, at Toledo, O.

James J. Karr, night watchman on the Pittsburg Coal company's fleet, at Minersville, near Pomeroy, O., fell overboard and was drowned.

At Toledo, O., the Donovan Wire and Iron works, 505-515 Water street, was damaged $7,000 by fire.

The board of Ohio penitentiary managers paroled Patrick Grady, serving 15 years, from Hamilton county, O., for shotting to kill. All other applications were rejected.

At Cambridge, O., the plant of the Cambridge Brick and Tile company was burned. Loss, $12,000; partly covered by insurance.

At Marietta, O., Everett Rowland, aged 25 and unmarried, was fatally shot by the accidental discharge of a gun.

John Ruskosky, of No. 5 Seventh street, Braddock, Pa., was held for the murder of his 7-weeks-old daughter, Annie, at the inquest held by Coroner Jesse M. McGeary. Ruskosky was arrested and committed to jail on a coroner's commitment Aug. 12, it being alleged that on Aug. 9 he took his child by the heels and struck its head against the bed because the crying of the little one annoyed him.

William Heidenrich, aged about 40 years, was found dead on Lowry street, Reserve township, near Allegheny City, Pa. He had a big gash in his forehead. The police are working on the case. It is not known whether he met with foul play or not.

Frank McCullough, the ex-policeman, who shot William E. Dunn, of 21 Haldane street, in a drunken row on Third avenue, Pittsburg, was charged by Police Captain Charles Gallant with felonious shooting and was committed to jail without bail to await the result of the wound he inflicted. Dunn is at the Homeopathic hospital and his wound is of the same nature as that which caused the death of Moore, the colored man shot by Policeman Riley in Water street. The chances are against his getting well.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

A Son Born—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Fickes, Lisbon street, this morning.

Allegheny Couple Married. — Miss Marcella S. Hart and Philip Schweitzer, both of Allegheny, were married this afternoon by Squire McLane.

Pleasantly Entertained.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Winkle, of Pleasant street, entertained last evening in honor of the latter's cousin, Miss Joan Winkle, St. Louis, Mo. Music was a feature.

The Hunting Was Good—City Clerk Davidson and Dr. Jackman spent yesterday in the woods squirrel hunting. Willis says that the entire time was spent in hunting, not a squirrel being impudent enough to get in their way.

Masons Enjoyed Themselves—The Masonic picnic held at Rock Springs park yesterday afternoon and evening was not the success that was anticipated. The cause was the threatening weather. There were, however, quite a number present and all reported an enjoyable time.

Surprise Party—A most enjoyable surprise party was tendered Mrs. J. M. Arbuthnot at her home, Bradshaw avenue, last evening by a large number of her friends. They arrived early in the evening and spent several hours in music, games and other amusements, after which all were seated to a delightful collation.

Watching for a Runaway Boy—Chief Thompson received a telephone message from Mrs. John Johnston, of Gallipolis, last evening asking that he watch all upriver boats for her boy Harry, who ran away from home several days ago. The lad had intimated that he was coming to East Liverpool and the anxious mother wants him returned to her if apprehended. The chief has not been able to locate him, but will watch as requested.

MACCABEES' MEETING

An excellent meeting was held last evening by Crockery City Tent No. 131, Knights of the Maccabees. Several applications for membership were presented, and at the next meeting new candidates will be initiated. The degree team of the tent is hard at work preparing for its coming task at Wellsville. A lodge is being formed at Wellsville by District Deputy Carouthers, of Steubenville, and although he has been soliciting members but a short time, a large list has been obtained. It is expected this tent will be instituted on the evening of September 2, or possibly sooner if a desirable hall can be obtained.

After the meeting of the local tent last evening, the members ajourned to a cafe where ice cream and cake were served.

Licensed to Marry.

Notice.

All members of Eureka Circle, No. 86, P. H. C., are requested to meet at the hall on Tuesday evening, August 19, as there is business of great importance. There is a class of thirty to be initiated and final arrangements for the picnic at Cascade Park will be completed. Badges for the committees and all members will be given out. Visiting members from Wellsville, Stratton and Chester circles will be in attendance. By order of Committee.

GOLF CLUB FORMED SOON TO BE READY FOR ACTIVE PRACTICE

With the formation of a golf club, which was done at a meeting held recently in the office of Charles Macrum, actuary of the East Liverpool Potteries company, every line of sport known to the sporting and fun loving elements of the United States is represented in this city. Ping pong until now has been the fad, especially so among society circles, but it as well as foot ball, base ball, tennis and everything of the sort will be relegated to a minor place until the latest sport, old to thousands, but quite new to most people of the Crockery city, has worn out.

Much time and labor has been consumed in the formation of the club. Although the officers, Charles E. Macrum, president; Edwin M. Knowles, vice president, and Harry T. Hall, secretary and treasurer, have been at the head of the work, numerous others, among whom is Secretary M. C. Wright, of the Y. M. C. A., have done quite a good deal toward helping the project along.

Numerous committees have been appointed to look after the many important features incident to the permanent organization and all are putting forth their best efforts to make the sport one to be enjoyed by all who participate and also those who will witness the performance. The membership is limited and the list has been filled. Quite a number who have handed in applications for membership will be given a chance at the earliest opportunity.

The grounds selected and leased by the organization cover nearly 30 acres, located near Thompson park and in a truly picturesque locality, admirably adopted to the purpose for which they are to be used. Workmen have been contracted with to clear the grounds and have them in shape for the games within two weeks.

The members of the team already accepted are anticipating great amusement in the sport this fall, but do not count much on becoming experts before next spring. They, however, have hopes that they will become proficient to such an extent that they will not feel backward in playing with foreign teams before bad weather sets in. Each member has ordered his playing equipment, and none but the best will be used. It is expected that everything will arrive not later than the latter part of the week.

A charter has been applied for by the organization, and the name has been partially decided upon, but the officers are not as yet fully determined upon that point and withhold the names under consideration for the present.

CHARLES E. MACRUM,
President of the Golf Club.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, August 16.—Yielding to requests which have poured in from all parts of the state, Governor Nash has decided to give out to the public an abstract of the provisions of the proposed municipal code bill which has been drawn under his direction. The press of the state will be furnished copies of it not later than Monday.

In taking this step the governor is also actuated by a wish to give the citizens an opportunity of analyzing and studying the measure before i goes to the general assembly. He thinks that he has been the target of unjust criticism because of his secrecy as to what the code contains, and pleads that it was due to the fact that it was in such an unfinished state that he would not sanction giving out information about it.

The state bar committee has compited its revision of the code and has left the city. The features which the committee did not approve are set forth in its report to the governor, who may or may not accept them, according to his pleasure.

Disquieting reports come from from the gathering at Representative Querin's clambake at Sandusky. They indicate that the majority of those present are opposed to the clause giving to the governor of Ohio the power to appoint police boards, declaring this would be in violation of the principle of home rule. The members from the rural districts also showed hostility to the placing of the line of demarkation between cities and villages at 10,000, and it will not be surprising if they take a firm stand for a lower figure for the dividing line.

When Senators Longworth and Connell arrived at the clambake they were at once surrounded by members who were anxious to learn something authoritative about the administration code and who had hoped that they might have it in their possession. They were disappointed at learning that that much-coveted instrument was still nestling secure, undefiled by public gaze, in the hands of the governor. They vouchsafed the information, though, that copies of it would be sent to the members, Republicans and Democrats, the latter part of next week.

Lieutenant Governor Gordan, who was present at the gathering, is reported as saying that he had no idea

Most Favored And Can Have the Nomination If He Wants It—Republicans Not a Bit Concerned And Confident of Electing Kennedy.

That there will be a labor candidate in the field for Congress from the Eighteenth district this fall there is now no doubt. And what is more, the indications are he will be from East Liverpool.

The Democrats of the district for once at least have been far-sighted enough to see where they can profit in a measure by this sentiment on the part of the unionists, and from the present outlook that party will name the man.

More activity has been noted in the ranks of the Democracy recently than for several years, and it now develops that there is a very good reason for this. A prominent local member of the party said today:

"There is nothing to prevent the Democratic party from electing a congressman in this district, and we are going to make a hard fight for it. There will be no opposition from either Columbiana or Mahoning to the name which the East Liverpool delegation will present and he will be a labor man, too. The Democratic party has elected a congressman in '72, '82, 92 and we will positively name the man in 1902.

"The name is not a new one by any means. The work has been done quietly to the present, but now that we are sure of our ground there is no longer reason for secrecy. T. J. Duffy, National Secretary of the N. B. of O. P., is our man and he will win.

"Mr. Duffy is one of the brightest young men in the Eighteenth district, and the very fact that he is not a Republican will help his candidacy instead of injuring it. The East Liverpool man will go into the convention with the solid support of both Columbiana and Mahoning."

The time for holding the district convention has not been fixed, but it is said the announcement will be made within a few days.

Among a great many Democrats in this city there is a doubt as to whether Mr. Duffy will give his consent to become a candidate. He has never been in politics, and indeed it has only recently been generally known that he is a Democrat. He is very careful in talking on the subject, and has to the present succeeded in avoiding a political declaration as to his intentions in the matter. He said:

"The statement published in the News Review was as much news to me as anyone, and I am sure I have said nothing that would justify such an assertion. If the matter was presented to a prospective candidate in the light that he would stand a good chance to win he would be foolish to refuse to take it under advisement."

Nearly every trades union in the city has received a circular signed by the officers of the Alliance Trades and Labor Council announcing a meeting of the representatives of all labor organizations in the Eighteenth district.

The meeting will take place at Alliance next Saturday night, and it is expected that representative labor men from every city and town in the district will be in attendance. The purpose of the meeting, as announced by the Alliance people, is to select a labor candidate to be placed in the field for congress in the Eighteenth district.

Local labor men are of the opinion that the plan will not be favorably considered here. Those interviewed say the trades council would be the proper place to take such matters, and that if the members of that body see fit to send representatives to the meeting, all well and good; otherwise there is little likelihood of the scheme securing favorable consideration here.

Leading Republicans have been approached with a view of ascertaining what effect the proposed move would have upon the party. The universal opinion prevails that no amount of agitation along labor or any other lines will influence the usual Republican maority in the district. A prominent Republican said:

"No alarm is felt among Republicans. Those who have taken the trouble to post themselves are aware that the whole scheme was concocted at Alliance, where there is a handful of half-hearted Republicans who were disappointed at the result of the Salem convention. When the workers of the district realize they are being used for a purpose, and that purpose to further the ends of a few disgruntled ones, they will drop it like a hot potato. Mr. Kennedy, of Mahoning, will be elected by the usual majority."

Lisbon, August 16. — (Special) — A corps of 12 engineers came to Lisbon several months ago and started on a preliminary survey of a railroad under the direction of J. A. Hanlon, of Coshocton. They kept their operations secret, but pushed ahead with the work.

It now develops that they are in the employ of the Wabash and are laying out a line from the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad at Minerva to New Castle, Pa., where the new line will tap the large freight business of the Mahoning and Beaver valleys. The new line follows down Beaver creek to Lisbon and then utilizes the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western line to New Galilee, a distance of 25 miles. This line was bought by Myron P. Herrick, of Cleveland, some time ago, in the interest of the Wabash.

The location from New Galilee to New Castle is completed and the surveyors are now at work locating the line from Lisbon to Minerva.

VETERANS ASKED TO GIVE THEIR AID

A Monument Project Arousing Great Interest Among G. A. R. Men.

GEN. GIBSON MEMORIAL

To Commemorate the Memory of a Gallant Officer Universally Beloved by Ohio Soldiers—The Local Post Will Help.

Commander Daniel McLane of the local G. A. R. post No. 44, received a letter this morning from Chairman Gibbs, of the Gibson Memorial Association, which has headquarters at Tiffin, asking that the members of Post 44 make cash contributions and use all the influence within their power toward raising sufficient money to erect a monument in honor of the late Gen. William H. Gibson. A part of the letter follows:

"Our post believes the time has now come, and has undertaken the work and will prosecute it to completion. From all over the state there has come the word from comrades and admirers of the great soldier-orator, that they would be glad to give some assistance. We were delighted to know that the State encampment at Lancaster, not only gave approval, but the enthusiastic commendation of patriots to this noble cause. Gibson belonged, in a sacred consecration, to the interests of the old soldier, and nothing could be more appropriate than that an enduring tribute should be erected to his memory by his loyal comrades. No tribute could come to his name that would mean so much."

General Gibson was known personally by nearly every Grand Army man in the State of Ohio and not a few were intimate friends living in all parts of the United States. The members of the local post loved and adored the great major general. As an orator and stump speaker he had few equals. Commander McLane states that the matter will be brought before the post at the next regular meeting and that he thinks all will, in one accord, vote for assistance in the most worthy cause.

President William McKinley, who was a bosom friend of the late general, wrote of him as follows: "General Gibson believed the most important things in life were piety and patriotism. In his creed they were linked in indissoluble union. His piety was broad enough to include every creed, and his patriotism wide enough to cover the whole country. He once said to me that he put the flag beneath the cross. That, he said, was high enough for it. His name will be remembered as long as patriotism is revered."

POTTS GOES TO CANTON: WIFE CREATES A SCENE

Thomas Potts, the fiendish brute convicted and sentenced for the awful crime of attacking and frightening girls, was taken to the workhouse at Canton this morning by Officer Dunn.

Quite a scene took place at the depot and on the route leading from the jail, due to the wife of the prisoner. She went into a fit of raving; threatened to take her life; pleaded that her dear husband be released; wailed loud and long and topped it all off by the frequent kissing of the degraded wretch who is not worthy of the kiss of a dog.

While in her frenzied state had she known what the spectators were saying she undoubtedly would have turned upon them. Many were heard to say such beasts should not be allowed to live, and that the law could give him only $20 and costs was pointed out as a grave defect in the statutes calling for legislative remedy.

Mrs. Potts continued her ranting until the train pulled out, she following at the rear door of the train to the lower end of the platform and standing there until the last coach was lost to view.

The majority of the spectators showed their fury and contempt for Potts. Few showed pity for the prisoner. Several of his shantyboat friends were there and told him to not worry; that he would be released in a month and that it would not hurt him. The crowd became indignant at such a display and hooted at his so-called friends.

A GREATER PARADE THAN EVER BEFORE

ARRANGEMENTS GOING ON

Messrs. Leroy Orr, A. E. Bertelle, Harry Bascomb, John Boulton, George Hailes and Criss McConnell the committee of Trades and Labor Council appointed to make arrangements for Labor Day exercises held a meeting last evening and reported that everything was progressing nicely.

They have received 3000 pins which they will distribute on the morning of Labor day among those who will participate in the parade. The design of the pins is peculiarly attractive and they will be worn with pride. For several years ribbon styles have been provided for the paraders and the committee thought it best to make a change.

The secretary reported that he had received notice of acceptance from all the locals of the city which were invited to form in the line of the parade and from the present indications the parade will out-class in every particular any that has ever before been witnessed in the city.

Criss McConnell has been chosen chief marshal and has been given instructions to appoint 11 aids, selected from the several locals.

East Palestine, August 16.—(Special)—The police authorities of this town are quietly working on the post-office robbery case. They state that they have a clew which will eventually lead to the arrest of the thieves. Yesterday afternoon two men were seen driving in a buggy on the road leading from here to Niles. They were suspicious looking persons and the local authorities were notified. In a sort time the men were apprehended, but it was found that they were innocent farmers and not safe-crackers. What the clew is that the officers have is not known. They absolutely refuse to make any statement other than they are on the right track.

Decisive Game Today.

The decisive game in the contest between the Toronto and New Cumberland base ball teams will be played today, when the third of a series of five games will be decided. New Cumberland won two games and great interest is shown in today's game. If New Cumberland wins that team will have won three straight games and a purse of $200.

Elks' Carnivals Forbidden.

Street fairs or carnivals held under the auspices of Elks lodges were absolutely prohibited by the grand lodge of the order at the Salt Lake City convention. The new law will not go into effect until January 1, as many lodges in different parts of the country have already made plans for the holding of such fairs before that date.

NEGLIGENCE CHARGED

Lisbon, August 16. — (Special) — Hiram J. Haldeman, a railroad postal clerk living at Salem, has entered suit against the Ft. Wayne railway for $1,990 damages. He states in the petition that on February 18, 1902, he was distributing mail in a car which standing on a sidetrack at Pittsburg, when the car was violently moved. He was thrown to the floor and severely bruised.

He claims that the railway company was negligent in running a train against the mail car which was regularly used by clerks for distributing mail.

PACKERS' LOCAL

Held a Meeting of More Than Ordinary Interest Last Evening.

The regular meeting of the packers' local last night was of more than ordinary interest, but the nature of the business transacted is not given out. A transfer was received from Sebring, and Howard Leslie was received into full membership.

A communication was received from Alliance Ttrade Council, asking that three delegates be selected from No. 25 to meet in Alliance next Saturday night for the purpose of choosing a labor candidate for congress in this district. No action was taken upon the matter.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

POTTERY UNDERVALUATIONS.

Again reports are published charging gross undervaluations in connection with imported earthenware, including all lines of tableware known as china, etc. We have several times called attention to this line of undervaluations, says the American Economist. The pottery industry is the child of a protective tariff, especially in view of the fact that every dish represents almost exclusively hand labor. The two great centers of the pottery industry in this country are Trenton, N. J., and East Liverpool, O., where nearly one hundred factories are located. The rate of duty on pottery is 55 and 60 per cent ad valorem, which is ample protection to American labor and producers providing our tariff laws are enforced. The simple fact is that our customs service, in this line, is so completely dominated by foreign interests and foreigners that honest importers and domestic producers cannot compete with those who enjoy special favors. Investigations of undervaluations are under the direction of the supervising general agent of the treasury department, W. S. Chance, who hails from Ohio, and under the personal direction of Special Agent Williams at Paris, also from Ohio. The manufacturing potters should look into the matter of administration. They will find Secretary Shaw ready to correct any weak points in the service.

SHORTER WORK DAY.

There is a growing tendency among the pottery workers in the Liverpool district for the enforcement of the shorter work day. It is true a great majority of those employed in the various pottery trades work by the piece, and therefore are able to regulate the length of their day's work as best suits them, but it is a fact that has been commented upon more than once lately that these workers are gradually lessening their hours of labor until now scarcely an employe of a pottery is working in excess of the reasonable number of hours. There was a time in the history of potting in East Liverpool that the piece work employes was accustomed to turn out for work at a very early hour in the morning and continue until dark. Very few if any are observing such hours. Not a few have been asked as to the cause of the change in their habits, and invariably the reply is that they find almost of not quite as much can be accomplished in a shorter period. Their explanation is the same as that given by many other classes of workers. A man can do about so much in a day, and do it rapidly and well. If he goes beyond this his work is not so effective and he is rendered incapable of as much and as good work for the next day.

CREW TOO LARGE.

Serious trouble was averted this week at the Globe pottery of the East Liverpool Potteries company by the prompt action of the Brotherhood officials and, those of the Kilndrawers' union. The crew of kilndrawers wanted more men to draw a bisque kiln than is allowed by the uniform scale. When the foreman refused to grant the request they refused to continue at the work. The firm notified the Brotherhood officials who in time placed the matter in the hands of an officer of No. 17. He repaired to the scene of the dispute, and ordered the men to resume. They did so, and the question will likely receive an airing at the meeting of the kilndrawers' tonight.

OTHER ALTERATIONS.

While the old end of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles plant is being rebuilt new other improvements are being made which will aid in modernizing the plant. The bottoms are being torn out ofthe bisque kilns, and will be peplaced by new ones. The ovens will then be as good as when they were new.

SEBRING LABOR DAY.

Local No. 44, N. B. O. P., of Sebring, has appointed the following as a Labor Day committee on arrangements for the meeting at Alliance, to be held September 1: Walter S. Crewson, H. J. McMaster, A. J. White, C. J. Blumenstiel, Robert Surles, Katie Sullivan, Bertha Summers and Pearl Cosgrove were appointed as a committee for the ladies. The local has purchased a fine new banner, valued at $50, and will use it for the first time on this occasion. Between three hundred and four hundred of the "girls and boys" from Sebring workshops expect to take part in the parade.

Humors

They take possession of the body, and are Lords of Misrule.

They are attended by pimples, boils, the itching tetter, salt rheum, and other cutaneous eruptions; by feelings of weakness, languor, general debility and what not.

They cause more suffering than anything else.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

A WANDERER.

Archie Putman, who left this city to take a job in the jigger shop at the Barberton pottery only a few weeks ago, has arrived in the city and says he is home for good. Though he was absent but a short time Archie has had several situations since he gave up a good job here. He was in Barberton long enough to become convinced that he was not the man for the place. Putman then went to Sebring, meeting with about the same experience. He is now looking for a permanent location here and says East Liverpool is good enough after all.

A NEW KILN.

KNOWN HERE.

Joseph E. Allen who is held at Pittsburg for the murder of of a woman by the name of King, was at one time an employe of the K., T. & K. pottery, having drawn kiln and worked as pin boy at the new end. He left suddenly about a year and a half ago.

POTTERY NOTES.

Wm. Hardy, dipper at Laughlin No. 3, is home from an extended trip to eastern seaside resorts.

National Secretary T. J. Duffy was busy yesterday sending out pamphlets containing the proceedings of the Trenton convention.

James Cannon, kiln fireman at the Riverside pottery at Wheeling, who has been visiting his brother, Thomas Cannon, of this city, since that pottery shut down, was called home Thursday.

At the last meeting of local union No. 44, N. B. of O. P., at Sebring, it was decided to form a sick benefit and burial association with the order and a committee was appointed to make arrangements therefor.

PETER POWER SUIT HEARING.

Way Plaintiffs For Actions Were Provided Inquired Into.

New York, Aug. 16.—The hearing before Special Examiner Richard A. Mabie, in the suit of Peter Power against the Northern Pacific railroad directors to prevent them from turning over the stock of the company to the Northern Securities company, was continued yesterday.

Little attention was paid to the Power suit, however, the most of the day being devoted to inquiry into the means whereby plaintiffs were provided in the similar actions against the Great Northern railroad, one of the constituent companies in the merger, which actions were based on the holdings of Mrs. Elsworth Ives Chapman and Milton F. Bouden.

AGAINST HAHN'S CONTENTION.

Stricken From Amended Petition, at Opposition's Behest.

Mansfield, O., Aug. 16.—Common Pleas Judge Campbell yesterday afternoon, at the hearing of the William Hahn habeas corpus case, sustained Assistant Attorney General Todd's motion to strike out from the plaintiff's amended petition the part which alleges that "said pretended requisition is not made in good faith, but to collect a debt by court process."

Six depositions were introduced by Hahn's attorneys tending to show that there had been collusion between the district attorney's office and the office of the Manhattan Fire Insurance company's receiver, but the judge sustained the prosecution's objection to the admission of these.

Judge Brucker was put on the stand to testify regarding an alleged attempt made some months ago, when the New York people were here taking depositions at his office, to force Mr. Hahn to settle by threatening him with an indictment, but Judge Campbell sustained Todd's objections to a number of the questions asked.

The hearing was continued until today.

The Conditions on Saturday Evening Call Loudly for a Reform.

One of these days the police authorities will awaken to the need of instructing the officers to keep the crossings at the principal street corners clear of the crowds of men, women and children who persist in blocking the sidewalks nowadays. The nuisance is particularly objectionable in and about the Diamond and Sixth street on Saturday evenings.

It is no unusual thing to see on the corner a crowd that forces the patrolman out into the street, yet it apparently has never occurred to the policeman that he should direct the lingering ones to either "move on" or step back to the side of the pavement. If the officers would issue an order, the offenders might be educated in the course of a few months, and then the poor pedestrian would be able to pursue his way without an inclination to indulge in profanity at his inability to pass without going into the middle of the street, at the risk of being run down by a car. Possibly Chief Thompson has overlooked the extent of the nuisance which is growing worse continually.

There were three fakirs at the corner of Broadway and Sixth street last Saturday evening and passersby were compelled to walk around these crowds in order to proceed to their homes. At the corner of East Market street and the diamond the Salvation Army held forth. It is impossible to push one's way through the crowds that surround this little band and stand on the east sidewalk adjoining the Blackmore block.

Detroit, Aug. 16.—Extreme simplicity marked the funeral services yesterday afternoon over Senator James McMillan, who died last Sunday at his summer home in Manchester, Mass. The services began at 2:30 o'clock at the family residence, 515 Jefferson avenue. Both branches of congress, the state legislature and all departments of the state and city governments were represented. Governor A. T. Bliss was present with several of his staff. The senatorial delegation included some of the most intimate friends of the dead senator. It was made up as follows: Senators Hanna, Ohio; Foraker, Ohio; Kean, New Jersey; McComas, Maryland; Allison, Iowa; Lodge, Massachusetts; Burrows, Michigan; Fairbanks, Indiana; Cockrill, Missouri, and Gallinger, New Hampshire. The District of Columbia was represented by District Commissioners McFarland and Biddle.

At 2:30 o'clock the strains of Handel's "Largo" came from the musicians and a hush fell over the friends as the service began. The Rev. Alfred H. Barr read the first few verses of the fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians. Then the musicians played "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," to the music of "The Refuge." The Rev. Mr. Barr made a short prayer and the benediction ended the service. The interment was private, at Elmwood cemetery. The body was placed in the McMillan mausoleum.

EAST END

NOTICE WAS SERVED

'Squire Carman Attended to the Matter And the Harshas Will Move.

It is probable the case of Mrs. Randall against the Harsha family will not be contested in the court of Justice Carman this afternoon. The defendants have concluded to reconsider their determination to retain possession of the Randall property and this morning vacated the premises.

An amusing incident in the case occurred yesterday when Mrs. Harsha called at the office of the justice and poured into his ears a sorrowful story calculated to appeal to his sympathies. She maintained that neither she nor her husband had ever been given notice that the owners of the house were denied possession. The 'squire thought they had, and presuming, of course, that the notice must come from Mrs. Randall, the Harsha woman was positive no notice had ever been served. When the justice concluded she had proceeded far enough with the argument, he queitly informed the woman that formal notice had been served upon her husband by the justice himself. The argument ended there and Mrs. Harsha went home to pack up.

WORK UNFINISHED

East End People Want to See the Virginia Avenue Bridge Completed.

Work has been suspended on the Virginia avenue bridge, because it is presumed those in charge have other and more important work demanding their attention. The residents of that section are not certain but the job is completed as far as the street force is concerned, but it is asserted by them that in appearance the bridge looks anything but finished.

A vast amount of filling in will be required before the approaches are made passable.

SPECIAL SERVICES

For the Reception of New Members at the Second M. E. Church.

The services at the Erie street M. E. church tomorrow morning will be of a special order. The pastor, Rev. G. W. Orcutt, has arranged for the reception of the probationers, and in addition to this ceremony communion will be administered.

The ingathering service will occupy considerable time on acccount of the large number to be taken into full membership, and for this reason there will be no sermon. In connection with the morning services the ordinance of baptism will be adminstered.

Picnic a Big Success.

Those in charge of the union Sunday school picnic held recently at Stanton park by the East End churches have now settled up all matters connected with the outing. The affair was a success in every particu lar, and contrary to the general rule some money was netted. The representatives of the several Sunday schools met this week, and after paying all expenses, found they were $50 to the good.

Defendant Did Not Appear.

When the case of Allison & Kerr vs. John Fetty was called at 2 p. m. yesterday afternoon in the court of Justice L. W. Carman, the defendant failed to put in an appearance. The amount asked was $74 and it included the costs and interest on the original account for a period covering almost a year. Documents in aid of excution had been issued, and money in the hands of John Schmeltzenbach was secured.

New Parsonage.

Workmen in charge of the erection of the new Erie street M. E. church parsonage will have finished their work in a few days. The lathing was completed yesterday, and the plasterers will begin their portion of the task on Monday. Rev. Mr. Orcutt hopes to be settled in his new home by the 1st of September.

Special Song Service.

Rev. N. M. Crowe is still absent on his vacation which he is spending in Armstrong county, Pa., and tomorrow the services at the Second Presbyterian church will be in charge of Rev. J. N. Swan. A special song service will be conducted in the evening with a short address by Rev. Mr. Swan.

The Revival Services.

Rev. J. W. Howard and wife have charge of the successful evangelistic meetings which are in progress at Neville institute in the East End. The report that Mrs. Elliott was preaching there is an error.

Pickpockets and Pins.

Artful as the ways of the "Heathen Chinee" are the dodges of the expert picker of pockets. The other night a young lady who had been to the theater was getting on to a tram car, and, knowing the possibilities opened up to the light fingered gentry by a crowd, she kept her hand in her pocket and grasped her purse firmly. Suddenly she felt a sharp prick as from a pin on her hand and, acting on the impulse, let go her hold of the purse and snatched her hand out, almost as quickly returning it, but she was too late. In the few seconds that had elapsed another hand had been there, and the purse was gone.

DISGUISED CATARRH.

A Stealthy, Insidious, Weakening Enemy to Women.

REV. HARRIET R. EDWARDS, CLINTON, IA.

Rev. Harriet R. Edwards in a recent letter from Mt. Pleasant Park, Clinton, Ia., writes:

"I have found that Peruna is a wonderful medicine to use in diseases peculiar to women. It quickly and permanently restores health and vigor and acts as a natural tonic to a worn-out system. I have so far never observed a case which was not greatly aided by its use."--REV. DR. H. R. EDWARDS.

THERE are a multitude of women, especially housewives, and all other women obliged to be on their feet constantly, who are wretched beyond description, simply because their strength and vitality is sapped away by catarrhal discharges from the pelvic organs. These women get up in the morning tired, drag themselves through their daily duties tired, only to go to bed at night as tired as before.

Peruna is such a perfect specific for each case that when patients have once used it they can never be induced to quit it until they are permanently cured. It begins to relieve the disagreeable symptoms at once. The backache ceases, the trembling knees are strengthened, the appetite restored, the digestion made perfect, the dull headache is stopped and the weakening drains are gradually cured. These results certainly follow a course of treatment with Peruna.

"Mrs. Crowley has taken a number of bottles of Peruna on account of nervous troubles. It has proven a strong tonic and lasting cure. I can cheerfully recommend it."---Jos. B. Crowley.

Mrs. Wm. Hetrick, Kennard, Washington county, Neb., writes:

"I am fifty-six years old and have not felt well since the Change of Life began ten years ago. I was in misery somewhere most of the time. My back was very weak, and my flesh so tender it hurt me to lean against the back of a chair. I had pain under my shoulder-blades, in the small of my back and hips. I sometimes wished myself out of this world. Had hot and cold spells, dizziness, and trembling of the limbs, and was losing flesh all the time.

Barbara Alberty, corner Seventh and Walnut streets, Appleton, Wis., writes as follows in regard to Peruna:

"For years I have suffered with backache and severe pains in the side. I doctored so much that I became discouraged.

"A school friend told me how very much Peruna had benefited her and I sent out for a bottle, which did more to relieve me than all the other medicine I had ever taken.

Barbara Alberty.

"I used it faithfully for two weeks and it completely cured me. I have not had any pains since, anywhere, but feel like a new woman. I am truly thankful for what Peruna has done for me."—Barbara Alberty.

Mrs. D. W. Mason, 502 Dauphine street, New Orleans, La., writes:

"I have been taking your Peruna and Manalin and can cheerfully recommend it to all those suffering with the same trouble that I was. I have been suffering for the past two years with female weakness, palpitation of the heart, stomach, kidney and liver disorder, and above all a dreadful cough with smothering spells. I was completely run down.

"After I had taken one bottle of Peruna and a few doses of your Manalin, I could sleep soundly, my heart was better, my cough left me, it acted immediately upon my nerves, and after taking four bottles according to your directions, I was entirely cured of all my troubles.

"I can truthfully say that there is nothing to equal your Peruna and Manalin. I was a different women after taking the second bottle. It is without a doubt the best medicine in the world. Language fails to express my gratitude for this cure. May God bless you."—Mrs. D. W. Mason.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

MAKE NERVOUS, WEAK, DISEASED MEN.

THE RESULT of ignorance and folly in youth, overexertion of mind and body induced by lust and exposure are constantly wrecking the lives and future happiness of thousands of promising young men. Some fade and wither at an early age, at the blossom of manhood, while others are forced to drag out a weary, fruitless and melancholy existence. Others reach matrimony but find no solace or comfort there. The victims are found in all stations of life—the farm, the office, the workshop, the pulpit, the trades and the professions. Nervous Debility and Seminal Weakness are guaranteed cured by our New Method Treatment or No Pay. You run no risk. 25 years in Ohio. Bank security.

"I am 33 years of age and married. When young I led a gay life. Early indiscretions and later excesses made trouble for me. I became weak and nervous. My kidneys became affected and I feared Bright's Disease. Married Life was unsatisfactory and my home unhappy. I tried everything—all failed till I took treatment from Drs. Kennedy & Kergan. Their New Method built me up mentally, physically and sexually. I feel and act like a man in every respect. They treated me six years ago. They are honest, skilful and responsible financially, so why patronize Quacks and Fakirs when you can be cured by reliable doctors."—W. A. Belton.

The decision of Governor Nash and his advisers to make public the provisions of their proposed code bill is certainly a wise one. A matter which interests every village and city in Ohio must receive public discussion, and public attention. There is no need of waiting until the legislature meets to make the provisions of the bill known and learn what the people of the state think of them. In the work which has been done the governor has had the assistance of the state bar association and of some of the best trained legal minds in Ohio, as well as men who are familiar with the wants of the cities and the conduct of municipal affairs. The suggestions offered ought therefore to be valuable and helpful to the legislature. The experience of the latter body in the enactment of bills which the supreme court has found unconstitutional should convince the lawmakers that the advice of constitutional lawyers is something needed in their business.

Attention is called to the fact that under the Republican protective tariff millions of workingmen have not only had their wages increased, but their hours of labor reduced since 1897. In many instances the time has been as much as two hours, in other cases only half an hour. It would be a most safe and conservative estimate to assume that at least 5,000,000 workmen throughout the country have gained on an average an hour a day without any corresponding decrease in wages. That is, 5,000,000 hours for 300 working days would be 1,500,000,000 hours, or 534,186 years of 52 weeks each of 54 working hours. Just what this amount of time means in social and domestic happiness is beyond calculation, but there are material benefits as well.

Secretary Shaw, in a recent speech in New Hampshire, uttered a solemn truth when he said that no amount of tariff revision by the Republicans would satisfy the Democrats, who have no policy of their own and are merely watching for opportunities to find fault. In looking the country over nothing substantial can be found in the talk of tariff revision by the present or the next congress. The Democratic party want the tariff ripped up on the general principle that every setback to business improves their political chances, and if they can stir up revisionists among Republicans, so much the better for Democratic purposes. But sensibile Republicans do not walk into Democratic traps.

Recent successful tests of wireless telegraphy in the navies of England, Germany and the United States confirm the statements of the leading electricians and scientists to the effect that marine communication offers a most successful and profitable field for utilizing this remarkable discovery whether it can ever be made of practical service on land or not.

Experiments which have been made in the raising of cotton in Cuba have been so successful as to give promise to the planters of the island of another staple product in addition to sugar and tobacco on which there will be a handsome profit.

One of the "trust issues" which the Democracy is unthinkingly raising is why the Democratic party never did anything to curb the power of the trusts when it had a chance.

Even the Democratic Pittsburg Post is forced to admit that the world moves and that its erstwhile presidential candidate, who still clings to free silver, does not.

OBITUARY

Jacob Hobbs.

Jacob Hobbs, aged 36 years, died at his home in Fairview, W. Va., last night from the effects of a severe attack of cramps. Mr. Hobbs was one of the best known young men in Hancock county and until about a year ago was in business in Chester, where he was very popular. He is survived by a widowed mother, two sisters and six brothers, Mrs. Margaret Allison, Mrs. William Chapman and Charles, Robert, Cyrus, Austin, John and Joseph Hobbs, all of Hancock county. The remains will likely be laid to rest in the Fairview cemetery on Monday.

Joseph Heasley.

Joseph Heasley, one of the staunch farmers of the vicinity of Summitville, is dead. He had been the victim of fever for several weeks. He was in his seventy-ninth year. He owned 160 acres of fine farming land, well stocked and watered, good farm buildings and pleasant home. He was universally liked in the neighborhood in which he resided and had a host of friends. He was the father of four children, John, of Wellsville; Philip, of Cleveland; Joseph, of this city, and Jennie, who lived at home.

Mollifying.

"I am afraid, Bobby," said his mother, "that when I tell your father what a naughty boy you've been he will punish you severely."

"Have you got to tell him?" asked Bobby earnestly.

"Well, mother," said he, "give him a better dinner than usual. You might do that much for me."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Short Cut to Sleep.

"Doctor," said he, "I'm a victim of insomnia. I can't sleep if there's the least noise, such as a cat on the garden wall, for instance."

"This powder will be effective," replied the physician, after compounding a prescription.

"When do I take it, doctor?"

New York, Aug. 16.—The report of the New York Board of Health for the first quarter of the present year shows a decrease of deaths from consumption of 282 as compared with the first three months of last year. Dr. Guilfoyle says: "It is encouraging to note the decrease and indicates that the American bureau of The Hoff Consumption Cure is responsible for the good work."

This bureau is sending Prof. Hoff's literature on the treatment and cure of consumption gratis to all who apply by addressing The American Bureau of The Hoff Cure for Consumption, Third ave. and 10th street, New York City.

Meritless Schemes.

Hundreds of novel advertising schemes that are hatched every day are so evenly meritless that it is almost safe to apply Punch's advice to all of them, "Don't!" Some one tries them all, however, and vast sums of money are sunk in them. There are doubtless cases where they pay, but it would not be hard to show that legitimate advertising would have paid better. The great public holds its open court daily in the newspaper and will hear what any man has to say in behalf of his business provided he can say it well.—Printers' Ink.

Why Ads. Are Read.

An observant person remarks that "the public likes as well to read interesting matter in the advertising columns as in the news columns." There is nothing surprising about this, since the facts which are advertised have a direct personal interest to the public. The advertiser offers to the people only such things as the people need and about the character and prices of which they want information. A persistent advertiser is bound to win the attention of all newspaper readers.—Philadelphia Record.

the governor's code would pass in its present shape. He thinks the popular prejudice against the appointments of the police boards will prevent this. It is believed that Representative Querin's ostensible purpose in giving the clambake is to further his candidacy for the Republican nomination for attorney general.

COUGHED UP BULLET

It Had been Fired into Steubenville Negro's Lungs Years Ago.

Steubenville, Aug. 16.—Eight years ago, "Uncle Tom" Ferris, a well-known colored character was shot by John Jordan, also colored. The ball entered in the upper part of the breast near the shoulder and took a downward course penetrating one of the lungs. After diligent effort to locate it the surgeons concluded it must have lodged near the back, and gave up their efforts to remove it. Meantime, Jordan, who was a railroader, working on the Gould tunnel, was convicted and sent to the penitentiary for shooting with intent to kill. The Circuit court reviewed his case, and concluded as Ferris was the agressor, and the shooting had been in self-defense, that Jordan was improperly convicted and should be given a new trial. He was brought back and afterwards set free.

Meantime and for a number of years succeeding, Uncle Tom had no annoyance from the bullet. But about a year ago he had pneumonia, his lungs began to trouble him, which continued until the doctors thought he surely was a victim of consumption. A few days ago the real cause of his trouble developed in a peculiar manner. Ferris, while bedfast at his home on South Eighth street, and seeming-in the far advanced stages took a severe coughing spell, which lasted for nearly an hour, and did not cease until he had coughed up some hard substance, which upon examination was found to be the 38-calibre cartridge which had been fired into his lung eight years ago. Ferris' condition has begun to improve, and it is thought he will now sure recover.

CLEVELAND'S DESTRUCTION

Cleveland, Aug. 16.—There is a prophet here named Snyder that predicted that this city was to be destroyed by a deluge on Wednesday. The city still stands, but Snyder badly scared a number of ignorant people.

A dispatch from Akron says: About 200 negroes, Syrians, Italians and others came to Akron to escape death in the prophesied destruction of Cleveland. In one house at High and Furnace streets about 100 refuges, principally negroes, were gathered today. Some came last night, others this morning. A few joked about the prophesy that Cleveland was to be destroyed, but others spoke most seriously of the prediction of Snyder. About half those who came here had disposed of their earthy belongings for cash and a part of them expect never to return to their former homes. Although the larger number of those who arrived here on the A. B. & C. cars remained in Akron, many went to friends in Canton.

WELLSVILLE

LAWSUIT LIKELY

Chairman Howard T. Weaver, of the building committee of council, stated last evening that the check of the Columbiana County Telephone company for $30 referred to in last evening's issue of this paper was not accepted by council and nothing but $15 per month will be accepted. The $30 check is for July, August and September.

Mr. Weaver states that the telephone company will either have to pay the increase asked for or else vacate the room in the city building which they occupy for their exchange. It is said that the lease existing between the former council and the said said company is illegal, no bids having been called in. The matter will probably terminate in a law suit of the city versus the company.

A GREAT INVENTION

Designed to Save Water Has Been Devised by a Wellsville Man.

Samples of W. L. Fogo and C. C. Ewing's new invention for flush tanks have been sent to New Castle and Youngstown and if they answer the requirements these two gentlemen will get the contract to supply both owns with the flush tank feeders. It is claimed to be a great invention and to save enough water within a few months to pay for itself.

Messrs. Fogo and Ewing have made a contract with this city and the city of Toledo and as soonas they establish a plant in this city they will be able to supply the demand for the very necessary article. Until that time the invention will be manufactured in Pittsburg.

Next Re-union at Wellsville.

The re-union of the 104th O. V. I. was held at Massillon Wednesday. The next re-union will be held at Wellsville the second Wednesday and Thursday in August, 1903. Next year's officers of the association are Gen. J. W. Reilly, president; G. G. Cope, secretary, all residing in Wellsville; vice president; Thomas Butler, secretary. Thes officers all reside in Wellsville. Jacob Lawrence of North Lawrence is treasurer. Roll call showed eighteen deaths since last re-union.

Coaching Bunting.

Frank Geisse and Samuel Brubaker, both backers of "Skinny" Bunting, went to Pittsburg yesterday to call on Bunting at his training headquarters at the Southside Athletic club. Both are carefully watching Bunting's work and occasionally giving him pointers where they think it necessary. Bunting is now within a pound or so of the fighting weight and it will be an easy matter to pull down a few more pounds.

Under a Doctor's Care.

Miss Mary Hays, of Commerce street, recently had a gold ring filed off her finger by her father. The ring had been worn for a number of years and was becoming tight. In the work her finger was accidentally cut by the file and soon afterward a sore developed. She is now under a physician's care and blood poisoning may set in.

Intended to Purchase.

A prominent real estate dealer of Bellaire was in this city yesterday looking over several pieces of valuable land here. He intends to purchase some of the property and build several new houses thereon. A. C. Fogo had the gentleman in tow and showed him several pieces of land that are on sale.

Broken Pump Repaired.

Notice was recently given by the water works trustees asking that the water consumers be as economical as possible with the water, as one of the pumps was broken and the other one would be unable to supply the demand throughout the city. The pump has been repaired and cleaned out and is now being used again.

Got a Severe Bruise.

Samuel S. Thorn, of Coal street, had his right leg badly bruised yesterday afternoon. He was engaged at the time doing carpenter work on a new barn when a large piece of timber fell on his leg and crushed it, but broke no bones. He was brought home in a buggy. He will be unable to work for a week or so.

Preparing to Pave.

Contractor C. A. Freshwater started work this morning on placing the curbing on Liverpool street, preparatory to paving it. The paving work will probobly be completed within a week or so.

The twenty-fifth annual reunion of the Ninety-eighth O. V. I. will be held at Steubenville August 28. Many old soldiers from this city who have received invitations, will attend.

Edward Bunting returned yesterday afternoon from an extended trip to the Adirondack mountains and Atlantic City.

Mrs. Hutchinson, of Eleventh street, was called to St. Clairsville yesterday on account of the death of her father.

"Doc" Marshall, of Hanoverton, passed through the city yesterday en route to Pittsburg on business. He is well known here.

Miss Edith Morrow, who has been visiting relatives in this city for the past few days, has returned to her home in Pittsburg.

The household goods of Dr. Duncan, of this city, have been shipped to Blairsville, Pa., where the doctor and his family will reside.

Miss Lillie Brown, of this city, who has been visiting friends in Wheeling for the past few weeks, returned last evening on the Steamer Virginia.

Rev. Wm. Rutherford, of Washington, Pa., will conduct all of the services tomorrow at the Second Presbyterian church on Eighteenth street.

Miss Amanda Johnston, of Ninth street, will leave today for Angola, N. Y., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. John Lyth, who formerly resided here.

W. H. Morgan, a clerk in the Third street freight station, left yesterday for Mingo, where he has been assigned to do some special work for the railroad company.

Mrs. Alice Smith and three children, who have been visiting relatives in this city for the past few days, returned to their home in New Cumberland last evening.

Mrs. Charles Carpenter, who has been visiting her parents in this city, returned last evening to her home in Pittsburg. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Aughinbaugh.

A slight change of positions will be made at the shops Monday evening. Howard T. Weaver, who has been a machinist there for some time, will be promoted to assistant gang foreman and an extra man will be put in his place.

Seven Trainloads of People Are Enjoying Themselves at the Park.

The immense crowd expected by the park management today began to arrive in Chester and East Liverpool at 10 o'clock this morning. It was almost noon before all of the seven sections of cars had been unloaded and the people deposited at the park. Every facility was taxed to its utmost capacity for upwards of two hours. It is estimated that fully 18,000 American Mechanics and their friends are in attendance.

Three of the trains came in by way of the New Cumberland branch, having left Pittsburg on the Panhandle. The remainder of the seven sections and those arriving first came on the C. & P. On the early Panhandle train this morning a number of New Cumberland Mechanics arrived, and not a few from East Liverpool and Chester were at the park during the afternoon.

GOOD FOR 10 BARRELS

The oil well on the Kinney farm owned by the Line Island Oil and Gas company, which came in this week, was shot yesterday and gives promise of being a good producer. The well filled up 400 feet in less than two hours, and the owners think it will be good for at least ten barrels a day.

The company is making preparations to drill another well at once, and work will be started early next week. The new well will be in close proximity to the one already in.

Novel Entertainment.

At the home of A. E. McDonald south of Chester, Thursday evening, a novel entertainment was held in the shape of a corn bake. A most enjoyable evening was spent in various amusements. A number of guests were present from Wellsville and other points, among them being Miss Carrie Mahan, Steubenville; Fred. H. and Miss Leah Porter, Misses Ada and Lou Riggs and Rev. Mr. Edwards, Wellsville.

Water Line Finished.

The water line on Louisana avenue, which has been in course of construction for several weeks, will be completed today. The line is about 1,600 feet in length and required a great deal of work.

CHESTER NOTES.

Wilby Govey, of Fairview, was in Chester yesterday calling on friends.

Mrs. William Philpot has begun the erection of a new residence on Louisiana avenue.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT

Facilities for Doing Business in Perfect Manner Are Unmlimited.

A deal of more than the usual importance was this week consummated in Chester when the old established grocery firm of O. O. Allison was made still more stable by the association of Robert Hobbs, of East Liverpool, with the concern.

Mr. Hobbs is a thoroughly practica merchant, having been connected with one of the pricinpal grocery houses of East Liverpool for a number of years. O. O. Allison, who disposes of half interest, has been in business in Chester for over four years, and has by perseverance and a strict application to the details of his business, succeeded in establishing an enterprise of which his own community feels justly proud.

The new firm will be so situated that they will be able to cater to the needs of the public in a manner even more acceptable than ever before. It will be their aim to carry a stock that cannot but please, and the wishes and demands of the patrons will receive prompt and careful attention at all times. 193-h

Cowardly Crime Attempted.

A dastardly attempt was made by boys one week ago yesterday to assault the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Davis, who resides in a small but respectable home on Oak street. No complaint of the affair has been made to the police, and the only chastisement resulting from the affair was the whipping of a son by his father, and keeping him in the house since the affair became known.

The English Navy.

In the earliest times of the British navy there was practically no distinction between the merchantman and the man-of-war. In the rare times of peace men-of-war traded as merchantmen, while merchantmen always went armed. Thus in time of war the trader became the warship and vice versa. From the time of the conquest and probably earlier down to the days of Elizabeth this was the ordinary practice. Elizabeth hired out ships of the navy for all sorts of purposes, from piracy to slave trading, taking her share of the profits when the venture was successful and disclaiming all responsibility when it wasn't.

Henry III., who may be described as the originator of the navy as a special fighting force, hired out the ships specially built for the navy in times of peace and even allowed them to be taken away from their appointed stations provided that the hirers deposited due security for the return of the ships with their tackle and all equipment in a proper state of efficiency. The practice ceased after the repulse of the Spanish armada, when the fighting ship, as such, became distinct from the trader.—London Globe.

The word "stove," as applied to a heater for a room, seems to be of about the same age as the article to which the name is now applied, for while the word as a name had an existence in early English it was used in a different sense.

Both Lord Bacon and Woodward used it as referring to a house or room artificially warmed and particularly a hothouse for plants. Bacon also used the word as a verb in the way of keeping warm in a house or room, as "to stove orange trees and myrtles," to quote from his writings. Pepys used the verb in a nautical sense, as heating for the purpose of making pliable, as "stove bolt ropes."

But all these definitions are obsolete now, such disuse dating from the time when Dr. Franklin made his discoveries and applications. The French word "etuve," it may be added, describes a hothouse or bathing room, and hence is parallel in meaning with the early English word.

Devotion.

"Are you sure you love me for myself alone?" said the heiress.

"Yes," answered the blunt but sincere young man. "I love you in spite of your superior fortune. I am willing to marry you and take chances on being bullied by reminders of it."—Washington Star.

TRADE PROSPECTS IMPROVED.

Prospects have greatly improved through the adjustment of numerous labor controversies, yet the anthracite coal strike situation is unchanged and supplies are nearing depletion. Distribution of merchandise has met with some interruption, owing to freight blockades, the volume of business being very heavy.

Statistics of pig iron production on Aug. 1, according to The Iron Age, are more satisfactory than might have been expected in view of the great scarcity of fuel. A weekly capacity of 336,465 tons is 15,599 tons less than the high record of May 1, it is true, but compares favorably with all earlier dates, and shows an increase of 32,618 tons over the output a year ago. These figures by no means suggest a serious setback in the industry, but rather emphasize the abnormal condition of demand, which finds such a heavy yield entirely inadequate. Southern furnaces have contracted so far in advance that they have practically withdrawn from the market, and all dates for deliveries are remote, except where foreign arrivals are offered. Pressure for steel is undiminished, and the urgency of domestic consumers is shown by additional imports of large size. Structoral material is sought by car shops and bridge builders, while many office buildings and other steel structures are planned. Coke production in the Connellsville region exceeds 250,000 tons weekly and outside ovens are also surpassing all records of activity. Yet shipments are unsatisfactory, causing frequent delays.

Solicitude Over Possible Stringency Evident, Yesterday.

New York, Aug. 16.—The solicitude felt over the possible stringency of money was exemplified by the effect upon the stock market of a flurry in the call money rate to 6 per cent. The fact that stock exchange loans made on Friday carry over until the following Monday makes the customary demand on Friday somewhat more urgent than on other days. The special cause offered to explain yesterday's sharp advance was the maturity of subscriptions for the new Oregon Short Line collateral bonds, secured by deposit of Northern Securities stock. The payment called for about $15,000,000 and necessitated considerable shifting of loans to meet the requirement. The rate dropped back to near 4 per cent near the close, after the demand had been satisfied. There have been a number of other syndicate operations during the week, which may upset calculations as to the bank statement today. Among these were the payment of subscriptions to the United States Shipbuilding company, the payment of dividend to the United States Steel underwriting syndicate, and the dividend on United States Steel preferred, payable yesterday. So far as the indicated cash changes promise, today's bank statement will not be unfavorable. The movement of currency with the interior seems to be in favor of New York still, the receipts on balance during the week amounting to $1,500,000, against the loss to the sub-treasury of $633,000. New York exchange at Chicago fell to par yesterday, compared with 10 cents premius on Thursday and 20 cents premium on Wednesday.

SLANG CANDY.

What Has Happened to Old Sentimental Inscriptions.

"It takes a vigilant and determined person to stay clear of slang these days," remarked a man who likes to study the signs of the time. "We have slang novels, slang plays and slang art of various kinds.

"The latest slang manifestation, however, is slang candy. Haven't you seen it? It is on sale at many candy stands. Do you remember the old fashioned, flat, scalloped, diamond or heart shaped candy lozenge, ornamented with sentimental words, such as 'Sweetheart,' 'My Own True Love,' 'Faithful to Thee,' 'Ever Thine,' and so on? We used to pass these complimentary lozenges around at little gatherings when I was young, and much harmless but deeply fervent lovemaking was carried on by means of such simple tokens.

"The pink and white candy lozenge of the present day, however, is a degenerate. It is much smaller in size, although still scalloped, and the phrases stamped on its surface are below the dignity of genteel members of the lozenge family. The words you read now on the candy lozenge are as follows: 'That's What,' 'My Best Girl,' 'Rubberneck,' 'Move On,' 'Sure,' 'Bat Them Out,' 'My Size,' 'Do You Bike?' 'Gee Whiz!' 'My Baby Lou,' 'Guess Not,' 'Just So,' 'Come Again,' 'That Face!' and so on."

"How curious!" commented the man who was listening. "We live in a slang age, don't we?"

"Sure!" answered the man who was down on slang, and then with a suddenly reddened face he began to talk about seventeen year locusts.—Detroit Free Press.

A Story of Charles Reade.

And East Liverpool Could Have Run the Score Up ad Libitum If It Had Seen Fit—Some Very Amusing Features of the Game.

"Lengthy" Vasbinder, farmed recently by the Cleveland American league team, but who is now on Manager Walsh's salaried team of semi-professionals, was the whole show in West End park yesterday afternoon.

Of course there were 17 others in the game and some of them were a little conspicuous, but when it came to doing the real stunts Vassie was the man. That collection from the mammoth Westinghouse electrical works of Pittsburg looked like bad coin to him. Their pitcher was the funniest freak that he had witnessed for years.

Every ball that the youngster would toss toward the plate the newcomer would tap just to see the fielders run. And upon two occasions he made men run for fair. Out in the tall timbers the ball came down with the left fielder in close pursuit, but not close enough to keep the "batter out" from advancing to base No. 3. At intervals he would let up on his baby playing with the pitcher and turn on Smithy, the auburn haired catcher. Reddy could not stand the looks and showed fight plainly from beneath the curly locks which ornament his forehead, but he would cool off suddenly and make the best of the situation.

Following an error made by most players there is an outburst of hisses and cries of "Put him out," "Get another man," "He is no good." There was an exception, however, when Chick made a play that the scorer could only credit as an error. It was in the third inning. O'Leary came to bat and landed on one unmercifully, sending it high into right field. Vasbinder was playing in too far to connect with it and Chick saw that if the ball was caught it was up to him to do the work. He started on the long run and much to the surprise of all reached the ball before it touched the ground. He not only reached it but clasped it tightly, only to let the coveted little sphere drop. But not until he had fallen over that ditch, an eyesore. Had he held on to the ball he would carry the honors for catching the hardest fielded ball ever grasped in this city. For making such an effort he was loudly applauded upon his return to the bench.

Of the visiting aggregation no complimentary remarks can be said other than that they are a band of hard hitters and that with company not so fast as the locals, they would put up a pretty game. Smith did the hitting, getting a home run on a ball that got lost in the weeds. They did not have things equal. With the lineup presented by Manager Walsh, teams other than Parkersburg and Wheeling are against the real thing.

From the way the game started the supposition was that the score would not be less than 20 to 7, but a better showing was made. In the second and third minds were not so positive as to the outcome. It was all off again, however, when the sixth inning was reached. Marks tried, but in vain. He was batted high and batted low. It made little difference where. None of them were slow enough to warrant fielding. Like cannon balls they sped through the diamond and fields and seldom ever met an outstretched mit.

Six pretty, but hard hits were made in this inning and as many runs. What could the visitors do then? They were helpless and had the locals so desired the score could, in this inning, have reached possibly 14. Heckathorn got tired of the awful onslaught and retired the side by striking out.

FAMILIAR SNAKES

THEY RUN ABOUT PEOPLE'S HOUSES NEAR SALINEVILLE.

One Attacks a Couple on a Porch And Another Entwines a Fruit Jar.

Salineville, August 16. — While Thomas Earl and wife, of Fox township, near here, were preparing beans and corn for their noonday meal on the porch of their home they experienced a most unpleasant surprise. Mr. Earl was sitting with his back to his wife when he heard her scream. Suddenly with the head erect and forked tongue darting in and out, a huge black snake, about four feet long, made a dash for the lady. But in jumping from the spouting on the porch the snake became entangled in the vines around the porch.

When the husband heard his wife scream he turned around and saw the ugly reptile fall to the ground. He instantly rushed to the outer yard for a weapon, but when he returned the snake had made his escape. The lady was so frightened that it was some time before she recovered. It is supposed that the snake had climbed up the vines and had been sunning itself for some time on the roof of the house. A threatening storm had aroused its viciousness.

While Mrs. J. W. Johnson, of Mechanicstown, was preparing a meal she had occasion to go to the cellar for some fruit. As she was coming from the cellar she reached up on the shelf where she had her fruit stored to get a jar of fruit for the coming meal. Imagine her surprise when she laid her hand on a cold, clammy snake, snugly wrapped around the fruit jar. The snake offered no resistance, but the woman very promptly dropped what she had and immediately made her exit from the cellar to the outdoors. She was so frightened that it was some time before she was able to tell her neighbors what had happened. Soon a party was organized to hunt the reptile which had made its abode in the family cellar. But no trace was found. From the statement it must have been about five feet long and perhaps as thick as an ordinary ball bat at the small end.

A Good Hearted Man,

or in other words, men with good sound hearts, are not very numerous. The increasing number of sudden deaths from heart disease daily chronicled by the press, is proof of the alarming prevalence of this dangerous complaint, and as no one can foretell just when a fatal collapse will occur, the danger of neglecting treatment is certainly a very risky matter. If you are short of breath, have pain in left side, smothering spells, palpitation, unable to lie on side, especially the left, you should begin taking

ATTEMPT MADE UPON LIFE OF PENNSYLVANIAN.

Infernal Machine Sent—Failed to Explode—Plot Revealed by Letters.

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—An attempt upon the life of Robert E. Pattison, former governor of the state of Pennsylvania, and at present the Democratic nominee for the same office, was made in this city, the information just now coming to light, according to The North American.

The infernal machine, containing several pounds of gunpowder in a concentrated and highly powerful form, was sent to Mr. Pattison by express.

The sender of the package had neglected to place the means of ignition in the parcel, trusting to circumstances for the working out of his plan. The senders of the package are under surveillance and arrests are expected within a few hours.

A test of the strength of the powder was made at the League Island navy yard by Captain Delano, ordnance officer. He declared positively that it was powder of the same character as that which is stored at Ft. Mifflin, and he said that there was a possibility that it might have been secured at that place.

The first intimation that there was a plot under way was gleaned from an anonymous letter received by the Philadelphia North American. The letter said:

"There are rumors that a downtown gang are sending an infernal machine to Governor Pattison. Do you know anything about it?"

A second anonymous letter was received. It urged immediate action on the part of the paper, and the outline of the plot was given. The package, the anonymous writer said, had been mailed from the Bingham house, Philadelphia, addressed to Governor Pattison, and marked "Ore samples."

The information leaked out because the sender became intoxicated and talked too much. The writer said that the package had been mailed Tuesday night or Wednesday morning, and there was a possibility that it had been stopped in time by the postoffice authorities.

The history of the receipt of the package by Governor Pattison is short. He took it with a quantity of other mail delivered to him at the postoffice. He noted that it was marked "Ore samples," and when he reached his office he tossed it aside for later consideration.

Forced Non-Unionists to Stop Work.

Thurmond, W. Va., Aug. 16.—One hundred or more non-union men are arriving in the New River coal fields daily to take the places of strikers. At the Rend mines a great demonstration was made yesterday. Several hundred strikers, heavily armed, marched to the mine and forced 60 non-unionists to abandon work. Deputy marshals were powerless and trouble is imminent.

LIFE PLANT

The Great Vegetable Medicine Will Cure You.

In LIFE PLANT we have a sure and certain cure for all diseases caused by impure blood.

The first thing for good health is to keep the stomach in a good condition. When the stomach is diseased, the food eaten is not digested properly and the body loses strength and vigor naturally. The loss of strength makes you weak until you lose your energy and vitality. LIFE PLANT cures all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs, enabling a perfect digestion of food, making the body strong in a way it should be. LIFE PLANT contains no minerals or opiates, which stop the pain for a short time. It is purely vegetable, and when taken according to directions positively cures all diseases of the stomach, bowels, etc.

Mr. Frederick Dubaugh, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, writes:
Life Plant Co.,

Messrs:—I was attacked last August with a very serious and painful form of stomach trouble which gave me no rest by day and very little sleep at night. I used numerous remedies without any beneficial results. I was in constant misery with pain in stomach, which was increased, even by a slight pressure. For months I could not take any kind of food without suffering severe pain. This condition continued until I commenced the use of LIFE PLANT. I have taken six bottles and am now a well man, can do a full day's work, eat all kinds of food and feel no inconvenience. Yours, etc.

President Orders Names of Privates Dying In Philippines to Be Cabled Oftener.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 16.—The president yesterday gave orders that hereafter the names of the enlisted men of the army who die in the Philippines be cabled to this country once in every two weeks. When the volunteer army was in the archipelago it was the custom to cable the casualties, but on the withdrawal of that army the practice was discontinued.

The subject was discussed while the president was entertaining a number of visitors at luncheon yesterday.

CHINESE OFFICIALS CROOKED.

Accused of Filling Their Pockets From Taxes Collected.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The state department has received two interesting Chinese proclamations, one an imperial edict issued from the throne, concerning the raising of the war indemnity, and the other by Governor Yuan, viceroy of Chi-li, ordering the people to stop carrying weapons and to guard against a repetition of the Boxer trouble. The documents are not only curious, but they are important as showing some of the results of the war.

The imperial edict discloses that China is seeking to devise a plan for meeting the war indemnity, and is fearful that the heavy tax on the people will oppress them to further disorder. The edict also accuses the Chinese officials of "filling their own pockets" with the sums taken from the people.

Railroads In Bitter Fight.

Pittsburg, Aug. 16.—Two hundred railroad laborers, armed with pick handles and heavy clubs, and protected by a trench and strong barricade, remained on guard all last night, at South First street, awaiting the advance of several hundred Pittsburg and Lake Erie workmen who started to bar the entrance of the Wabash road to the Southside by laying tracks across the route over which the Wabash proposes to run, near the Panhandle bridge.

Killed at Mountain Lake Park.

Cumberland, Md., Aug. 16.—Captain H. Hillard, of St. Louis, was struck by a Baltimore and Ohio passenger train at Mountain Lake Park Thursday evening, sustaining a fracture at the back of the skull, which caused his death several hours later. He was spending the summer at the Hotel Chautauqua.

SOLDIERS TO ARMS.

A MAN THROWN INTO CREEK

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 16.—There was an outbreak last night right under the noses of the troops in camp, and for a time it looked as though serious trouble would occur. The disorder was the result of a mob chasing an alleged unfair workman near the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company's washery, in the southeastern part of the town. There were 50 or 60 men in the mob. As they chased the man up the railroad, throwing stones at him, the night watchman at the washery, named Anthony Flinn, tried to rescue the man. The watchman was promptly thrown into the creek running parallel with the railroad by some of those leading in the chase.

The crowd kept after the workman and he ran to the Reading railroad station, where a company of infantry was on provost duty. The company was immediately called into formation and attempted to hold the crowd back. The captain of the company exercised great patience with the crowd and prevented any serious trouble. The mob caused a large crowd to gather from all directions and word was immediately sent to camp for reinforcements. In nine minutes the entire Twelfth regiment and a battalion of the Eighth were on the scene. The crowd quickly scattered and three men, John Howe, Frederick Zimmerman and Matthew Bronz, who are alleged to have been participants in the assault on the watchman and the workman, were arrested and taken to the town lockup. The troops were kept in the streets until a late hour last night.

POLICE HELD UNDER BAIL.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 16.—The 24 coal and iron policemen and armed workmen of the Warnke colliery, who were arrested for participation in Thursday's affray at Duryea, were brought before Judge Halsey here, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and charged by Prosecuting Attorney Frank A. Guigan with inciting to riot and felonious assault.

John P. Lenahan, who appeared for the defendants, moved for the discharge of the prisoners, but Judge Halsey held them for examination at 10 o'clock next Monday, on temporary bail of $10,000. The bail was furnished by a man who did not wish his name divulged, but who is known to be connected with a large coal-carrying company. The men were released. Sheriff Jacobs telephoned here yesterday that if Frederick Warnke attempted to start his washery again, he would be compelled to ask for troops.

Advices from Duryea indicated that the feeling there against the Warnke washery was increasing as a result of Thursday's fight and that trouble will occur on the least provocation. It is further stated that the Warnke men are determined on a resumption of work soon.

Senator Quay telegraphed from Atlantic City to the chairman of the Public Alliance, of this city, that he is still under the doctor's care, but that he will be glad to see a committee from the alliance any time they call upon him at his cottage at Atlantic City. The alliance wants Senators Quay and Penrose to use their influence with the coal operators to have them consent to arbitrate the strike.

A Lithunian striker was arrested in Plymouth township last night, charged with being one of the party that shot George Sullivan, a Polander, employed in fighting fire at the Jersey mine. Two shots from ambush were fired at Sullivan, one of the bullets striking him in the leg and inflicting a slight wound.

MANY STORES BURNED.

Hamilton, O., Aug. 16.—One of the most disastrous fires in the history of the city originated Thursday night at 11 o'clock in the basement of the large dry goods and carpet store of T. V. Howell & Son, High street. In a short time the interior of the Howell block was a mass of flames, and burned briskly until the fire communicated with the Second National bank building, burning out the rear second and third floors and the front third floor.

The Mehrum block, next door, was also damaged, and the carpet store of Creighton and Hooven was drenched with water. The fire department was unable to control the fire, which burned until 4 o'clock. The damage to Howell will reach over $175,000; Holbrook Bros., in the Mehrum block, $10,000; bank building, $30,000, with other smaller losses.

A CONTRAST

Of the face of a healthful woman with the face of one who is sick proves that quite often a sad face is a sick face. Many a woman has credit for a sunny disposition who would soon be sad of face and irritable of temper if she had to endure the womanly ills which many of her sex have borne for years.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases which are the source of so much pain and suffering to women. It establishes regularity, dries debilitating drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Cornelia Henson, of Coalton, Boyd Co., Ky., writes: "In October 1889 I gave birth to a baby and the treatment I received at the hands of the midwife left me with falling of the uterus. I had no health to speak of for three years. I had another baby which was the third child. My health began to fail and I found myself completely worn out. I had so many pains and aches my life was a burden to me and also to all the family, for I was nervous and cross and I could not sleep. Had four doctors come to see me but at last found I was slowly dying. The doctors said I had liver, lung and uterine trouble. I was in bed for months and when I did get up I was a sight to behold. I looked like a corpse walking about. I commenced to take Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets,' and ever since then I have been a well woman. I have suffered all a woman could suffer at my monthly period until since I began the use of Dr. Pierce's medicines, but now I can say I have no pain. The dark circles around my eyes are going away and I feel better in every way. My cheeks are red and my skin is white, but before it was as yellow as saffron."

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription" there is nothing just as good for weak and sick women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are easy and pleasant to take. A most effective laxative.

DISTRIBUTION OF FAIR ESTATE.

Relatives of Dead Woman to Go to San Francisco to Secure Their Share.

New York, Aug. 16.—The Evening World said yesterday that Mrs. Anna E. Nelson, mother of the late Mrs. Charles Fair, accompanied by her son, A. G. Nelson, a half-brother of the late Mrs. Fair, will leave their home at Newmarket, N. J., on Sunday for San Francisco, where they will employ lawyers to represent them in the distribution of the Fair estate. The paper adds that the trip is made at the instigation of George Harvey, of San Francisco, who had telegraphed Mrs. Nelson to come immediately.

The paper also quotes Edward S. Lefler, a real estate dealer of this city, as saying that he and his family would take steps to protect their interests as heirs. Mr. Lefler's mother was a sister of Mrs. Charles Fair. Among Mrs. Fair's heirs, besides her mother, others who live in the east are said to be Mrs. Elizabeth Bunnell, of Union, N. J.; Mrs. Laura Leonard, of Caldwell, N. J.; William B. Smith, of Newmarket, N. J., and a number of members of the Lefler family.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—A question at issue in the Fair estate settlement will be which died first. Mrs. Fair's individual estate amounts to about $350,000.

Paris, Aug. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Fair apparently both died at the same time.

MONEY FOR MISSIONS

Small Catholic Population of England Unable to Develop Distant Missionary Fields Unaided—School Sends Out Many Workers.

London, Aug. 16 — Cardinal Vaughan, archbishop of Westminster has dispatched the Very Rev. Francis Henry, rector of St. Joseph's Missionary college, to the United States and Canada to solicit money for heathen missions. Cardinal Vaughan has also addressed a letter to the archbishops and bishops of the United States, in which he points out that hundreds of missionaries are sent out by St. Joseph's college, but that the small Catholic population of England is unable to develop distant missionary fields unaided.

Sisters Wish to Come to United States

Rome, Aug. 16.—Members of the religious orders expelled from France, especially sisters, are applying to the vatican authorities for permission to settle in the United States. Several of them have come to Rome personally for the purpose of urging their requests. A reply has been sent to them, pointing out that there are no vacancies in the United States, and, besides, calling attention to the difficulty arising from the fact that the expelled sisters do not speak the English language.

Canada has been suggested as a better field, as sisters are comparatively scarce there, and because French is spoken in a large area of the Dominion. The applicants, however, did not take kindly to the suggestion, and persist in their request to go to the United States.

Corrigan's Successor Not Chosen.

Washington, Aug. 16.—It was stated at the papal legation yesterday that owing to the death of the Cardinal Prefect at Rome, and the various formalities necessary to be gone through with, the appointment of a successor to the late Archbishop Corrigan will not be made until late in November, and possibly December. It is said that the matter is being carefully considered, and that while Bishop John M. Farley was strongly urged for the appointment there are two other bishops whose names have been submitted who are regarded as formidable candidates. These latter the officials of the legation declined to designate by name.

Brain Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You may prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get the reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's.

CERTAIN RESULTS

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in East Liverpool. There is plenty of positive proof of this in testimony of citizens, such evidence should convince the most skeptical doubter.

Read the following statement:

Mr. Thomas Laughlin, of 172 Sophia street, engineer, says: "I caught cold and neglected it. It settled in my back and kidneys. Forced me to quit work and almost cost me my life. I could not move without suffering, and often could neither sit, stand or lie for pain. The secretions of the kidneys went wrong and distressed and annoyed me both night and day. I took medicine for ten years but did not get well. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at the W. & W. Pharmacy. Noticing some improvement by the time I had taken the first half of the box, I continued until I had taken four boxes and my back was all right as well as the urinary trouble. I will substantiate my statement of Doan's Kidney Pills if anyone will come to my house to investigate for themselves. My wife had some backache also; she took Doan's Kidney pills and was cured."

Sold for 50 cents per box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

HUNGRY CROWDS

Simply Taxed Hotels and Restaurants to their Utmost Capacity.

Owing to the big picnic of the Jr. O. U. A. M., of West Virginia and Pennsylvania held at Rock Springs park today local hotels and restaurants simply had so many customers that not more than half could be fed. At the tables and lunch counters sat the hungry visitors while every inch of available standing room was occupied by others patiently awaiting a chance for a seat. Several restaurant proprietors, not anticipating such a crowd, were compelled to turn the people away before one o'clock. The streets were jammed from 10 o'clock until 2 when the people repaired to the park. The need of more hotel accommodations was never before more apparent.

Chief Thompson states that he never saw a more orderly crowd considering the immense number. But a very few were drunk. Two cases were reported to central station of pickpockets getting in their work, but it is thought that the loosers carelessly dropped their wealth in the street and that they were not victimized.

SURPRISED FRIENDS

The friends of Miss Margaret Todd and C. E. Jones got quite a surprise yesterday when word reached the city that the couple had quietly been married on Thursday evening by Rev. Dr. McKinley at Steubenville. Both are highly respected young people and have the best wishes of the entire community. They will reside on College street, where they are now receiving congratulations.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Todd, of Lincoln avenue, and is possessed of many admirable traits. Mr. Jones has lived in the city for two years, his former nome being at Wellsburg. He is in the employ of T. B. Murphy & Son.

CAME HERE TO WED

'Squire McCarron Said the Words That Made a Pittsburg Couple Happy.

Among the throngs from Pittsburg who visited the city and Rock Springs park today was a couple that took in the excursion for but one purpose, that of getting married by an Ohio ustice. They were Miss Anna E. Stille and John M. Thomas. 'Squire H. P. McCarron was chosen to perform the ceremony and he did it in his usual accomplished and satisfactory style.

Mr. Thomas is a photographer and expects to be employed by the government in a few weeks, having secured a commission to do photographing for the forestry surveying corps recently instituted. His bride is a winsome and beautiful young lady.

SOME TRI-STATE EVENTS

By the premature explosion of 36 sticks of dynamite near Elkins, W. Va., Patrick Tabaney, a railroad foreman, lost both arms and received other frightful injuries, but will recover.

At Toledo, O., George S. Clair, an employe of the Malleable Iron works, had both eyes burned out by the bursting of a pot into which he was pouring molten metal.

The National Union of Northwestern Ohio, under the auspices of Lucas County Cabinet, held a monster field day at Walbridge park, near Toledo, which was attended by 40,000 people.

At Toledo, O., the Donovan Wire and Iron works, 505-515 Water street, was damaged $7,000 by fire.

The board of Ohio penitentiary managers paroled Patrick Grady, serving 15 years, from Hamilton county, O., for shotting to kill. All other applications were rejected.

At Cambridge, O., the plant of the Cambridge Brick and Tile company was burned. Loss, $12,000; partly covered by insurance.

At Marietta, O., Everett Rowland, aged 25 and unmarried, was fatally shot by the accidental discharge of a gun.

John Ruskosky, of No. 5 Seventh street, Braddock, Pa., was held for the murder of his 7-weeks-old daughter, Annie, at the inquest held by Coroner Jesse M. McGeary. Ruskosky was arrested and committed to jail on a coroner's commitment Aug. 12, it being alleged that on Aug. 9 he took his child by the heels and struck its head against the bed because the crying of the little one annoyed him.

William Heidenrich, aged about 40 years, was found dead on Lowry street, Reserve township, near Allegheny City, Pa. He had a big gash in his forehead. The police are working on the case. It is not known whether he met with foul play or not.

Frank McCullough, the ex-policeman, who shot William E. Dunn, of 21 Haldane street, in a drunken row on Third avenue, Pittsburg, was charged by Police Captain Charles Gallant with felonious shooting and was committed to jail without bail to await the result of the wound he inflicted. Dunn is at the Homeopathic hospital and his wound is of the same nature as that which caused the death of Moore, the colored man shot by Policeman Riley in Water street. The chances are against his getting well.

Another effort may be made by the American Tinplate company to have the Amalgamated association reconsider the stand which it has taken against any concession in the matter of wages at a conference of the officials of the company and the tinplate wage committee of the association, to be held in New York soon. The members of the committee have not been appointed by President T. J. Shaffer, tut it is admitted at the headquarters of the association that such a conference will take place shortly.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

A Son Born—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Fickes, Lisbon street, this morning.

Allegheny Couple Married. — Miss Marcella S. Hart and Philip Schweitzer, both of Allegheny, were married this afternoon by Squire McLane.

Pleasantly Entertained.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Winkle, of Pleasant street, entertained last evening in honor of the latter's cousin, Miss Joan Winkle, St. Louis, Mo. Music was a feature.

The Hunting Was Good—City Clerk Davidson and Dr. Jackman spent yesterday in the woods squirrel hunting. Willis says that the entire time was spent in hunting, not a squirrel being impudent enough to get in their way.

Masons Enjoyed Themselves—The Masonic picnic held at Rock Springs park yesterday afternoon and evening was not the success that was anticipated. The cause was the threatening weather. There were, however, quite a number present and all reported an enjoyable time.

Surprise Party—A most enjoyable surprise party was tendered Mrs. J. M. Arbuthnot at her home, Bradshaw avenue, last evening by a large number of her friends. They arrived early in the evening and spent several hours in music, games and other amusements, after which all were seated to a delightful collation.

Watching for a Runaway Boy—Chief Thompson received a telephone message from Mrs. John Johnston, of Gallipolis, last evening asking that he watch all upriver boats for her boy Harry, who ran away from home several days ago. The lad had intimated that he was coming to East Liverpool and the anxious mother wants him returned to her if apprehended. The chief has not been able to locate him, but will watch as requested.

MACCABEES' MEETING

An excellent meeting was held last evening by Crockery City Tent No. 131, Knights of the Maccabees. Several applications for membership were presented, and at the next meeting new candidates will be initiated. The degree team of the tent is hard at work preparing for its coming task at Wellsville. A lodge is being formed at Wellsville by District Deputy Carouthers, of Steubenville, and although he has been soliciting members but a short time, a large list has been obtained. It is expected this tent will be instituted on the evening of September 2, or possibly sooner if a desirable hall can be obtained.

After the meeting of the local tent last evening, the members ajourned to a cafe where ice cream and cake were served.

With the formation of a golf club, which was done at a meeting held recently in the office of Charles Macrum, actuary of the East Liverpool Potteries company, every line of sport known to the sporting and fun loving elements of the United States is represented in this city. Ping pong until now has been the fad, especially so among society circles, but it as well as foot ball, base ball, tennis and everything of the sort will be relegated to a minor place until the latest sport, old to thousands, but quite new to most people of the Crockery city, has worn out.

Much time and labor has been consumed in the formation of the club. Although the officers, Charles E. Macrum, president; Edwin M. Knowles, vice president, and Harry T. Hall, secretary and treasurer, have been at the head of the work, numerous others, among whom is Secretary M. C. Wright, of the Y. M. C. A., have done quite a good deal toward helping the project along.

Numerous committees have been appointed to look after the many important features incident to the permanent organization and all are putting forth their best efforts to make the sport one to be enjoyed by all who participate and also those who will witness the performance. The membership is limited and the list has been filled. Quite a number who have handed in applications for membership will be given a chance at the earliest opportunity.

The grounds selected and leased by the organization cover nearly 30 acres, located near Thompson park and in a truly picturesque locality, admirably adopted to the purpose for which they are to be used. Workmen have been contracted with to clear the grounds and have them in shape for the games within two weeks.

The members of the team already accepted are anticipating great amusement in the sport this fall, but do not count much on becoming experts before next spring. They, however, have hopes that they will become proficient to such an extent that they will not feel backward in playing with foreign teams before bad weather sets in. Each member has ordered his playing equipment, and none but the best will be used. It is expected that everything will arrive not later than the latter part of the week.

A charter has been applied for by the organization, and the name has been partially decided upon, but the officers are not as yet fully determined upon that point and withhold the names under consideration for the present.

CHARLES E. MACRUM,
President of the Golf Club.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, August 16.—Yielding to requests which have poured in from all parts of the state, Governor Nash has decided to give out to the public an abstract of the provisions of the proposed municipal code bill which has been drawn under his direction. The press of the state will be furnished copies of it not later than Monday.

In taking this step the governor is also actuated by a wish to give the citizens an opportunity of analyzing and studying the measure before i goes to the general assembly. He thinks that he has been the target of unjust criticism because of his secrecy as to what the code contains, and pleads that it was due to the fact that it was in such an unfinished state that he would not sanction giving out information about it.

The state bar committee has compited its revision of the code and has left the city. The features which the committee did not approve are set forth in its report to the governor, who may or may not accept them, according to his pleasure.

Disquieting reports come from from the gathering at Representative Querin's clambake at Sandusky. They indicate that the majority of those present are opposed to the clause giving to the governor of Unio the power to appoint police boards, declaring this would be in violation of the principle of home rule. The members from the rural districts also showed hostility to the placing of the line of demarkation between cities and villages at 10,000, and it will not be surprising if they take a firm stand for a lower figure for the dividing line.

When Senators Longworth and Connell arrived at the clambake they were at once surrounded by members who were anxious to learn something authoritative about the administration code and who had hoped that they might have it in their possession. They were disappointed at learning that that much-coveted instrument was still nestling secure, undefiled by public gaze, in the hands of the governor. They vouchsafed the information, though, that copies of it would be sent to the members, Republicans and Democrats, the latter part of next week.

Lieutenant Governor Gordan, who was present at the gathering, is reported as saying that he had no idea

Most Favored And Can Have the Nomination If He Wants It—Republicans Not a Bit Concerned And Confident of Electing Kennedy.

That there will be a labor candidate in the field for Congress from the Eighteenth district this fall there is now no doubt. And what is more, the indications are he will be from East Liverpool.

The Democrats of the district for once at least have been far-sighted enough to see where they can profit in a measure by this sentiment on the part of the unionists, and from the present outlook that party will name the man.

More activity has been noted in the ranks of the Democracy recently than for several years, and it now develops that there is a very good reason for this. A prominent local member of the party said today:

"There is nothing to prevent the Democratic party from electing a congressman in this district, and we are going to make a hard fight for it. There will be no opposition from either Columbiana or Mahoning to the name which the East Liverpool delegation will present and he will be a labor man, too. The Democratic party has elected a congressman in '72, '82, 92 and we will positively name the man in 1902.

"The name is not a new one by any means. The work has been done quietly to the present, but now that we are sure of our ground there is no longer reason for secrecy. T. J. Duffy, National Secretary of the N. B. of O. P., is our man and he will win.

"Mr. Duffy is one of the brightest young men in the Eighteenth district, and the very fact that he is not a Republican will help his candidacy instead of injuring it. The East Liverpool man will go into the convention with the solid support of both Columbiana and Mahoning."

The time for holding the district convention has not been fixed, but it is said the announcement will be made within a few days.

Among a great many Democrats in this city there is a doubt as to whether Mr. Duffy will give his consent to become a candidate. He has never been in politics, and indeed it has only recently been generally known that he is a Democrat. He is very careful in talking on the subject, and has to the present succeeded in avoiding a political declaration as to his intentions in the matter. He said:

"The statement published in the News Review was as much news to me as anyone, and I am sure I have said nothing that would justify such an assertion. If the matter was presented to a prospective candidate in the light that he would stand a good chance to win he would be foolish to refuse to take it under advisement."

Nearly every trades union in the city has received a circular signed by the officers of the Alliance Trades and Labor Council announcing a meeting of the representatives of all labor organizations in the Eighteenth district.

The meeting will take place at Alliance next Saturday night, and it is expected that representative labor men from every city and town in the district will be in attendance. The purpose of the meeting, as announced by the Alliance people, is to select a labor candidate to be placed in the field for congress in the Eighteenth district.

Local labor men are of the opinion that the plan will not be favorably considered here. Those interviewed say the trades council would be the proper place to take such matters, and that if the members of that body see fit to send representatives to the meeting, all well and good; otherwise there is little likelihood of the scheme securing favorable consideration here.

Leading Republicans have been approached with a view of ascertaining what effect the proposed move would have upon the party. The universal opinion prevails that no amount of agitation along labor or any other lines will influence the usual Republican maority in the district. A prominent Republican said:

"No alarm is felt among Republicans. Those who have taken the trouble to post themselves are aware that the whole scheme was concocted at Alliance, where there is a handful of half-hearted Republicans who were disappointed at the result of the Salem convention. When the workers of the district realize they are being used for a purpose, and that purpose to further the ends of a few disgruntled ones, they will drop it like a hot potato. Mr. Kennedy, of Mahoning, will be elected by the usual majority."

Lisbon, August 16. — (Special) — A corps of 12 engineers came to Lisbon several months ago and started on a preliminary survey of a railroad under the direction of J. A. Hanlon, of Coshocton. They kept their operations secret, but pushed ahead with the work.

It now develops that they are in the employ of the Wabash and are laying out a line from the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad at Minerva to New Castle, Pa., where the new line will tap the large freight business of the Mahoning and Beaver valleys. The new line follows down Beaver creek to Lisbon and then utilizes the Pittsburg, Lisbon & Western line to New Galilee, a distance of 25 miles. This line was bought by Myron P. Herrick, of Cleveland, some time ago, in the interest of the Wabash.

The location from New Galilee to New Castle is completed and the surveyors are now at work locating the line from Lisbon to Minerva.

A Monument Project Arousing Great Interest Among G. A. R. Men.

GEN. GIBSON MEMORIAL

To Commemorate the Memory of a Gallant Officer Universally Beloved by Ohio Soldiers—The Local Post Will Help.

Commander Daniel McLane of the local G. A. R. post No. 44, received a letter this morning from Chairman Gibbs, of the Gibson Memorial Association, which has headquarters at Tiffin, asking that the members of Post 44 make cash contributions and use all the influence within their power toward raising sufficient money to erect a monument in honor of the late Gen. William H. Gibson. A part of the letter follows:

"Our post believes the time has now come, and has undertaken the work and will prosecute it to completion. From all over the state there has come the word from comrades and admirers of the great soldier-orator, that they would be glad to give some assistance. We were delighted to know that the State encampment at Lancaster, not only gave approval, but the enthusiastic commendation of patriots to this noble cause. Gibson belonged, in a sacred consecration, to the interests of the old soldier, and nothing could be more appropriate than that an enduring tribute should be erected to his memory by his loyal comrades. No tribute could come to his name that would mean so much."

General Gibson was known personally by nearly every Grand Army man in the State of Ohio and not a few were intimate friends living in all parts of the United States. The members of the local post loved and adored the great major general. As an orator and stump speaker he had few equals. Commander McLane states that the matter will be brought before the post at the next regular meeting and that he thinks all will, in one accord, vote for assistance in the most worthy cause.

President William McKinley, who was a bosom friend of the late general, wrote of him as follows: "General Gibson believed the most important things in life were piety and patriotism. In his creed they were linked in indissoluble union. His piety was broad enough to include every creed, and his patriotism wide enough to cover the whole country. He once said to me that he put the flag beneath the cross. That, he said, was high enough for it. His name will be remembered as long as patriotism is revered."

A GREATER PARADE THAN EVER BEFORE

ARRANGEMENTS GOING ON

Messrs. Leroy Orr, A. E. Bertelle, Harry Bascomb, John Boulton, George Hailes and Criss McConnell the committee of Trades and Labor Council appointed to make arrangements for Labor Day exercises held a meeting last evening and reported that everything was progressing nicely.

They have received 3000 pins which they will distribute on the morning of Labor day among those who will participate in the parade. The design of the pins is peculiarly attractive and they will be worn with pride. For several years ribbon styles have been provided for the paraders and the committee thought it best to make a change.

The secretary reported that he had received notice of acceptance from all the locals of the city which were invited to form in the line of the parade and from the present indications the parade will out-class in every particular any that has ever before been witnessed in the city.

East Palestine, August 16.—(Special)—The police authorities of this town are quietly working on the post-office robbery case. They state that they have a clew which will eventually lead to the arrest of the thieves. Yesterday afternoon two men were seen driving in a buggy on the road leading from here to Niles. They were suspicious looking persons and the local authorities were notified. In a sort time the men were apprehended, but it was found that they were innocent farmers and not safe-crackers. What the clew is that the officers have is not known. They absolutely refuse to make any statement other than they are on the right track.

Decisive Game Today.

The decisive game in the contest between the Toronto and New Cumberland base ball teams will be played today, when the third of a series of five games will be decided. New Cumberland won two games and great interest is shown in today's game. If New Cumberland wins that team will have won three straight games and a purse of $200.

Elks' Carnivals Forbidden.

Street fairs or carnivals held under the auspices of Elks lodges were absolutely prohibited by the grand lodge of the order at the Salt Lake City convention. The new law will not go into effect until January 1, as many lodges in different parts of the country have already made plans for the holding of such fairs before that date.

NEGLIGENCE CHARGED

Lisbon, August 16. — (Special) — Hiram J. Haldeman, a railroad postal clerk living at Salem, has entered suit against the Ft. Wayne railway for $1,990 damages. He states in the petition that on February 18, 1902, he was distributing mail in a car which standing on a sidetrack at Pittsburg, when the car was violently moved. He was thrown to the floor and severely bruised.

He claims that the railway company was negligent in running a train against the mail car which was regularly used by clerks for distributing mail.

PACKERS' LOCAL

The regular meeting of the packers' local last night was of more than ordinary interest, but the nature of the business transacted is not given out. A transfer was received from Sebring, and Howard Leslie was received into full membership.

POTTS GOES TO CANTON: WIFE CREATES A SCENE

Quite a scene took place at the depot and on the route leading from the jail, due to the wife of the prisoner. She went into a fit of raving; threatened to take her life; pleaded that her dear husband be released; wailed loud and long and topped it all off by the frequent kissing of the degraded wretch who is not worthy of the kiss of a dog.

While in her frenzied state had she known what the spectators were saying she undoubtedly would have turned upon them. Many were heard to say such beasts should not be allowed to live, and that the law could give him only $20 and costs was pointed out as a grave defect in the statutes calling for legislative remedy.

Mrs. Potts continued her ranting until the train pulled out, she following at the rear door of the train to the lower end of the platform and standing there until the last coach was lost to view.

The majority of the spectators showed their fury and contempt for Potts. Few showed pity for the prisoner. Several of his shantyboat friends were there and told him to not worry; that he would be released in a month and that it would not hurt him. The crowd became indignant at such a display and hooted at his so-called friends.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

Again reports are published charging gross undervaluations in connection with imported earthenware, including all lines of tableware known as china, etc. We have several times called attention to this line of undervaluations, says the American Economist. The pottery industry is the child of a protective tariff, especially in view of the fact that every dish represents almost exclusively hand labor. The two great centers of the pottery industry in this country are Trenton, N. J., and East Liverpool, O., where nearly one hundred factories are located. The rate of duty on pottery is 55 and 60 per cent ad valorem, which is ample protection to American labor and producers providing our tariff laws are enforced. The simple fact is that our customs service, in this line, is so completely dominated by foreign interests and foreigners that honest importers and domestic producers cannot compete with those who enjoy special favors. Investigations of undervaluations are under the direction of the supervising general agent of the treasury department, W. S. Chance, who hails from Ohio, and under the personal direction of Special Agent Williams at Paris, also from Ohio. The manufacturing potters should look into the matter of administration. They will find Secretary Shaw ready to correct any weak points in the service.

SHORTER WORK DAY.

There is a growing tendency among the pottery workers in the Liverpool district for the enforcement of the shorter work day. It is true a great majority of those employed in the various pottery trades work by the piece, and therefore are able to regulate the length of their day's work as best suits them, but it is a fact that has been commented upon more than once lately that these workers are gradually lessening their hours of labor until now scarcely an employe of a pottery is working in excess of the reasonable number of hours. There was a time in the history of potting in East Liverpool that the piece work employes was accustomed to turn out for work at a very early hour in the morning and continue until dark. Very few if any are observing such hours. Not a few have been asked as to the cause of the change in their habits, and invariably the reply is that they find almost of not quite as much can be accomplished in a shorter period. Their explanation is the same as that given by many other classes of workers. A man can do about so much in a day, and do it rapidly and well. If he goes beyond this his work is not so effective and he is rendered incapable of as much and as good work for the next day.

CREW TOO LARGE.

Serious trouble was averted this week at the Globe pottery of the East Liverpool Potteries company by the prompt action of the Brotherhood officials and, those of the Kilndrawers' union. The crew of kilndrawers wanted more men to draw a bisque kiln than is allowed by the uniform scale. When the foreman refused to grant the request they refused to continue at the work. The firm notified the Brotherhood officials who in time placed the matter in the hands of an officer of No. 17. He repaired to the scene of the dispute, and ordered the men to resume. They did so, and the question will likely receive an airing at the meeting of the kilndrawers' tonight.

OTHER ALTERATIONS.

While the old end of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles plant is being rebuilt new other improvements are being made which will aid in modernizing the plant. The bottoms are being torn out ofthe bisque kilns, and will be peplaced by new ones. The ovens will then be as good as when they were new.

SEBRING LABOR DAY.

Local No. 44, N. B. O. P., of Sebring, has appointed the following as a Labor Day committee on arrangements for the meeting at Alliance, to be held September 1: Walter S. Crewson, H. J. McMaster, A. J. White, C. J. Blumenstiel, Robert Surles, Katie Sullivan, Bertha Summers and Pearl Cosgrove were appointed as a committee for the ladies. The local has purchased a fine new banner, valued at $50, and will use it for the first time on this occasion. Between three hundred and four hundred of the "girls and boys" from Sebring workshops expect to take part in the parade.

A WANDERER.

Archie Putman, who left this city to take a job in the jigger shop at the Barberton pottery only a few weeks ago, has arrived in the city and says he is home for good. Though he was absent but a short time Archie has had several situations since he gave up a good job here. He was in Barberton long enough to become convinced that he was not the man for the place. Putman then went to Sebring, meeting with about the same experience. He is now looking for a permanent location here and says East Liverpool is good enough after all.

A NEW KILN.

KNOWN HERE.

Joseph E. Allen who is held at Pittsburg for the murder of of a woman by the name of King, was at one time an employe of the K., T. & K. pottery, having drawn kiln and worked as pin boy at the new end. He left suddenly about a year and a half ago.

POTTERY NOTES.

James Cannon, kiln fireman at the Riverside pottery at Wheeling, who has been visiting his brother, Thomas Cannon, of this city, since that pottery shut down, was called home Thursday.

At the last meeting of local union No. 44, N. B. of O. P., at Sebring, it was decided to form a sick benefit and burial association with the order and a committee was appointed to make arrangements therefor.

PETER POWER SUIT HEARING.

Way Plaintiffs For Actions Were Provided Inquired Into.

New York, Aug. 16.—The hearing before Special Examiner Richard A. Mabie, in the suit of Peter Power against the Northern Pacific railroad directors to prevent them from turning over the stock of the company to the Northern Securities company, was continued yesterday.

Little attention was paid to the Power suit, however, the most of the day being devoted to inquiry into the means whereby plaintiffs were provided in the similar actions against the Great Northern railroad, one of the constituent companies in the merger, which actions were based on the holdings of Mrs. Elsworth Ives Chapman and Milton F. Bouden.

AGAINST HAHN'S CONTENTION.

Stricken From Amended Petition, at Opposition's Behest.

Mansfield, O., Aug. 16.—Common Pleas Judge Campbell yesterday afternoon, at the hearing of the William Hahn habeas corpus case, sustained Assistant Attorney General Todd's action to strike out from the plaintiff's amended petition the part which alleges that "said pretended requisition is not made in good faith, but to collect a debt by court process."

Six depositions were introduced by Hahn's attorneys tending to show that there had been collusion between the district attorney's office and the office of the Manhattan Fire Insurance company's receiver, but the judge sustained the prosecution's objection to the admission of these.

Judge Brucker was put on the stand to testify regarding an alleged attempt made some months ago, when the New York people were here taking depositions at his office, to force Mr. Hahn to settle by threatening him with an indictment, but Judge Campbell sustained Todd's objections to a number of the questions asked.

The hearing was continued until today.

Humors

They take possession of the body, and are Lords of Misrule.

They are attended by pimples, boils, the itching tetter, salt rheum, and other cutaneous eruptions; by feelings of weakness, languor, general debility and what not.

They cause more suffering than anything else.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

The Conditions on Saturday Evening Call Loudly for a Reform.

One of these days the police authorities will awaken to the need of instructing the officers to keep the crossings at the principal street corners clear of the crowds of men, women and children who persist in blocking the sidewalks nowadays. The nuisance is particularly objectionable in and about the Diamond and Sixth street on Saturday evenings.

It is no unusual thing to see on the corner a crowd that forces the patrolman out into the street, yet it apparently has never occurred to the policeman that he should direct the lingering ones to either "move on" or step back to the side of the pavement. If the officers would issue an order, the offenders might be educated in the course of a few months, and then the poor pedestrian would be able to pursue his way without an inclination to indulge in profanity at his inability to pass without going into the middle of the street, at the risk of being run down by a car. Possibly Chief Thompson has overlooked the extent of the nuisance which is growing worse continually.

There were three fakirs at the corner of Broadway and Sixth street last Saturday evening and passersby were compelled to walk around these crowds in order to proceed to their homes. At the corner of East Market street and the diamond the Salvation Army held forth. It is impossible to push one's way through the crowds that surround this little band and stand on the east sidewalk adjoining the Blackmore block.

Detroit, Aug. 16.—Extreme simplicity marked the funeral services yesterday afternoon over Senator James McMillan, who died last Sunday at his summer home in Manchester, Mass. The services began at 2:30 o'clock at the family residence, 515 Jefferson avenue. Both branches of congress, the state legislature and all departments of the state and city governments were represented. Governor A. T. Bliss was present with several of his staff. The senatorial delegation included some of the most intimate friends of the dead senator. It was made up as follows: Senators Hanna, Ohio; Foraker, Ohio; Kean, New Jersey; McComas, Maryland; Allison, Iowa; Lodge, Massachusetts; Burrows, Michigan; Fairbanks, Indiana; Cockrill, Missouri, and Gallinger, New Hampshire. The District of Columbia was represented by District Commissioners McFarland and Biddle.

At 2:30 o'clock the strains of Handel's "Largo" came from the musicians and a hush fell over the friends as the service began. The Rev. Alfred H. Barr read the first few verses of the fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians. Then the musicians played "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," to the music of "The Refuge." The Rev. Mr. Barr made a short prayer and the benediction ended the service. The interment was private, at Elmwood cemetery. The body was placed in the McMillan mausoleum.

EAST END

NOTICE WAS SERVED

'Squire Carman Attended to the Matter And the Harshas Will Move.

It is probable the case of Mrs. Randall against the Harsha family will not be contested in the court of Justice Carman this afternoon. The defendants have concluded to reconsider their determination to retain possession of the Randall property and this morning vacated the premises.

An amusing incident in the case occurred yesterday when Mrs. Harsha called at the office of the justice and poured into his ears a sorrowful story calculated to appeal to his sympathies. She maintained that neither she nor her husband had ever been given notice that the owners of the house were denied possession. The 'squire thought they had, and presuming, of course, that the notice must come from Mrs. Randall, the Harsha woman was positive no notice had ever been served. When the justice concluded she had proceeded far enough with the argument, he queitly informed the woman that formal notice had been served upon her husband by the justice himself. The argument ended there and Mrs. Harsha went home to pack up.

WORK UNFINISHED

East End People Want to See the Virginia Avenue Bridge Completed.

Work has been suspended on the Virginia avenue bridge, because it is presumed those in charge have other and more important work demanding their attention. The residents of that section are not certain but the job is completed as far as the street force is concerned, but it is asserted by them that in appearance the bridge looks anything but finished.

A vast amount of filling in will be required before the approaches are made passable.

SPECIAL SERVICES

The services at the Erie street M. E. church tomorrow morning will be of a special order. The pastor, Rev. G. W. Orcutt, has arranged for the reception of the probationers, and in addition to this ceremony communion will be administered.

The ingathering service will occupy considerable time on acccount of the large number to be taken into full membership, and for this reason there will be no sermon. In connection with the morning services the ordinance of baptism will be adminstered.

Picnic a Big Success.

Those in charge of the union Sunday school picnic held recently at Stanton park by the East End churches have now settled up all matters connected with the outing. The affair was a success in every particular, and contrary to the general rule some money was netted. The representatives of the several Sunday schools met this week, and after paying all expenses, found they were $50 to the good.

Hay Fever.

This aggravating form of catarrh always appears at about the same time every summer, and sufferers from the disease will be glad to know that there is an absolute cure for hay fever. BLOOD WINE regularly taken prevents the formation of the catarrhal secretion, and tones up the whole system to a normal condition. It is the only remedy which can be relied on. For sale by Will Reed, Hodson's Drugstore.

Defendant Did Not Appear.

When the case of Allison & Kerr vs. John Fetty was called at 2 p. m. yesterday afternoon in the court of Justice L. W. Carman, the defendant failed to put in an appearance. The amount asked was $74 and it included the costs and interest on the original account for a period covering almost a year. Documents in aid of execution had been issued, and money in the hands of John Schmeltzenbach was secured.

New Parsonage.

Workmen in charge of the erection of the new Erie street M. E. church parsonage will have finished their work in a few days. The lathing was completed yesterday, and the plasterers will begin their portion of the task on Monday. Rev. Mr. Orcutt hopes to be settled in his new home by the 1st of September.

Special Song Service.

Rev. N. M. Crowe is still absent on his vacation which he is spending in Armstrong county, Pa., and tomorrow the services at the Second Presbyterian church will be in charge of Rev. J. N. Swan. A special song service will be conducted in the evening with a short address by Rev. Mr. Swan.

The Revival Services.

Rev. J. W. Howard and wife have charge of the successful evangelistic meetings which are in progress at Neville institute in the East End. The report that Mrs. Elliott was preaching there is an error.

Pickpockets and Pins.

Artful as the ways of the "Heathen Chinee" are the dodges of the expert picker of pockets. The other night a young lady who had been to the theater was getting on to a tram car, and, knowing the possibilities opened up to the light fingered gentry by a crowd, she kept her hand in her pocket and grasped her purse firmly. Suddenly she felt a sharp prick as from a pin on her hand and, acting on the impulse, let go her hold of the purse and snatched her hand out, almost as quickly returning it, but she was too late. In the few seconds that had elapsed another hand had been there, and the purse was gone.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery), says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

DISGUISED CATARRH.

REV. HARRIET R. EDWARDS, CLINTON, IA.

"I have found that Peruna is a wonderful medicine to use in diseases peculiar to women. It quickly and permanently restores health and vigor and acts as a natural tonic to a worn-out system. I have so far never observed a case which was not greatly aided by its use."—REV. DR. H. R. EDWARDS.

THERE are a multitude of women, especially housewives, and all other women obliged to be on their feet constantly, who are wretched beyond description, simply because their strength and vitality is sapped away by catarrhal discharges from the pelvic organs. These women get up in the morning tired, drag themselves through their daily duties tired, only to go to bed at night as tired as before.

Peruna is such a perfect specific for each case that when patients have once used it they can never be induced to quit it until they are permanently cured. It begins to relieve the disagreeable symptoms at once. The backache ceases, the trembling knees are strengthened, the appetite restored, the digestion made perfect, the dull headache is stopped and the weakening drains are gradually cured. These results certainly follow a course of treatment with Peruna.

"Mrs. Crowley has taken a number of bottles of Peruna on account of nervous troubles. It has proven a strong tonic and lasting cure. I can cheerfully recommend it."—Jos. B. Crowley.

Mrs. Wm. Hetrick, Kennard, Washington county, Neb., writes:

"I am fifty-six years old and have not felt well since the Change of Life began ten years ago. I was in misery somewhere most of the time. My back was very weak, and my flesh so tender it hurt me to lean against the back of a chair. I had pain under my shoulder-blades, in the small of my back and hips. I sometimes wished myself out of this world. Had hot and cold spells, dizziness, and trembling of the limbs, and was losing flesh all the time.

Barbara Alberty, corner Seventh and Walnut streets, Appleton, Wis., writes as follows in regard to Peruna:

"For years I have suffered with backache and severe pains in the side. I doctored so much that I became discouraged.

"A school friend told me how very much Peruna had benefited her and I sent out for a bottle, which did more to relieve me than all the other medicine I had ever taken.

Barbara Alberty.

"I used it faithfully for two weeks and it completely cured me. I have not had any pains since, anywhere, but feel like a new woman. I am truly thankful for what Peruna has done for me."—Barbara Alberty.

Mrs. D. W. Mason, 502 Dauphine street, New Orleans, La., writes:

"I have been taking your Peruna and Manalin and can cheerfully recommend it to all those suffering with the same trouble that I was. I have been suffering for the past two years with female weakness, palpitation of the heart, stomach, kidney and liver disorder, and above all a dreadful cough with smothering spells. I was completely run down.

"After I had taken one bottle of Peruna and a few doses of your Manalin, I could sleep soundly, my heart was better, my cough left me, it acted immediately upon my nerves, and after taking four bottles according to your directions, I was entirely cured of all my troubles.

"I can truthfully say that there is nothing to equal your Peruna and Manalin. I was a different women after taking the second bottle. It is without a doubt the best medicine in the world. Language fails to express my gratitude for this cure. May God bless you."—Mrs. D. W. Mason.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

The decision of Governor Nash and his advisers to make public the provisions of their proposed code bill is certainly a wise one. A matter which interests every village and city in Ohio must receive public discussion, and public attention. There is no need of waiting until the legislature meets to make the provisions of the bill known and learn what the people of the state think of them. In the work which has been done the governor has had the assistance of the state bar association and of some of the best trained legal minds in Ohio, as well as men who are familiar with the wants of the cities and the conduct of municipal affairs. The suggestions offered ought therefore to be valuable and helpful to the legislature. The experience of the latter body in the enactment of bills which the supreme court has found unconstitutional should convince the lawmakers that the advice of constitutional lawyers is something needed in their business.

Attention is called to the fact that under the Republican protective tariff millions of workingmen have not only had their wages increased, but their hours of labor reduced since 1897. In many instances the time has been as much as two hours, in other cases only half an hour. It would be a most safe and conservative estimate to assume that at least 5,000,000 workmen throughout the country have gained on an average an hour a day without any corresponding decrease in wages. That is, 5,000,000 hours for 300 working days would be 1,500,000,000 hours, or 534,186 years of 52 weeks each of 54 working hours. Just what this amount of time means in social and domestic happiness is beyond calculation, but there are material benefits as well.

Secretary Shaw, in a recent speech in New Hampshire, uttered a solemn truth when he said that no amount of tariff revision by the Republicans would satisfy the Democrats, who have no policy of their own and are merely watching for opportunities to find fault. In looking the country over nothing substantial can be found in the talk of tariff revision by the present or the next congress. The Democratic party want the tariff ripped up on the general principle that every setback to business improves their political chances, and if they can stir up revisionists among Republicans, so much the better for Democratic purposes. But sensible Republicans do not walk into Democratic traps.

Recent successful tests of wireless telegraphy in the navies of England, Germany and the United States confirm the statements of the leading electricians and scientists to the effect that marine communication offers a most successful and profitable field for utilizing this remarkable discovery whether it can ever be made of practical service on land or not.

Experiments which have been made in the raising of cotton in Cuba have been so successful as to give promise to the planters of the island of another staple product in addition to sugar and tobacco on which there will be a hand some profit.

One of the "trust issues" which the Democracy is unthinkingly raising is why the Democratic party never did anything to curb the power of the trusts when it had a chance.

Even the Democratic Pittsburg Post is forced to admit that the world moves and that its erstwhile presidential candidate, who still clings to free silver, does not.

OBITUARY

Jacob Hobbs.

Jacob Hobbs, aged 36 years, died at his home in Fairview, W. Va., last night from the effects of a severe attack of cramps. Mr. Hobbs was one of the best known young men in Hancock county and until about a year ago was in business in Chester, where he was very popular. He is survived by a widowed mother, two sisters and six brothers, Mrs. Margaret Allison, Mrs. William Chapman and Charles, Robert, Cyrus, Austin, John and Joseph Hobbs, all of Hancock county. The remains will likely be laid to rest in the Fairview cemetery on Monday.

Joseph Heasley.

Joseph Heasley, one of the staunch farmers of the vicinity of Summitville, is dead. He had been the victim of fever for several weeks. He was in his seventy-ninth year. He owned 160 acres of fine farming land, well stocked and watered, good farm buildings and pleasant home. He was universally liked in the neighborhood in which he resided and had a host of friends. He was the father of four children, John, of Wellsville; Philip, of Cleveland; Joseph, of this city, and Jennie, who lived at home.

Mollifying.

"I am afraid, Bobby," said his mother, "that when I tell your father what a naughty boy you've been he will punish you severely."

"Have you got to tell him?" asked Bobby earnestly.

"Well, mother," said he, "give him a better dinner than usual. You might do that much for me."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Short Cut to Sleep.

"Doctor," said he, "I'm a victim of insomnia. I can't sleep if there's the least noise, such as a cat on the garden wall, for instance."

"This powder will be effective," replied the physician, after compounding a prescription.

"When do I take it, doctor?"

No Variation In Medicine.

Sometimes, not always, a bottle of medicine comes out milky when it should be clear, and vice versa, because there has been some slight alteration in the prescription. We never alter a prescription, except as directed by the physician who wrote it, hence come out the same each time. That is a great gain to a sick person, for any variation of medicine may cause a set back and loss of progress.

New York, Aug. 16.—The report of the New York Board of Health for the first quarter of the present year shows a decrease of deaths from consumption of 282 as compared with the first three months of last year. Dr. Guilfoyle says: "It is encouraging to note the decrease and indicates that the American bureau of The Hoff Consumption Cure is responsible for the good work."

This bureau is sending Prof. Hoff's literature on the treatment and cure of consumption gratis to all who apply by addressing The American Bureau of The Hoff Cure for Consumption, Third ave. and 10th street, New York City.

Meritless Schemes.

Hundreds of novel advertising schemes that are hatched every day are so evenly meritless that it is almost safe to apply Punch's advice to all of them, "Don't!" Some one tries them all, however, and vast sums of money are sunk in them. There are doubtless cases where they pay, but it would not be hard to show that legitimate advertising would have paid better. The great public holds its open court daily in the newspaper and will hear what any man has to say in behalf of his business provided he can say it well.—Printers' Ink.

Why Ads. Are Read.

An observant person remarks that "the public likes as well to read interesting matter in the advertising columns as in the news columns." There is nothing surprising about this, since the facts which are advertised have a direct personal interest to the public. The advertiser offers to the people only such things as the people need and about the character and prices of which they want information. A persistent advertiser is bound to win the attention of all newspaper readers.—Philadelphia Record.

the governor's code would pass in its present shape. He thinks the popular prejudice against the appointments of the police boards will prevent this. It is believed that Representative Querin's ostensible purpose in giving the clambake is to further his candidacy for the Republican nomination for attorney general.

COUGHED UP BULLET

It Had been Fired into Steubenville Negro's Lungs Years Ago.

Steubenville, Aug. 16.—Eight years ago, "Uncle Tom" Ferris, a well-known colored character was shot by John Jordan, also colored. The ball entered in the upper part of the breast near the shoulder and took a downward course penetrating one of the lungs. After diligent effort to locate it the surgeons concluded it must have lodged near the back, and gave up their efforts to remove it. Meantime, Jordan, who was a railroader, working on the Gould tunnel, was convicted and sent to the penitentiary for shooting with intent to kill. The Circuit court reviewed his case, and concluded as Ferris was the agressor, and the shooting had been in self-defense, that Jordan was improperly convicted and should be given a new trial. He was brought back and afterwards set free.

Meantime and for a number of years succeeding, Uncle Tom had no annoyance from the bullet. But about a year ago he had pneumonia, his lungs began to trouble him, which continued until the doctors thought he surely was a victim of consumption. A few days ago the real cause of his trouble developed in a peculiar manner. Ferris, while bedfast at his home on South Eighth street, and seeming-in the far advanced stages took a severe coughing spell, which lasted for nearly an hour, and did not cease until he had coughed up some hard substance, which upon examination was found to be the 38-calibre cartridge which had been fired into his lung eight years ago. Ferris' condition has begun to improve, and it is thought he will now sure recover.

CLEVELAND'S DESTRUCTION

Cleveland, Aug. 16.—There is a prophet here named Snyder that predicted that this city was to be destroyed by a deluge on Wednesday. The city still stands, but Snyder badly scared a number of ignorant people.

A dispatch from Akron says: About 200 negroes, Syrians, Italians and others came to Akron to escape death in the prophesied destruction of Cleveland. In one house at High and Furnace streets about 100 refuges, principally negroes, were gathered today. Some came last night, others this morning. A few joked about the prophesy that Cleveland was to be destroyed, but others spoke most seriously of the prediction of Snyder. About half those who came here had disposed of their earthy belongings for cash and a part of them expect never to return to their former homes. Although the larger number of those who arrived here on the A. B. & C. cars remained in Akron, many went to friends in Canton.

WELLSVILLE

LAWSUIT LIKELY

Chairman Howard T. Weaver, of the building committee of council, stated last evening that the check of the Columbiana County Telephone company for $30 referred to in last evening's issue of this paper was not accepted by council and nothing but $15 per month will be accepted. The $30 check is for July, August and September.

Mr. Weaver states that the telephone company will either have to pay the increase asked for or else vacate the room in the city building which they occupy for their exchange. It is said that the lease existing between the former council and the said said company is illegal, no bids having been called in. The matter will probably terminate in a law suit of the city versus the company.

A GREAT INVENTION

Designed to Save Water Has Been Devised by a Wellsville Man.

Samples of W. L. Fogo and C. C. Ewing's new invention for flush tanks have been sent to New Castle and Youngstown and if they answer the requirements these two gentlemen will get the contract to supply both owns with the flush tank feeders. It is claimed to be a great invention and to save enough water within a few months to pay for itself.

Messrs. Fogo and Ewing have made a contract with this city and the city of Toledo and as soonas they establish a plant in this city they will be able to supply the demand for the very necessary article. Until that time the invention will be manufactured in Pittsburg.

Next Re-union at Wellsville.

The re-union of the 104th O. V. I. was held at Massillon Wednesday. The next re-union will be held at Wellsville the second Wednesday and Thursday in August, 1903. Next year's officers of the association are Gen. J. W. Reilly, president; G. G. Cope, secretary, all residing in Wellsville; vice president; Thomas Butler, secretary. Thes officers all reside in Wellsville. Jacob Lawrence of North Lawrence is treasurer. Roll call showed eighteen deaths since last re-union.

Coaching Bunting.

Frank Geisse and Samuel Brubaker, both backers of "Skinny" Bunting, went to Pittsburg yesterday to call on Bunting at his training headquarters at the Southside Athletic club. Both are carefully watching Bunting's work and occasionally giving him pointers where they think it necessary. Bunting is now within a pound or so of the fighting weight and it will be an easy matter to pull down a few more pounds.

Under a Doctor's Care.

Miss Mary Hays, of Commerce street, recently had a gold ring filed off her finger by her father. The ring had been worn for a number of years and was becoming tight. In the work her finger was accidentally cut by the file and soon afterward a sore developed. She is now under a physician's care and blood poisoning may set in.

Intended to Purchase.

A prominent real estate dealer of Bellaire was in this city yesterday looking over several pieces of valuable land here. He intends to purchase some of the property and build several new houses thereon. A. C. Fogo had the gentleman in tow and showed him several pieces of land that are on sale.

Broken Pump Repaired.

Notice was recently given by the water works trustees asking that the water consumers be as economical as possible with the water, as one of the pumps was broken and the other one would be unable to supply the demand throughout the city. The pump has been repaired and cleaned out and is now being used again.

Got a Severe Bruise.

Samuel S. Thorn, of Coal street, had his right leg badly bruised yesterday afternoon. He was engaged at the time doing carpenter work on a new barn when a large piece of timber fell on his leg and crushed it, but broke no bones. He was brought home in a buggy. He will be unable to work for a week or so.

Preparing to Pave.

Contractor C. A. Freshwater started work this morning on placing the curbing on Liverpool street, preparatory to paving it. The paving work will probobly be completed within a week or so.

The twenty-fifth annual reunion of the Ninety-eighth O. V. I. will be held at Steubenville August 28. Many old soldiers from this city who have received invitations, will attend.

Mrs. Hutchinson, of Eleventh street, was called to St. Clairsville yesterday on account of the death of her father.

"Doc" Marshall, of Hanoverton, passed through the city yesterday en route to Pittsburg on business. He is well known here.

Miss Edith Morrow, who has been visiting relatives in this city for the past few days, has returned to her home in Pittsburg.

The household goods of Dr. Duncan, of this city, have been shipped to Blairsville, Pa., where the doctor and his family will reside.

Miss Lillie Brown, of this city, who has been visiting friends in Wheeling for the past few weeks, returned last evening on the Steamer Virginia.

Rev. Wm. Rutherford, of Washington, Pa., will conduct all of the services tomorrow at the Second Presbyterian church on Eighteenth street.

Miss Amanda Johnston, of Ninth street, will leave today for Angola, N. Y., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. John Lyth, who formerly resided here.

W. H. Morgan, a clerk in the Third street freight station, left yesterday for Mingo, where he has been assigned to do some special work for the railroad company.

Mrs. Alice Smith and three children, who have been visiting relatives in this city for the past few days, returned to their home in New Cumberland last evening.

Mrs. Charles Carpenter, who has been visiting her parents in this city, returned last evening to her home in Pittsburg. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Aughinbaugh.

A slight change of positions will be made at the shops Monday evening. Howard T. Weaver, who has been a machinist there for some time, will be promoted to assistant gang foreman and an extra man will be put in his place.

Seven Trainloads of People Are Enjoying Themselves at the Park.

The immense crowd expected by the park management today began to arrive in Chester and East Liverpool at 10 o'clock this morning. It was almost noon before all of the seven sections of cars had been unloaded and the people deposited at the park. Every facility was taxed to its utmost capacity for upwards of two hours. It is estimated that fully 18,000 American Mechanics and their friends are in attendance.

Three of the trains came in by way of the New Cumberland branch, having left Pittsburg on the Panhandle. The remainder of the seven sections and those arriving first came on the C. & P. On the early Panhandle train this morning a number of New Cumberland Mechanics arrived, and not a few from East Liverpool and Chester were at the park during the afternoon.

Oil Well on Kinney Farm After Being Shot shows up Well.

The oil well on the Kinney farm owned by the Line Island Oil and Gas company, which came in this week, was shot yesterday and gives promise of being a good producer. The well filled up 400 feet in less than two hours, and the owners think it will be good for at least ten barrels a day.

The company is making preparations to drill another well at once, and work will be started early next week. The new well will be in close proximity to the one already in.

Novel Entertainment.

At the home of A. E. McDonald south of Chester, Thursday evening, a novel entertainment was held in the shape of a corn bake. A most enjoyable evening was spent in various amusements. A number of guests were present from Wellsville and other points, among them being Miss Carrie Mahan, Steubenville; Fred. H. and Miss Leah Porter, Misses Ada and Lou Riggs and Rev. Mr. Edwards, Wellsville.

Water Line Finished.

The water line on Louisana avenue, which has been in course of construction for several weeks, will be completed today. The line is about 1,600 feet in length and required a great deal of work.

CHESTER NOTES.

Wilby Govey, of Fairview, was in Chester yesterday calling on friends.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT

Facilities for Doing Business in Perfect Manner Are Unmlimited.

A deal of more than the usual importance was this week consummated in Chester when the old established grocery firm of O. O. Allison was made still more stable by the association of Robert Hobbs, of East Liverpool, with the concern.

Mr. Hobbs is a thoroughly practica merchant, having been connected with one of the pricnpal grocery houses of East Liverpool for a number of years. O. O. Allison, who disposes of half interest, has been in business in Chester for over four years, and has by perseverance and a strict application to the details of his business, succeeded in establishing an enterprise of which his own community feels justly proud.

The new firm will be so situated that they will be able to cater to the needs of the public in a manner even more acceptable than ever before. It will be their aim to carry a stock that cannot but please, and the wishes and demands of the patrons will receive prompt and careful attention at all times. 193-h

Cowardly Crime Attempted.

A dastardly attempt was made by boys one week ago yesterday to assault the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Davis, who resides in a small but respectable home on Oak street. No complaint of the affair has been made to the police, and the only chastisement resulting from the affair was the whipping of a son by his father, and keeping him in the house since the affair became known.

The English Navy.

In the earliest times of the British navy there was practically no distinction between the merchantman and the man-of-war. In the rare times of peace men-of-war traded as merchantmen, while merchantmen always went armed. Thus in time of war the trader became the warship and vice versa. From the time of the conquest and probably earlier down to the days of Elizabeth this was the ordinary practice. Elizabeth hired out ships of the navy for all sorts of purposes, from piracy to slave trading, taking her share of the profits when the venture was successful and disclaiming all responsibility when it wasn't.

Henry III., who may be described as the originator of the navy as a special fighting force, hired out the ships specially built for the navy in times of peace and even allowed them to be taken away from their appointed stations provided that the hirers deposited due security for the return of the ships with their tackle and all equipment in a proper state of efficiency. The practice ceased after the repulse of the Spanish armada, when the fighting ship, as such, became distinct from the trader.—London Globe.

The word "stove," as applied to a heater for a room, seems to be of about the same age as the article to which the name is now applied, for while the word as a name had an existence in early English it was used in a different sense.

Both Lord Bacon and Woodward used it as referring to a house or room artificially warmed and particularly a hothouse for plants. Bacon also used the word as a verb in the way of keeping warm in a house or room, as "to stove orange trees and myrtles," to quote from his writings. Pepys used the verb in a nautical sense, as heating for the purpose of making pliable, as "stove bolt ropes."

But all these definitions are obsolete now, such disuse dating from the time when Dr. Franklin made his discoveries and applications. The French word "etuve," it may be added, describes a hothouse or bathing room, and hence is parallel in meaning with the early English word.

TRADE PROSPECTS IMPROVED.

Prospects have greatly improved through the adjustment of numerous labor controversies, yet the anthracite coal strike situation is unchanged and supplies are nearing depletion. Distribution of merchandise has met with some interruption, owing to freight blockades, the volume of business being very heavy.

Statistics of pig iron production on Aug. 1, according to The Iron Age, are more satisfactory than might have been expected in view of the great scarcity of fuel. A weekly capacity of 336,465 tons is 15,599 tons less than the high record of May 1, it is true, but compares favorably with all earlier dates, and shows an increase of 32,618 tons over the output a year ago. These figures by no means suggest a serious setback in the industry, but rather emphasize the abnormal condition of demand, which finds such a heavy yield entirely inadequate. Southern furnaces have contracted so far in advance that they have practically withdrawn from the market, and all dates for deliveries are remote, except where foreign arrivals are offered. Pressure for steel is undiminished, and the urgency of domestic consumers is shown by additional imports of large size. Structural material is sought by car shops and bridge builders, while many office buildings and other steel structures are planned. Coke production in the Connellsville region exceeds 250,000 tons weekly and outside ovens are also surpassing all records of activity. Yet shipments are unsatisfactory, causing frequent delays.

Solicitude Over Possible Stringency Evident, Yesterday.

New York, Aug. 16.—The solicitude felt over the possible stringency of money was exemplified by the effect upon the stock market of a flurry in the call money rate to 6 per cent. The fact that stock exchange loans made on Friday carry over until the following Monday makes the customary demand on Friday somewhat more urgent than on other days. The special cause offered to explain yesterday's sharp advance was the maturity of subscriptions for the new Oregon Short Line collateral bonds, secured by deposit of Northern Securities stock. The payment called for about $15,000,000 and necessitated considerable shifting of loans to meet the requirement. The rate dropped back to near 4 per cent near the close, after the demand had been satisfied. There have been a number of other syndicate operations during the week, which may upset calculations as to the bank statement today. Among these were the payment of subscriptions to the United States Shipbuilding company, the payment of dividend to the United States Steel underwriting syndicate, and the dividend on United States Steel preferred, payable yesterday. So far as the indicated cash changes promise, today's bank statement will not be unfavorable. The movement of currency with the interior seems to be in favor of New York still, the receipts on balance during the week amounting to $1,500,000, against the loss to the sub-treasury of $633,000. New York exchange at Chicago fell to par yesterday, compared with 10 cents premius on Thursday and 20 cents premium on Wednesday.

"I have come to the city with my son, who is about to enter the law school. The first thing is to find a boarding place. Do you know any place that you can recommend?"

"Well, no; not near the law school. But I know a good place near the medical school."

"Indeed. Then I'll have him study medicine."—Lustige Blatter.

SLANG CANDY.

What Has Happened to Old Sentimental Inscriptions.

"It takes a vigilant and determined person to steer clear of slang these days," remarked a man who likes to study the signs of the time. "We have slang novels, slang plays and slang art of various kinds.

"The latest slang manifestation, however, is slang candy. Haven't you seen it? It is on sale at many candy stands. Do you remember the old fashioned, flat, scalloped, diamond or heart shaped candy lozenge, ornamented with sentimental words, such as 'Sweetheart,' 'My Own True Love,' 'Faithful to Thee,' 'Ever Thine,' and so on? We used to pass these complimentary lozenges around at little gatherings when I was young, and much harmless but deeply fervent lovemaking was carried on by means of such simple tokens.

"The pink and white candy lozenge of the present day, however, is a degenerate. It is much smaller in size, although still scalloped, and the phrases stamped on its surface are below the dignity of genteel members of the lozenge family. The words you read now on the candy lozenge are as follows: 'That's What,' 'My Best Girl,' 'Rubberneck,' 'Move On,' 'Sure,' 'Bat Them Out,' 'My Size,' 'Do You Bike?' 'Gee Whiz!' 'My Baby Lou,' 'Guess Not,' 'Just So,' 'Come Again,' 'That Face!' and so on."

"How curious!" commented the man who was listening. "We live in a slang age, don't we?"

"Sure!" answered the man who was down on slang, and then with a suddenly reddened face he began to talk about seventeen year locusts.—Detroit Free Press.

A Story of Charles Reade.

THE WHOLE SHOW WAS VASBINDER

And East Liverpool Could Have Run the Score Up ad Libitum If It Had Seen Fit—Some Very Amusing Features of the Game.

"Lengthy" Vasbinder, farmed recently by the Cleveland American league team, but who is now on Manager Walsh's salaried team of semi-professionals, was the whole show in West End park yesterday afternoon.

Of course there were 17 others in the game and some of them were a little conspicuous, but when it came to doing the real stunts Vassie was the man. That collection from the mammoth Westinghouse electrical works of Pittsburg looked like bad coin to him. Their pitcher was the funniest freak that he had witnessed for years.

Every ball that the youngster would toss toward the plate the newcomer would tap just to see the fielders run. And upon two occasions he made men run for fair. Out in the tall timbers the ball came down with the left fielder in close pursuit, but not close enough to keep the "batter out" from advancing to base No. 3. At intervals he would let up on his baby playing with the pitcher and turn on Smithy, the auburn haired catcher. Reddy could not stand the looks and showed fight plainly from beneath the curly locks which ornament his forehead, but he would coof off suddenly and make the best of the situation.

Following an error made by most players there is an outburst of hisses and cries of "Put him out," "Get another man," "He is no good." There was an exception, however, when Chick made a play that the scorer could only credit as an error. It was in the third inning. O'Leary came to bat and landed on one unmercifully, sending it high into right field. Vasbinder was playing in too far to connect with it and Chick saw that if the ball was caught it was up to him to do the work. He started on the long run and much to the surprise of all reached the ball before it touched the ground. He not only reached it but clasped it tightly, only to let the coveted little sphere drop. But not until he had fallen over that ditch, an eyesore. Had he held on to the ball he would carry the honors for catching the hardest fielded ball ever grasped in this city. For making such an effort he was loudly applauded upon his return to the bench.

Of the visiting aggregation no complimentary remarks can be said other than that they are a band of hard hitters and that with company not so fast as the locals, they would put up a pretty game. Smith did the hitting, getting a home run on a ball that got lost in the weeds. They did not have things equal. With the lineup presented by Manager Walsh, teams other than Parkersburg and Wheeling are against the real thing.

From the way the game started the supposition was that the score would not be less than 20 to 7, but a better showing was made. In the second and third minds were not so positive as to the outcome. It was all off again, however, when the sixth inning was reached. Marks tried, but in vain. He was batted high and batted low. It made little difference where. None of them were slow enough to warrant fielding. Like cannon balls they sped through the diamond and fields and seldom ever met an outstretched mit.

Six pretty, but hard hits were made in this inning and as many runs. What could the visitors do then? They were helpless and had the locals so desired the score could, in this inning, have reached possibly 14. Heckathorn got tired of the awful onslaught and retired the side by striking out.

FAMILIAR SNAKES

THEY RUN ABOUT PEOPLE'S HOUSES NEAR SALINEVILLE.

One Attacks a Couple on a Porch And Another Entwines a Fruit Jar.

Salineville, August 16. — While Thomas Earl and wife, of Fox township, near here, were preparing beans and corn for their noonday meal on the porch of their home they experienced a most unpleasant surprise. Mr. Earl was sitting with his back to his wife when he heard her scream. Suddenly with the head erect and forked tongue darting in and out, a huge black snake, about four feet long, made a dash for the lady. But in jumping from the spouting on the porch the snake became entangled in the vines around the porch.

When the husband heard his wife scream he turned around and saw the ugly reptile fall to the ground. He instantly rushed to the outer yard for a weapon, but when he returned the snake had made his escape. The lady was so frightened that it was some time before she recovered. It is supposed that the snake had climbed up the vines and had been sunning itself for some time on the roof of the house. A threatening storm had aroused its viciousness.

While Mrs. J. W. Johnson, of Mechanicstown, was preparing a meal she had occasion to go to the cellar for some fruit. As she was coming from the cellar she reached up on the shelf where she had her fruit stored to get a jar of fruit for the coming meal. Imagine her surprise when she laid her hand on a cold, clammy snake, snugly wrapped around the fruit jar. The snake offered no resistance, but the woman very promptly dropped what she had and immediately made her exit from the cellar to the outdoors. She was so frightened that it was some time before she was able to tell her neighbors what had happened. Soon a party was organized to hunt the reptile which had made its abode in the family cellar. But no trace was found. From the statement it must have been about five feet long and perhaps as thick as an ordinary ball bat at the small end.

A Good Hearted Man,

or in other words, men with good sound hearts, are not very numerous. The increasing number of sudden deaths from heart disease daily chronicled by the press, is proof of the alarming prevalence of this dangerous complaint, and as no one can foretell just when a fatal collapse will occur, the danger of neglecting treatment is certainly a very risky matter. If you are short of breath, have pain in left side, smothering spells, palpitation, unable to lie on side, especially the left, you should begin taking

Infernal Machine Sent—Failed to Explode—Plot Revealed by Letters.

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—An attempt upon the life of Robert E. Pattison, former governor of the state of Pennsylvania, and at present the Democratic nominee for the same office, was made in this city, the information just now coming to light, according to The North American.

The sender of the package had neglected to place the means of ignition in the parcel, trusting to circumstances for the working out of his plan. The senders of the package are under surveillance and arrests are expected within a few hours.

A test of the strength of the powder was made at the League Island navy yard by Captain Delano, ordnance officer. He declared positively that it was powder of the same character as that which is stored at Ft. Mifflin, and he said that there was a possibility that it might have been secured at that place.

The first intimation that there was a plot under way was gleaned from an anonymous letter received by the Philadelphia North American. The letter said:

"There are rumors that a downtown gang are sending an infernal machine to Governor Pattison. Do you know anything about it?"

A second anonymous letter was received. It urged immediate action on the part of the paper, and the outline of the plot was given. The package, the anonymous writer said, had been mailed from the Bingham house, Philadelphia, addressed to Governor Pattison, and marked "Ore samples."

The information leaked out because the sender became intoxicated and talked too much. The writer said that the package had been mailed Tuesday night or Wednesday morning, and there was a possibility that it had been stopped in time by the postoffice authorities.

The history of the receipt of the package by Governor Pattison is short. He took it with a quantity of other mail delivered to him at the postoffice. He noted that it was marked "Ore samples," and when he reached his office he tossed it aside for later consideration.

Forced Non-Unionists to Stop Work.

Thurmond, W. Va., Aug. 16.—One hundred or more non-union men are arriving in the New River coal fields daily to take the places of strikers. At the Rend mines a great demonstration was made yesterday. Several hundred strikers, heavily armed, marched to the mine and forced 60 non-unionists to abandon work. Deputy marshals were powerless and trouble is imminent.

LIFE PLANT

The Great Vegetable Medicine Will Cure You.

In LIFE PLANT we have a sure and certain cure for all diseases caused by impure blood.

The first thing for good health is to keep the stomach in a good condition. When the stomach is diseased, the food eaten is not digested properly and the body loses strength and vigor naturally. The loss of strength makes you weak until you lose your energy and vitality. LIFE PLANT cures all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs, enabling a perfect digestion of food, making the body strong in a way it should be. LIFE PLANT contains no minerals or opiates, which stop the pain for a short time. It is purely vegetable, and when taken according to directions positively cures all diseases of the stomach, bowels, etc.

An Alarming Case of Catarrh of Stomach Permanently Cured.

Mr. Frederick Dubaugh, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, writes:
Life Plant Co.,

Messrs:—I was attacked last August with a very serious and painful form of stomach trouble which gave me no rest by day and very little sleep at night. I used numerous remedies without any beneficial results. I was in constant misery with pain in stomach, which was increased, even by a slight pressure. For months I could not take any kind of food without suffering severe pain. This condition continued until I commenced the use of LIFE PLANT. I have taken six bottles and am now a well man, can do a full day's work, eat all kinds of food and feel no inconvenience. Yours, etc.

President Orders Names of Privates Dying In Philippines to Be Cabled Oftener.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 16.—The president yesterday gave orders that hereafter the names of the enlisted men of the army who die in the Philippines be cabled to this country once in every two weeks. When the volunteer army was in the archipelago it was the custom to cable the casualties, but on the withdrawal of that army the practice was discontinued.

The subject was discussed while the president was entertaining a number of visitors at luncheon yesterday.

CHINESE OFFICIALS CROOKED.

Accused of Filling Their Pockets From Taxes Collected.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The state department has received two interesting Chinese proclamations, one an imperial edict issued from the throne, concerning the raising of the war indemnity, and the other by Governor Yuan, viceroy of Chi-li, ordering the people to stop carrying weapons and to guard against a repetition of the Boxer trouble. The documents are not only curious, but they are important as showing some of the results of the war.

The imperial edict discloses that China is seeking to devise a plan for meeting the war indemnity, and is fearful that the heavy tax on the people will oppress them to further disorder. The edict also accuses the Chinese officials of "filling their own pockets" with the sums taken from the people.

Railroads In Bitter Fight.

Pittsburg, Aug. 16.—Two hundred railroad laborers, armed with pick handles and heavy clubs, and protected by a trench and strong barricade, remained on guard all last night, at South First street, awaiting the advance of several hundred Pittsburg and Lake Erie workmen who started to bar the entrance of the Wabash road to the Southside by laying tracks across the route over which the Wabash proposes to run, near the Panhandle bridge.

A MAN THROWN INTO CREEK

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 16.—There was an outbreak last night right under the noses of the troops in camp, and for a time it looked as though serious trouble would occur. The disorder was the result of a mob chasing an alleged unfair workman near the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company's washery, in the southeastern part of the town. There were 50 or 60 men in the mob. As they chased the man up the railroad, throwing stones at him, the night watchman at the washery, named Anthony Flinn, tried to rescue the man. The watchman was promptly thrown into the creek running parallel with the railroad by some of those leading in the chase.

The crowd kept after the workman and he ran to the Reading railroad station, where a company of infantry was on provost duty. The company was immediately called into formation and attempted to hold the crowd back. The captain of the company exercised great patience with the crowd and prevented any serious trouble. The mob caused a large crowd to gather from all directions and word was immediately sent to camp for reinforcements. In nine minutes the entire Twelfth regiment and a battalion of the Eighth were on the scene. The crowd quickly scattered and three men, John Howe, Frederick Zimmerman and Matthew Bronz, who are alleged to have been participants in the assault on the watchman and the workman, were arrested and taken to the town lockup. The troops were kept in the streets until a late hour last night.

POLICE HELD UNDER BAIL.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 16.—The 24 coal and iron policemen and armed workmen of the Warnke colliery, who were arrested for participation in Thursday's affray at Duryea, were brought before Judge Halsey here, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and charged by Prosecuting Attorney Frank A. Guigan with inciting to riot and felonious assault.

John P. Lenahan, who appeared for the defendants, moved for the discharge of the prisoners, but Judge Halsey held them for examination at 10 o'clock next Monday, on temporary bail of $10,000. The bail was furnished by a man who did not wish his name divulged, but who is known to be connected with a large coal-carrying company. The men were released. Sheriff Jacobs telephoned here yesterday that if Frederick Warnke attempted to start his washery again, he would be compelled to ask for troops.

Advices from Duryea indicated that the feeling there against the Warnke washery was increasing as a result of Thursday's fight and that trouble will occur on the least provocation. It is further stated that the Warnke men are determined on a resumption of work soon.

Senator Quay telegraphed from Atlantic City to the chairman of the Public Alliance, of this city, that he is still under the doctor's care, but that he will be glad to see a committee from the alliance any time they call upon him at his cottage at Atlantic City. The alliance wants Senators Quay and Penrose to use their influence with the coal operators to have them consent to arbitrate the strike.

A Lithunian striker was arrested in Plymouth township last night charged with being one of the party that shot George Sullivan, a Polander, employed in fighting fire at the Jersey mine. Two shots from ambush were fired at Sullivan, one of the bullets striking him in the leg and inflicting a slight wound.

MANY STORES BURNED.

Hamilton, O., Aug. 16.—One of the most disastrous fires in the history of the city originated Thursday night at 11 o'clock in the basement of the large dry goods and carpet store of T. V. Howell & Son, High street. In a short time the interior of the Howell block was a mass of flames, and burned briskly until the fire communicated with the Second National bank building, burning out the rear second and third floors and the front third floor.

The Mehrum block, next door, was also damaged, and the carpet store of Creighton and Hooven was drenched with water. The fire department was unable to control the fire, which burned until 4 o'clock. The damage to Howell will reach over $175,000. Holbrook Bros., in the Mehrum block $10,000; bank building, $30,000, with other smaller losses.

A CONTRAST

Of the face of a healthful woman with the face of one who is sick proves that quite often a sad face is a sick face. Many a woman has credit for a sunny disposition who would soon be sad of face and irritable of temper if she had to endure the womanly ills which many of her sex have borne for years.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the diseases which are the source of so much pain and suffering to women. It establishes regularity, dries debilitating drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Cornelia Henson, of Coalton, Boyd Co., Ky., writes: "In October 1886 I gave birth to a baby and the treatment I received at the hands of the midwife left me with falling of the uterus. I had no health to speak of for three years. I had another baby which was the third child. My health began to fail and I found myself completely worn out. I had so many pains and aches my life was a burden to me and also to all the family, for I was nervous and cross and I could not sleep. Had four doctors come to see me but at last found I was slowly dying. The doctors said I had liver, lung and uterine trouble. I was in bed for months and when I did get up I was a sight to behold. I looked like a corpse walking about. I commenced to take Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets,' and ever since then I have been a well woman. I have suffered all a woman could suffer at my monthly period until since I began the use of Dr. Pierce's medicines, but now I can say I have no pain. The dark circles around my eyes are going away and I feel better in every way. My cheeks are red and my skin is white, but before it was as yellow as saffron."

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription" there is nothing just as good for weak and sick women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are easy and pleasant to take. A most effective laxative.

DISTRIBUTION OF FAIR ESTATE.

Relatives of Dead Woman to Go to San Francisco to Secure Their Share.

New York, Aug. 16.—The Evening World said yesterday that Mrs. Anna E. Nelson, mother of the late Mrs. Charles Fair, accompanied by her son, A. G. Nelson, a half-brother of the late Mrs. Fair, will leave their home at Newmarket, N. J., on Sunday for San Francisco, where they will employ lawyers to represent them in the distribution of the Fair estate. The paper adds that the trip is made at the instigation of George Harvey, of San Francisco, who had telegraphed Mrs. Nelson to come immediately.

The paper also quotes Edward S. Lefler, a real estate dealer of this city, as saying that he and his family would take steps to protect their interests as heirs. Mr. Lefler's mother was a sister of Mrs. Charles Fair. Among Mrs. Fair's heirs, besides her mother, others who live in the east are said to be Mrs. Elizabeth Bunnell, of Union, N. J.; Mrs. Laura Leonard, of Caldwell, N. J.; William B. Smith, of Newmarket, N. J., and a number of members of the Lefler family

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—A question at issue in the Fair estate settlement will be which died first. Mrs. Fair's individual estate amounts to about $350,000.

Paris, Aug. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Fair apparently both died at the same time.

Noted Spiritualist Dead.

MONEY FOR MISSIONS

Small Catholic Population of England Unable to Develop Distant Missionary Fields Unaided—School Sends Out Many Workers.

London, Aug. 16 — Cardinal Vaughan, archbishop of Westminster has dispatched the Very Rev. Francis Henry, rector of St. Joseph's Missionary college, to the United States and Canada to solicit money for heathen missions. Cardinal Vaughan has also addressed a letter to the archbishops and bishops of the United States, in which he points out that hundreds of missionaries are sent out by St. Joseph's college, but that the small Catholic population of England is unable to develop distant missionary fields unaided.

Sisters Wish to Come to United States

Rome, Aug. 16.—Members of the religious orders expelled from France, especially sisters, are applying to the vatican authorities for permission to settle in the United States. Several of them have come to Rome personally for the purpose of urging their requests. A reply has been sent to them, pointing out that there are no vacancies in the United States, and, besides, calling attention to the difficulty arising from the fact that the expelled sisters do not speak the English language.

Canada has been suggested as a better field, as sisters are comparatively scarce there, and because French is spoken in a large area of the Dominion. The applicants, however, did not take kindly to the suggestion, and persist in their request to go to the United States.

Corrigan's Successor Not Chosen.

Washington, Aug. 16.—It was stated at the papal legation yesterday that owing to the death of the Cardinal Prefect at Rome, and the various formalities necessary to be gone through with, the appointment of a successor to the late Archbishop Corrigan will not be made until late in November and possibly December. It is said that the matter is being carefully considered, and that while Bishop John M. Farley was strongly urged for the appointment there are two other bishops whose names have been submitted who are regarded as formidable candidates. These latter the officials of the legation declined to designate by name.

Brain Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You may prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get the reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's.

CERTAIN RESULTS

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in East Liverpool. There is plenty of positive proof of this in testimony of citizens, such evidence should convince the most skeptical doubter.

Read the following statement:

Mr. Thomas Laughlin, of 172 Sophia street, engineer, says: "I caught cold and neglected it. It settled in my back and kidneys. Forced me to quit work and almost cost me my life. I could not move without suffering, and often could neither sit, stand or lie for pain. The secretions of the kidneys went wrong and distressed and annoyed me both night and day. I took medicine for ten years but did not get well. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at the W. & W. Pharmacy. Noticing some improvement by the time I had taken the first half of the box, I continued until I had taken four boxes and my back was all right as well as the urinary trouble. I will substantiate my statement of Doan's Kidney Pills if anyone will come to my house to investigate for themselves. My wife had some backache also; she took Doan's Kidney pills and was cured."

Sold for 50 cents per box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

A Son Born—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Fickes, Lisbon street, this morning.

Allegheny Couple Married. — Miss Marcella S. Hart and Philip Schweitzer, both of Allegheny, were married this afternoon by Squire McLane.

Pleasantly Entertained.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Winkle, of Pleasant street, entertained last evening in honor of the latter's cousin, Miss Joan Winkle, St. Louis, Mo. Music was a feature.

The Hunting Was Good—City Clerk Davidson and Dr. Jackman spent yesterday in the woods squirrel hunting. Willis says that the entire time was spent in hunting, not a squirrel being impudent enough to get in their way.

Masons Enjoyed Themselves—The Masonic picnic held at Rock Springs park yesterday afternoon and evening was not the success that was anticipated. The cause was the threatening weather. There were, however, quite a number present and all reported an enjoyable time.

Surprise Party—A most enjoyable surprise party was tendered Mrs. J. M. Arbuthnot at her home, Bradshaw avenue, last evening by a large number of her friends. They arrived early in the evening and spent several hours in music, games and other amusements, after which all were seated to a delightful collation.

Watching for a Runaway Boy—Chief Thompson received a telephone message from Mrs. John Johnston, of Gallipolis, last evening asking that he watch all upriver boats for her boy Harry, who ran away from home several days ago. The lad had intimated that he was coming to East Liverpool and the anxious mother wants him returned to her if apprehended. The chief has not been able to locate him, but will watch as requested.

MACCABEES' MEETING

An excellent meeting was held last evening by Crockery City Tent No. 131, Knights of the Maccabees. Several applications for membership were presented, and at the next meeting new candidates will be initiated. The degree team of the tent is hard at work preparing for its coming task at Wellsville. A lodge is being formed at Wellsville by District Deputy Carouthers, of Steubenville, and although he has been soliciting members but a short time, a large list has been obtained. It is expected this tent will be instituted on the evening of September 2, or possibly sooner if a desirable hall can be obtained.

After the meeting of the local tent last evening, the members ajourned to a cafe where ice cream and cake were served.

Licensed to Marry.

Notice.

All members of Eureka Circle, No. 86, P. H. C., are requested to meet at the hall on Tuesday evening, August 19, as there is business of great importance. There is a class of thirty to be initiated and final arrangements for the picnic at Cascade Park will be completed. Badges for the committees and all members will be given out. Visiting members from Wellsville, Stratton and Chester circles will be in attendance. By order of Committee.

HUNGRY CROWDS

Simply Taxed Hotels and Restaurants to their Utmost Capacity.

Owing to the big picnic of the Jr. O. U. A. M., of West Virginia and Pennsylvania held at Rock Springs park today local hotels and restaurants simply had so many customers that not more than half could be fed. At the tables and lunch counters sat the hungry visitors while every inch of available standing room was occupied by others patiently awaiting a chance for a seat. Several restaurant proprietors, not anticipating such a crowd, were compelled to turn the people away before one o'clock. The streets were jammed from 10 o'clock until 2 when the people repaired to the park. The need of more hotel accommodations was never before more apparent.

Chief Thompson states that he never saw a more orderly crowd considering the immense number. But a very few were drunk. Two cases were reported to central station of pickpockets getting in their work, but it is thought that the loosers carelessly dropped their wealth in the street and that they were not victimized.

SURPRISED FRIENDS

The friends of Miss Margaret Todd and C. E. Jones got quite a surprise yesterday when word reached the city that the couple had quietly been married on Thursday evening by Rev. Dr. McKinley at Steubenville. Both are highly respected young people and have the best wishes of the entire community. They will reside on College street, where they are now receiving congratulations.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Todd, of Lincoln avenue, and is possessed of many admirable traits. Mr. Jones has lived in the city for two years, his former nome being at Wellsburg. He is in the employ of T. B. Murphy & Son.

CAME HERE TO WED

'Squire McCarron Said the Words That Made a Pittsburg Couple Happy.

Among the throngs from Pittsburg who visited the city and Rock Springs park today was a couple that took in the excursion for but one purpose, that of getting married by an Ohio ustice. They were Miss Anna E. Stille and John M. Thomas. 'Squire H. P. McCarron was chosen to perform the ceremony and he did it in his usual accomplished and satisfactory style.

Mr. Thomas is a photographer and expects to be employed by the government in a few weeks, having secured a commission to do photographing for the forestry surveying corps recently instituted. His bride is a winsome and beautiful young lady.

SOME TRI-STATE EVENTS

By the premature explosion of 36 sticks of dynamite near Elkins, W. Va., Patrick Tabaney, a railroad foreman, lost both arms and received other frightful injuries, but will recover.

The National Union of Northwestern Ohio, under the auspices of Lucas County Cabinet, held a monster field day at Walbridge park, near Toledo, which was attended by 40,000 people.

At Toledo, O., the Donovan Wire and Iron works, 505-515 Water street, was damaged $7,000 by fire.

The board of Ohio penitentiary managers paroled Patrick Grady, serving 15 years, from Hamilton county, O., for shotting to kill. All other applications were rejected.

At Cambridge, O., the plant of the Cambridge Brick and Tile company was burned. Loss, $12,000; partly covered by insurance.

John Ruskosky, of No. 5 Seventh street, Braddock, Pa., was held for the murder of his 7-weeks-old daughter, Annie, at the inquest held by Coroner Jesse M. McGeary. Ruskosky was arrested and committed to jail on a coroner's commitment Aug. 12, it being alleged that on Aug. 9 he took his child by the heels and struck its head against the bed because the crying of the little one annoyed him.

William Heidenrich, aged about 40 years, was found dead on Lowry street, Reserve township, near Allegheny City, Pa. He had a big gash in his forehead. The police are working on the case. It is not known whether he met with foul play or not.

Frank McCullough, the ex-policeman, who shot William E. Dunn, of 21 Haldane street, in a drunken row on Third avenue, Pittsburg, was charged by Police Captain Charles Gallant with felonious shooting and was committed to jail without bail to await the result of the wound he inflicted. Dunn is at the Homeopathic hospital and his wound is of the same nature as that which caused the death of Moore, the colored man shot by Policeman Riley in Water street. The chances are against his getting well.

Another effort may be made by the American Tinplate company to have the Amalgamated association reconsider the stand which it has taken against any concession in the matter of wages at a conference of the officials of the company and the tinplate wage committee of the association, to be held in New York soon. The members of the committee have not been appointed by President T. J. Shaffer, but it is admitted at the headquarters of the association that such a conference will take place shortly.
